“Stand-Up and Be Counted”
TTGT11 v.4.11: None More Black
Written by Pookman (Andrew Juhl of the University of Iowa)
Subject: This packet contains questions about famous stand-up and sketch comedians as well as their bodies of work.

Toss-Ups

1. This former roommate of Andrew Dice Clay isn’t really funny(*), but thank God that doesn’t matter when you’ve found a niche. Though his performances may have been overshadowed by—well—better actors in Brewster’s Millions and The Money Pit, he still performs at his own 1400-seat theatre in Branson, Missouri for hundreds of thousands—of people—a year. FTP, name this “What A Country!” comedian.
Answer: Yakov Smirnoff

2. A Playboy Mansion parking valet, a rib joint customer, Deke Anthony, Yuck Mouth, Detective Lee Butters (*), Jake Hayes AND Kevin Pope, Chaka Luther King, Bony T, Charles Wellington The Third, Pootie’s Father, and—the author of this packet’s personal favorite—Pookie. FTP, these have all been characters played by what Down To Earth, Bigger and Blacker SNL alum?
Answer: Chris Rock

3. In the 1930s he was emceeing in mob-owned speakeasies where he became Al Capone’s protégé. Capone set him up with his own club (*) where he performed backed by jazz musicians. His first mainstream album was called “Poppin’ Daddies, Knock Me Your Lobes,” but—FTP—name this comedian better known for his challengingy funny back-to-back albums “Euphoria” and “Euphoria, Vol. II.”
Answer: Lord (or Richard M.) Buckley

4. He holds the unofficial record for playing the same character in the most television series. He settled his $5 million lawsuit against Terry Bollea (*) out of court, his book “UFO’s, JFK, and Elvis: Conspiracies You Don’t Have To Be Crazy To Believe” became a top seller, and he even got cast for the role of the President in Species 2. FTP, identify this paranoid comedian who loves playing the well-read Detective John Munch.
Answer: Richard Belzer

5. This show aired in 1992 on Saturday nights. The skits revolved around a central theme, like dealing with the first day of high school (*) or being the new kid in town. Sadly, Nickelodeon didn’t think the show worked, and instead ran an extra episode of “Are You Afraid of The Dark?” in place of it when Snick started its second season the next year. FTP, name this teen- cast sketch comedy show targeted towards adolescents, who—if they listen to the theme song—know they can always “go down to” here.
Answer: The Round House

6. What a Million Dollar Rip Off! The son of a Hungarian Jew and a Puerto Rican(*), he would have turned 49 on June 22nd, 2003. His son—who jokes that he should’ve been named Chico—would have been 27 on that same day, which is five years older than his father was when he died. FTP, name this suicidal stand-up that fathered his now-famous son with wife Katherine Elaine Cochrane.
Answer: Freddie Prinze (accept Freddie Prinze, Sr.; DO NOT accept Freddie Prinze, Jr.)

7. He was briefly engaged to Lark Voorhies of Saved by the Bell fame. (*) You could ring in now; What’s the Worst That Can Happen? Or, you can wait till the end of the question, because you’ll have Nothing To Lose. Either way, You So Crazy. FTP, Do the Right Thing and name this Black Knight who can talk a Blue Streak, often considered one of comedy’s Bad Boys.
Answer: Martin Lawrence
8. She toured with the 1999 Lilith Fair as the only comedienne, played the voice of God in One Hell of a Guy (*), and gave one of the few redeeming performances in the movie Hudson Hawk. To many couch potatoes, however, she is best remembered for her roles as the voice of Cassandra in Disney's Hercules and Nancy on Roseanne. FTP, name this actress/stand-up with her own one-woman show.
Answer: Sandra Bernhard

9. Lord Nikidik, the voice of Sir Quigley Broken Bottom, Professor Clob, Officer Norman Jones, Jasper Lynch, Jerry Klay, General Billy Joe Hallson (*), H.S. and Harvey Tilson, the voices of Molester and Porky Pine, Coach Cadaver, the voice of Wade Pig, Wainwright Barth, and W. D. Westmoreland. FTP, these roles have all been played by what famous comic who also starred as Gunny Davis in the sitcom Davis Rules?
Answer: Jonathan Winters

10. This sitcom offers three well-known stand-ups in its opening credits. Perhaps the most famous of the three plays the character Arthur Spooner (*), the father-in-law of the title character (played by the second comedian), Doug Heffernan. Patton Oswald is the third comedian, yet he's the only one of the three who has had an HBO comedy special. FTP, name this CBS show that also stars the gorgeous Leah Remini as the wife of series star Kevin James.
Answer: The King of Queens

11. Artie went on to do a movie and an ABC show with his friend, and also to work with Howard Stern. Phil's had a few good roles, but does more voiceover work than acting. Then there's Bob Marley, but not the one you're thinking of(*). Andrew was in the movie Evolution, but that was mostly because Orlando pulled some strings. There have been some others, but—FTP—these are some of the most famous ex-cast members of what FOX sketch-comedy show?
Answer: Mad TV

12. After she played Lorena Bobbit in Weird Al's “Headline News” video (*), Al gave her the spot of the psychic on his TV series. Too bad she didn't predict it would be cancelled after just 12 shows. FTP, name this woman, the ex-wife of Emo Philips and self-proclaimed Goddess of the Galaxy with a penchant for the accordion.
Answer: Judy Tenuta

13. He played a Mexican bandit in The Three Amigos, but his scenes were deleted (*). At one point in his life he was a Baptist preacher who traveled the country doing tent revivals, and he also starred in the short-lived FOX sitcom “Charlie Hoover”. FTP, name this screamin’ demon who wasn’t too fond of religion, women, or world hunger.
Answer: Sam Kinison

14. "You aren't famous until my mother has heard of you." That may be true, but before this southpaw comedian (*) hit it big, he performed in clubs more than 300 nights a year for over five straight years. He still holds the record for most appearances by a comedian on Late Night with David Letterman, but he's not in much danger of being invited back. No loss, because—FTP—this man has his own “Tonight Show”.
Answer: Jay Leno

15. Among his wives are Flynn BeLaine, Jennifer Lee, Deborah McGuire, Shelly Bonus, Patricia Price, and Jennifer Lee (again) (*). He's better known, however, for his 1999 Kennedy Center Mark Twain Prize, threatening to shoot a black man on screen, and a suicide attempt that was covered up by his publicist as a free-basing accident. FTP, name this stand-up who now can't because of his Multiple Sclerosis.
Answer: Richard Pryor
16. A lot of people haven’t seen Johnny Mnemonic, which is too bad considering the amazing performance this man gave in that movie (*). Though not really a true stand-up, he has been lumped into the comedian community by his many fans due to his spoken word performances. Those performances have netted him a Grammy and the hosting gig for TLC’s Full Metal Challenge. FTP, name this man famous for once fronting the band Black Flag.
   Answer: Henry Rollins

17. Madylin, Sawyer, and Sullivan Sweeten play the roles of Alexandra, Jeffrey, and Michael Barone. (*) That marks one of the few times in television history that three siblings have actually played three siblings. However, this show’s drawing power comes not from the child actors, but from the supporting cast of Doris Roberts, Peter Doyle, and Brad Garret. FTP, name this CBS comedy based on the observational family humor of a Mr. Romano.
   Answer: Everybody Loves Raymond

18. This sketch comedy offering has thus far produced two spin-offs. The first was another sketch comedy show starring the attractive, young Amanda Bynes. (*) The second spin-off was a sitcom starring the young African-American comedy team who fronted many of the sketches on the original show. FTP, name this Nickelodeon answer to SNL which also spawned the sub-par movie Good Burger.
   Answer: All That

19. He spent 5 years as a forest ranger while developing his own sense of humor in stand-up comedy. He has also written and illustrated a series of children’s books (*) about a brontosaurus named Lickety Split. Furthermore he is the cousin of the Barenaked Ladies’ Kevin Hearn. FTP, name this Half-Baked comedian that knows many things the government doesn’t want you to know.
   Answer: Harland Williams

20. She made two appearances on Dolly Parton’s 1987 variety show, Dolly. The first was her stand-up comedy act; the second was a comedy skit with Dolly. This vegetarian (*) is the eldest of five sisters, and she worked for years as a cocktail waitress in comedy clubs before breaking through as a performer. FTP, name this comedian, whose drinking problems in past years haven’t displayed much Grace Under Fire.
   Answer: Brett Butler

21. "In Los Angeles this week, the defense suffered a setback in the second O.J. trial when Simpson was ordered to turn over a secret videotape which lawyers say contains proof of his guilt (*). What’s on the tape? The first O.J. trial." FTP, this incendiary quote (which may have resulted in its originator’s termination) was from which host of SNL’s “Weekend Update”?
   Answer: Norm MacDonald
