Below is a "quizbowl" packet - a series of questions and answers for two teams to compete against each other (like any TV shows featuring colleges or high school playing against each other that you may have seen). This one's a little different since all of its questions focus on one topic - love songs.

If you have any questions or comments, please email me at _________ and let me know. Thanks.

Love Songs Packet

Toss-Ups

1. Don't your feet get cold in the wintertime? Your pain and your hunger, they're drivin' you home. It may be rainin', but there's a rainbow above you. Oh, you're a hard one, I know that you got your reasons. But please get ten points on this tossup before it's too late.

   ANSWER: __DESPERADO__

2. The artist in one interview said, "The singer realizes he's made promises of love before and broken those promises, but commits himself this time to make a promise that will last." Maybe that's why she falls into his arms with her hair a mess. Maybe that's why he knows that her body will rise when he kisses her passionately. For ten points, name this song by Sting.

   ANSWER: __FIELDS OF GOLD__

3. The movie for which it became the theme song was originally going to use "A Girl Like You", by the Smithereens. Fortunately, that was scrapped, and this song that mentions fruitless searches and a thousand churches made it instead. Hey - if it hadn't, boom boxes wouldn't be standard equipment for wooing. For ten points, name this Peter Gabriel hit.

   ANSWER: __IN YOUR EYES__

4. He's been dumped. And he's not taking it well. He's trying to forget her, but he can't let go - he has a blue, blue heart. His only solution? Alcohol! He's hoping to get so sloopy drunk that he forgets her. For ten points, name this song that is best-known for being sung by UB40.

   ANSWER: __RED RED WINE__

   ANSWER: __BROWN EYE GIRL__ or __BROWN-EYED GIRL__ (it's the latter, but it's not worth being that picky)

6. You probably don't remember much of 1985's Vision Quest, a movie about high school wrestling with Linda Fiorentino and Matthew Modine. If you are a child of the 80s, however, you may have had your first kiss to a song that was featured in it. And if you did, as you were in a swaying room when the music started, you may have felt that the other person never wanted anyone like this. For ten points, name this Madonna song.

   ANSWER: __CRAZY FOR YOU__

7. One of Elvis' movies, this one is set right after the Civil War and involves a complex love triangle that eventually results in Presley's death. What does this have to do with the title song? Not much - and that's sad, given such beautiful lyrics as "You have made my life complete, and I love you so", and "I'll be yours through all the years, till the end of time". For ten points, name it.

   ANSWER: __LOVE ME TENDER__

8. Its singer picked up a second Grammy for Best Male Pop Vocal Performance for it in 1978. Did you hear that? Hey, girls! Gather round! Listen to what I'm putting down. I whisper sweet things, you tell all your friends, They'll come running to me. Come, come, come. Yeah, yeah, yeah. I am, for ten points, your what?

ANSWER: _HANDY MAN_

9. They began on the Moonglow label, achieving their first hit in the early 60s with "Little Latin Lupe Lu". They moved on to the Philles (FILL-us) label in the middle of the decade, getting two of their best-known songs as well as lesser hits "Once In My Life" and "Ebb Tide". They then moved on to Medley, where the hits pretty much ended with "(You're My) Soul and Inspiration". For ten points, name this "blue-eyed soul" duo best known for "Unchained Melody".

ANSWER: The _RIGHTEOUS BROTHERS_

10. It's been covered by George Michael and Prince, among others - interesting when considering that it's best known for being done by a female. Even more interesting is that one of the lyricists, Mike Reid, used to be a wrestler at Penn State - which may be surprising when you consider that this has to be one of the tenderest songs ever about failed love. For ten points, name this song perhaps best done by Bonnie Raitt.

ANSWER: _I CAN'T MAKE YOU LOVE ME_

11. Send me a postcard, drop me a line, Will you still be sending me a Valentine? Grandchildren on your knee, will you still feed me? I could be handy mending a fuse when your lights have gone. Not now, of course - but when I'm older. How old? For ten points, name this Beatles hit and give me the answer.

ANSWER: _WHEN I'M 64_

12. Depressing though the lyrics may sound, Kodak still used it for a photo commercial. As a remake, it was the only new song on a greatest hits album by Phil Collins. It was the title of its original artist's second album, which went platinum. For ten points, name this song whose singer is trying to convey love for what's on the inside.

ANSWER: _TRUE COLORS_

13. I have to include a song that allows the Statue of Liberty to crush cars, so we have this question. Some previously depressed purplish goo picks up in emotion after hearing this song - much like the singer upon seeing his love. Other versions include a more soulful Otis Redding take with a funk edge, a version by Rita Coolidge, and even a version by the Charlie Daniels Band. Of course, _Ghostbusters II_ used the Jackie Wilson original. For ten points, name this song that is guaranteed to get you dancing with your honey.

ANSWER: Your Love Has Lifted Me _HIGHER AND HIGHER_

14. Green. Red. Blue. White. Bright. Dark. Pretty. Even listening to the adjectives sounds nice. It was used as the theme for "Family Matters" for a period of time and also found its way into _Good Morning, Vietnam_. For ten points, name this song, written by George Weiss and Bob Thiele and sung by Louis (LOO-EE) Armstrong.

ANSWER: What A _WONDERFUL WORLD_

15. Found the one you've dreamed of all your life? Needed something so bad you can't sleep at night? Had someone steal your heart away? Closed your eyes and dreamed that they were there? Tried to find the words? Loved somebody so much it makes you cry? For ten points, name the phrase that comes before each of these questions in a hit of the same name by Brandy.

ANSWER: _HAVE YOU EVER_

16. Do his friends get all your time? I'd make it so we'd never be apart, but I don't know what he does to make you cry. I also can't compare any amount of money to how much I love you. I will, however try to kiss away all your problems. For ten points, name this Backstreet Boys hit.

http://hurstrh.tripod.com/lovesong.htm
17. His early work involved writing jingles for The Gap, Isuzu, and Jim Henson - a surprise since his background at Cleveland Institute of Music was in classical composition. As for his current style - well, check out "My Romance", his most recent album, which includes Donny Osmond and Olivia Newton John, or "Destiny", which includes the exceptionally romantic "Part Of My Heart" and "Meant To Be". For ten points, name this pianist.

ANSWER: Jim BRICKMAN

18. It gained original fame as done by Kim Criswell, and even more popularity when done by a male singer. Not surprisingly, its focus is relatively simple - how simply seeing your love can make your day. So whether it was done by Reno Sweeney or Old Blue Eyes, it didn't matter. I have no idea where cocaine, planes, or champagne fit in here. For ten points, name this song from Anything Goes.

ANSWER: _I GET A KICK OUT OF YOU_

19. Its been covered by New Edition and Aaron Neville more recently, but this hit is easily best at its fifties roots. It's got everything. Telling your love that she's beautiful. Telling her that you're head over heels in love with her and that you want to be together. Asking her if she feels the same. But, most of all, it's about saying that she came straight from heaven. For ten points, name this song featured in Back To The Future.

ANSWER: _EARTH ANGEL_ (Will You Be Mine?)

20. What is probably their best-known song was used as the theme for ABC in the mid-70s. If you're not up on this era, perhaps you're familiar with their other hits "Dance With Me" or "Love Takes Time". If not, make me laugh, scratch my itch, make me shout, be my better half, make me strong, turn my head, and let me give you ten points for telling me who does "Still The One".

ANSWER: _ORLEANS_

21. I only found one interesting fact on the internet about this song from the winner of the 1991 Grammy for Best New Artist - it was played on the fifth episode of Felicity. Almost every other web page referenced this as a wedding song. However, since the song includes the lyrics "I'm dreaming of our wedding day", "girl in white", and "lift up your veil", and is exceptionally romantic to boot, maybe that's not too surprising. For ten points, name this song by Marc Cohn.

ANSWER: _TRUE COMPANION_

22. Its group had a depressing ending, as one member of the duo died from anorexia nervosa and the other was addicted to prescription drugs for a time. But they still scored twelve Top 10 hits and three number one singles, and grabbed Best New Artist of 1970. From "Touch Me When We're Dancing", their last hit, to "We've Only Just Begun", they had a very distinctive and romantic sound. For ten points, name this group whose first hit was "Close to You".

ANSWER: The _CARPENTERS_

23. It just keeps gettin' better. I can feel how much you love me. I've never been this close to anyone or anything. I don't know how you do what you do. I want to spend the whole night in your eyes. I am, for ten points, what?

ANSWER: _AMAZED_ by you
