

88-C

Toss-Ups

1. For 10 points, what is the term for a person from the city of Cambridge?

A. Cantabridgian

2. Originally founded around the year 529 by St. Benedict, this monastery was demolished in an Allied air attack during World War II and was reconstructed after the war. For 10 points, name it.

A. Monte Cassino

3. Caravaggio painted "The Supper at Emmaus." Buonarroti painted the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel. For 10 points, what name did these two Italian artists share?

A. Michelangelo

4. It is a suspension of mucin, water, inorganic salts and cells which serves to lubricate and protect internal membranes of the body. Too much can result in a runny nose. For 10 points, name this sticky, viscous fluid.

A. Mucus

5. Its counties are New Castle, Kent and Sussex and it borders on the river and bay that share its name. For 10 points, what state is this?

A. Delaware

6. Tell me, for 10 points, what is the name for the science of X-rays?

A. Radiology

7. The earliest civilization in Greece, beginning around 2900 BC, was centered not on the mainland but on what Mediterranean island?

A. Crete

8. Her works include "Jacob's Room", "Mrs. Dalloway", "The Waves" and "To the Lighthouse." For 10 points, name this British author.

A. Virginia Woolf

9. The greater transgressions of Roman Catholic law are mortal sins, but what are the lesser transgressions called?

A. Venial sins

C

10. This battle which forced France to follow a continental strategy was fought off a Spanish Cape. Admiral Nelson was fatally wounded in it. For 10 points, tell me what 1805 battle this is.

A. Battle of Trafalgar

11. The first three letters of this word make up a word which means "a park or enclosure in which live animals are kept for public exhibition." The last seven letters make up a word meaning "according to the principles governing correct or reliable inference." The word itself means "pertaining to the science or branch of biology dealing with animals." For 10 points, name this word.

A. Zoological

12. For 10 points, in what monkey was the Rh factor first identified?

A. Rhesus monkey

13. It is played by dealing out thirteen cards to each of four hands. Each player bids in turn; when the bidding is over one hand is laid down face up and the cards are played out in thirteen tricks. Name this game for 10 points.

A. contract bridge

14. "I Think We're Alone Now" and "Could've Been" were both number one songs for this singer, who goes only by the name "Tiffany." For 10 points, tell me her last name.

A. Darwish

15. For a quick 10 points, who first said "Cogito ergo sum"?

A. René Descartes

16. The name's the same: the star of "Fibber McGee and Molly" who died recently at the age of 90, and the Chicago Bulls player who led the NBA in scoring in the 1987-88 season.

A. Michael Jordan

17. This city on the shores of the Indian Ocean started as a garrison founded by the Portuguese. Formerly Lourenço Marques, it is both the largest city and the capital of Mozambique. For 10 points, name it.

A. Maputo

18. Cnemidophorus uniparens, a species of whiptail lizard, has no males. The female reproduces asexually, by a process in which the egg develops without having first been fertilized. For 10 points, by what word is this process known?

A. Parthenogenesis

19. What English monarch refused to let his wife Caroline be crowned at his coronation in 1820?

A. George IV

20. For 10 points, whose works include "Fruits of the Earth", "The Pastoral Symphony", "The Vatican Swindle", "Counterfeiters" and "The Immoralist"?

A. André Gide

21. The name of this tribe is derived from Aztlan, "Place of the Herons", their original, perhaps mythical home. They built pyramids and kept calendars, and Mexico City was founded on the remains of two of their cities. For 10 points, who are they?

A. the Aztecs

22. Gessler, the tyrannical Austrian bailiff of Uri, ordered the citizens to pay homage to a cap hung in the square of Altdorf. A leader of the dissidents refused, and Gessler forced him to shoot an apple from the head of his son, which he did successfully. For 10 points, name this Swiss hero.

A. William Tell

23. This tenor's last appearance in New York was in "La Juive" in 1920, and he died only seven months later. For 10 points, name this famous Italian singer.

A. Enrico Caruso

24. What actor married Eugene O'Neill's daughter Oona?

A. Charlie Chaplin

25. For 10 points, what country bordered Albania to the south, the Adriatic Sea to the southwest, Serbia to the east and Austria-Hungary to the northwest?

A. Montenegro