

Round 12 Tossups

Bowling Green Eggs and Ham

1. This religion has followers in Western Europe, the United States, and the Caribbean. Unlike many other religions, it considers marijuana to be a sacrament. FTP, name this religion developed in Jamaica during the 1920's.

A: Rastafarianism

2. This musician's works have been described as "jagged melodies, spiky harmonies, and screaming trumpets..." His father Samuel also was a musician and a proprietor of a shoe store. FTP, name this composer whose opera "Moses and Aron" was never finished for lack of funds.

A: Arnold Schoenberg

3. George Washington blessed a six-year-old boy with a pat on the head in 1789. This boy would go on to become famous in his own right in the field of literature. FTP, name this author that was going to put the incident in a biography of the first president, but he died before it was finished, leaving the only connection between the two to be a shared name.

A: Washington Irving

4. This novel grew out of the short story "Those Extraordinary Twins." Tom and Chambers are switched at birth, Judge Driscoll is murdered, and it's up to this title character to figure things out using his hobby of collecting fingerprints. FTP, name this Twain novel about a "dumb" amateur detective/lawyer.

A: Pudd'nhead Wilson

5. As magmas rise in the crust, they cool and crystallize in this particular order, which is divided into two subdivisions: the continuous and discontinuous series. FTP, name this series.

A: Bowen's reaction series

6. FAQTP, name the submarine volcano that will be the next Hawaiian island.

A: Loihi (low-EE-hee)

7. The government makes me wonder, especially when it hands out more medals than there were actual participants in a military campaign. FTP, this happened during an invasion of what island in 1984.

A: Grenada

8. In the war on zebra mussels, scientists think they might have an answer to get rid of these aquatic pests. These particular fish seem to enjoy snacking on them. While this new remedy isn't fully proven yet, this could give an image boost to, FTP, which fish, a cousin to the goldfish.

A: Carp

9. "You are going to keep me locked up in Dayton, Ohio? I'm not a priest." was the response of this man when told of the location of talks to end the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina. FTP, name this man, President of Serbia.

A: Slobodan Milosevic

10. In the thirteenth century Chinese mathematicians used this method for solving problems like x squared plus two hundred fifty two minus five thousand two hundred ninety two equals zero. It deals with simultaneous equations and equations with degrees as high as fourteen. FTP, what is this method named for a mathematician.

A: Homer (Also accept "Horner's Method")

11. Two hundred million years ago, the Ohio river was made after the continental glacier at that time created it by moving this prehistoric river south. FTP, name this river that entered Ohio at present day Portsmouth.

A: Teays River

12. This author met much criticism when she tried to switch writing genres from young adult novels to "adult" novels. Her novel, "Work: A Story of Experience", tells the story of Christine who went from job to job trying to find self fulfillment. FTP, name this author who tried to show that her women characters weren't so "little" anymore.

A: Louisa May Alcott

13. "The Dance", "That Summer", and "Standing Outside the Fire" are a few of this country artist's hits. FTP, who is this singer, winner of multiple Country Music Awards for Entertainer of the Year?

A: Garth Brooks

14. FAQTP, give the common term for the angle between the ecliptic and the plane of the orbit of a planet, asteroid, or comet.

A: inclination

15. Egbert, Edgar, Athelstan, Ethelwulf, and Alfred are all, FTP, names of kings from what early English era of rule?

A: Saxon

16. This name of a pseudo-continent is sometimes used when a complete list of countries by continent is required. FTP, name this term commonly used to classify Australia and New Zealand together.

A: Oceania

17. "Well, there you go" is often used as a popular phrase made after a statement or action which seems self evident. However, a more formal phrase is used in lieu of such statements in Latin. FTP, name it.

A: Res Ipsa Loquitur

18. This astronomer was the first to show that galaxies other than the Milky Way existed. He also discovered the red shift. FTP, who is this man who has a formerly "myopic" telescope named after him?

A: Edwin Hubble

19. A series of paintings that showed the same subject at different times of the day and in different seasons was one of this man's popular styles. His subjects ranged from haystacks to the Rouen Cathedral. FTP, name this French artist.

A: Claude Monet

20. This family was full of talent, but before reaching forty they all died from tuberculosis. Branwell wasn't nearly as famous as his sisters, but who can compete with as accomplishments these authoresses made under the pen names Acton and Currer Bell. FTP, name this family that wrote such works as "Wuthering Heights" and "Jane Eyre".

A: Bronte

21. FAQTP, what is the name of the scale that measures the strength of tornadoes?

A: Fujita (Also accept "Fujita-Pearson")

22. This fabric, once the most profitable for Levi Strauss, is the subject of a song by a very popular alternative rock group. FTP, name this fabric.

A: Corduroy (note: the album is by Pearl Jam)

23. This architectural term is defined as a masonry prop that springs from a solid pier and abuts against another part of the structure to receive thrust. FTP, name this feature most popularly known as an integral part of Notre Dame Cathedral.

A: Flying Buttress

24. These Biblical books are written to the leader of the church of Ephesus and are classified as the Pastoral Epistles. FTP, name either of these New Testament books, written in the name of Paul.

A: I Timothy or II Timothy (Note: "Timothy" is the key word)

25. The early version of this instrument was called the sackbut in England. Its usage features portamento, the slides and slurs which only this instrument can make. FTP, name this brass instrument which is featured in jazz bands and produces pitches in approximately 7 positions.

A: trombone

26. This weekly publication began as a counterculture newspaper in 1955 with a staff that included Norman Mailer and Jules Feiffer. From 1977 to 1985, it was owned by Rupert Murdoch who sold it to Leonard Stern. FTP, name this alliterative paper that has evolved into a "sophisticated commercial enterprise."

A: The Village Voice

Round 12

Bonuses

Bowling Green Eggs and Ham

Thirty

1. Write down the following terms: Oratorio, Madrigal, Cantata, or Leider. FTPE, classify the following pieces as Oratorio, Madrigal, Cantata, or Leider.

- 1) "Zefiro torna" by Monteverdi and "Hello, my heart" by by Di Lasso

A: Madrigal

- 2) "Saul" by Handel and "Jephte" by Carissimi

A: Oratorio

- 3) "Der Doppelganger" by Schubert

A: Leider

Twenty-five

2. For the stated number of points answer the following questions about earthquakes.

10--For five points each, name the two countries that had the highest magnitude quakes recorded at 8.9 on the Richter Magnitude scale.

A: Japan and Ecuador

5--Name the zone where the deepest recorded quakes occur. Hint: it's in the seafloor.

A: Benioff Zone

10--During quakes, moist unconsolidated soil particles are shaken apart and voids are filled by water forming quicksand in which buildings can partially sink causing this phenomena.

A: Liquid Faction

Thirty

3. 30-20-10: Name the year from the events.

30: Chinese communist leader Mao Zedong dies.

20: Riots break out in Soweto, protesting South Africa's apartheid policies.

10: One hundred year anniversary of the invention of the telephone.

A: 1976

Thirty

4. Answer the following questions about the Jesus' disciples for the stated number of points.

- 1) For five points each, name the two sets of brothers that were among his followers.

A: James and John; Simon or Peter and Andrew

2) Jesus had two disciples names James. FTPE, name the fathers of these two James, used to distinguish the two disciples from one another.

A: James the son of Zebedee and James the son of Alphaeus

Twenty-five

5. How well do you know your literary terms. I'll give you a definition and you tell me the word it describes.

10--A verse form in which a fragment of the first two lines of the first stanza is repeated as a refrain at the end of a second and third stanzas.

A: rondeau

15--A form of expression, used in Beowulf and Anglo-Saxon writings, in which a descriptive phrase is used in place of a more well-known word, as "the lamp of heaven" for the sun.

A: kenning

Thirty

6. Given a description of a flag, name the country FTPE.

1) Three even horizontal bars. Top is red, middle is blue and the bottom is orange.

A: Armenia

2) A green rectangle with a red circle in the center.

A: Bangladesh

3) This flag has 6 red bars and five white bars with a single white star on a blue field.

A: Liberia

Thirty

7. 30-20-10 Name the country.

30: Its highest point is Chimborazo at 20,561 feet.

20: Its largest export is bananas and its about the size of Colorado.

10: Its borders only two other countries, the Pacific ocean, and owns the Galapagos islands.

A: Ecuador

Twenty

8. Given the French king, give me his nickname for five points each.

1) Charles V

A: the Wise

2) Louis VIII

A: the Lion

3) Robert II

A: the Wise

4) Charles I

A: the Bald

Twenty-five

9. Atlanta will have the Olympics in 1996, but for five points each, name the five previous cities that have hosted the Summer Olympics from most recent on.

A: Barcelona, Seoul, Los Angeles, Moscow, Montreal

Thirty

10. Given a large suburb, name the nearby large Canadian city, ten points each.

- | | |
|----------------|--------------------|
| 1) Hull | A: Ottawa |
| 2) Mississauga | A: Toronto |
| 3) Level | A: Montreal |

Thirty

11. Answer the following questions about the Magna Carta for the stated number of points.

5--Who was the king who signed the Magna Carta?

A: King John I

10--What fields served as the site of the signing?

A: The fields of Runnymede

15--In what year was the Magna Carta signed?

A: 1215

Thirty

12. 30-20-10: Name the Australian state.

30: Two important cities are Ballarat and Geelong.

20: It gained its statehood in 1901, and with that, the northern boundry of the Murray river

10: Seventy percent of this state's inhabitants live in its capital, Melbourne.

A: Victoria

Thirty

13. Name the American painter from works, 10 points from the first clue, 5 from the second.

10--"Young Woman Sewing in the Garden"

5--"The Blue Room"

A: Mary Cassatt

10--"Ariadne Asleep on the Island of Naxos"

5--"Palace and Garden of Versailles"

A: John Vanderlyn

10--"Paul Revere"

5--"Watson and the Shark"

A: John Singleton Copley

Thirty

14. 20-15-10: Identify the word.

20: To play in alternation with another player in the same position.

15: A subdivision of a military company with a lieutenant in charge.

10: A war movie starring Charlie Sheen, directed by Oliver Stone.

A: platoon

Thirty

15. 30-20-10: Name the author.

30: Some of his earlier writings/cartoons were, "the Tough Coughs" and "He Ploughs the Dough"

20: Born in Springfield, Massachusetts, he sometimes wrote under the name "Theo Le Seig".

10: His last book was, "Oh, the Places You'll Go".

A: Dr. Seuss (Accept "Le Seig" on the 30 point clue)

Twenty-five

16. For five points each, what days of the week will the following holidays be on in 1996?

- | | |
|----------------------|---------------------|
| 1) New Year's Day | A: Monday |
| 2) Valentine's Day | A: Wednesday |
| 3) St. Patrick's Day | A: Sunday |
| 4) Halloween | A: Thursday |
| 5) Christmas | A: Wednesday |

Thirty

17. Though they can be found in almost any environment, most lichens can be divided into three vegetative growth types. FTPE, name them.

A. fruticose, crustose, foliose

Thirty

18. Answer these questions about Finland for the stated number of points.

5--What is the capital of Finland?

A. Helsinki

10--Before Helsinki, what city used to be the country's capital?

A. Turku

10--FTPE, give the two official languages of Finland.

A. Finnish and Swedish

Twenty

19. Pencils and paper ready, because its time to zero in on scientific notation. I will give you an exponent, and FTP each you provide me with the correct prefix for the value stated.

- | | |
|---------------------|------------------|
| 1) 10 ⁻⁶ | A. micro- |
| 2) 10 ⁻⁹ | A. nano- |

Twenty-five

20. FTP, name the former U.S. senator from Colorado who recently abandoned an effort to reclaim the Senate seat he gave up nearly a decade ago.

A. Gary Hart

Now, FFPE and a five-point bonus for getting both correct, name Colorado's two current U.S. senators.

A. Henry Brown, Ben Nighthorse Campbell

Thirty

21. 30-20-10 Name the American.

30: In 1794, he produced his one of his last great works, "Agrarian Justice," a call for land reform.

20: That same year he produced "The Age of Reason," an exposition of deism and an attack on the basic principles of Christianity.

10: In 1776, his "Common Sense" sold over 150,000 copies.

A: Thomas Paine

Thirty

22. How well do you know your modern Chinese history? Give the year in which these events occurred FTP each. If you're within one year, you get 5 points.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1) The Boxer Rebellion | A: 1900 (5 pts: 1899, 1901) |
| 2) The May Fourth Incident | A: 1919 (5 pts: 1918, 1920) |
| 3) The Great Leap Forward Begins | A: 1958 (5 pts: 1957, 1959) |

Twenty

23. I'll give you a statement from a famous American eulogy, you name the eulogizer and the deceased (in that order) for 5 points each.

- 1) "First in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his countrymen."

A: Richard Henry Lee; George Washington

- 2) Some people see the way the nation is and ask "why," he looked at the way the nation could be and asked "why not."

A: Ted Kennedy; Robert Kennedy

Thirty

24. Note the following: Sporting, Non-sporting, Toy, Hound, Working, and Herding. Given a dog, identify which group it belongs to for five points each.

- | | |
|-------------------|--------------------|
| 1) Cocker Spaniel | A: Sporting |
| 2) Saluki | A: Hound |
| 3) German Shepard | A: Herding |

- | | |
|------------|------------------------|
| 4) Boxer | A: Working |
| 5) Maltese | A: Toy |
| 6) Poodle | A: Non-Sporting |

Thirty

25. Name the country given the mountain ranges, 15 points from the first clue, 10 from the second.

- 15--Hangayn
10--South East Altai range
A: Mongolia

- 15--Tuwayq
10--North Alhijaz
A: Saudi Arabia

Thirty

26. We are a part of the video generation. For ten points each, give the expanded form of these video acronyms.

- | | |
|-----------|--|
| 1) CATV | A: Community Antenna Television |
| 2) CRT | A: Cathode Ray Tube |
| 3) DOMEAT | A: Domestic Communication Satellite |