

1) Run by the New York State Marine and Aviation Authority, some of its ships are the John F. Kennedy, the American Legion, the Herbert H. Lehman, and the John A. Noble. The ride from Saint George to the Battery costs just fifty cents. FTP, name this floating public transportation institution.

A: The STATEN ISLAND FERRY

2) They had the largest public seating in Roman times, mainly because their function was to hold chariot races. The largest one, which held 150,000, was actually named for its size, maximus. FTP, name this institution, far removed from lions, tigers and the Ringling Brothers.

A: CIRCUS

3) This word is sometimes used to describe the thigh, but usually it's the side of a person or animal. It's also used to denote the fastest speed on a submarine or ship. FTP, name this word, also used to describe the side of an army.

A: FLANK

4) It's the story of a club-footed orphan's intellectual development, quest to become an artist, and later life as a country doctor. FTP, name this story about Philip and Mildred, considered to be partly biographical of its author, W. Somerset Maugham.

A: OF HUMAN BONDAGE

5) This term was originally applied to Catholic supporters of James II, who believed in the divine right of kings. William revived it, but it was broken up in the 1830's because of its reactionary views. FTP, name this party, whose name was applied to American colonists who supported Britain.

A: TORIES or Tory

6) Compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, it supposedly overstates inflation by as much as half a percent. FTP, name this important economic indicator, based on the prices of a "basket" of common household purchases.

ANSWER: Consumer Price Index

7) This town is at the confluence of the Potomac and the Shenandoah, and the borders of Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia. Today it's popular for camping, but there were no campers there on October 16, 1859, when an armed party led by John Brown rolled through. FTP, name this town.

A: HARPER'S FERRY, West Virginia

8) He didn't add the "u" to his last name until he published his first novel, Soldier's Pay. Later novels include These Thirteen and Light in August. FTP, name this author, who also wrote Absalom, Absalom! and Go Down, Moses.

A: William FAULKNER

9) He was a great running back until one day, linebacker Chuck Bednarik hit him so hard he was knocked unconscious for almost 10 minutes. After his recovery, he decided to become a wide receiver, where he also excelled. FTP, name this Giant, father of Cody and Cassidy, and broadcast partner of Al and Dan.

A: Frank GIFFORD

10) Founded by Syd Barrett, some of this rock group's early albums include Atom Heart Mother and Obscured by Clouds. FTP, name this group, whose other albums include Animals, The Division Bell, and The Wall.

ANSWER: Pink Floyd

11) Its parts include the dies irae, a slow, methodical latin plainchant, and the contrasting tuba mirum, a more upbeat and forward-looking section. It has been put to music several times, by Verdi, Berlioz, and Faure. Mozart's was his last work. FTP, name this funeral mass.

A: REQUIEM

12) One version, known as casino, has four shared cards in the middle, and is also called "spit in the ocean". The Chinese play it with dominoes. FTP, name this card game, which also comes in types called "Omaha," "Hold 'em," draw, and stud.

A: POKER

13) Rather than outright assassination, one opponent of this conservative suggests that officials, "feed him lots of butter and eggs, so he gets heart disease and dies like others of his race." FTP, name this Supreme Court Justice, not so distant from controversy even these days after Long Dong Silver and Anita Hill.

A: Clarence THOMAS

14) They rebelled in 1857-1858, in response to a rumor that they were changing gun cartridges greased with cow and pig fat, opposed by Hindus and Muslims alike. FTP, name these soldiers, Indian troops commanded by the British.

A: SEPOYS

15) Examples include Prince Charming, Knights in Shining Armor, cruel step-mothers and fainting heroines. While their names change from story to story and from author to author, their attributes are always the same. FTP, name this term which applies to any trite or cliché character.

A: STOCK character

16) If you move the last letter of this animal's name to the front, you get a verb meaning to issue forth from a source. A mammal of the family trichechidae, relative of the dugong, this endangered species lives in warm coastal waters. FTP, name this aquatic animal, often mistaken for mermaids by old time sailors.

A: MANATEE

17) In math it is a form of deduction equivalent to the well-ordered principle. In logic and science it is the process of going from particular examples to a general law. In electricity, it's a phenomenon measured in henrys. FTP, name this nine-letter word.

A: INDUCTION

18) This ship travelled from the U.S. to England, and even when it sunk, it never came close to Portugal, the country it was technically named for. FTP, name this ship, which took its name from the Roman name for Portugal, sunk in 1917.

A: LUSITANIA

19) They included import duties on tea, glass, paper, lead, and paint. Parliament claimed them necessary to pay for civil government in the American colonies, but they were greeted with boycotts and protests anyway. FTP, name this group of acts, named for the chancellor of the exchequer, who enacted them.

A: TOWNSHEND (Charles) Acts

20) Though tubercular his entire life, he travelled extensively, and his trips to Europe spawned such works as The Inland Voyage, in 1878. In 1885, he hit it big with a "strange case" --that of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. FTP, name this author, immortalized by Treasure Island.

A: Robert Louis STEVENSON

21) It consists of two small, thin pieces of metal with a similar charge. Initially, they are apart, until a charged substance either causes them to come together or further repel each other. FTP, name this device, usually consisting of two "leaves" suspended from a circular stand.

A: ELECTROSCOPE

22) The surname's the same: the Irish statesman who founded Sinn Fein (sinn fenn), the director of the film Intolerance, and an actress who made her debut in Body Double and recently starred in Milk Money. FTP, what's the name?

A: GRIFFITH

23) Examples include the one of Toleration, issued in 311 and granted freedom of worship to the Roman Empire. The one of Emancipation freed the Russian serfs. The one of Nantes gave French Huguenots the same social rights of Catholics. FTP, what kind of orders are these?

A: EDICTS

24) One newspaper said of this talk show host, "If she wants to do something good for animals, she should march out to the forest to be with them, and stay there." FTP, name this diminutive host, who recently spent an evening in jail after being arrested at a protest demanding humane treatment of animals.

A: Ricki LAKE

25) In a tragic, ironic twist, his wife was killed in a plane crash near the site of his greatest triumph. In 1958, he led the last overland trek to the South Pole since the days of Scott and Amundsen. FTP, name this New Zealander, whon in 1953 reached the summit of the world's highest mountain.

A: Sir Edmund HILLARY

26) Today, there are 57. In 1950, there were 45. In 1800, there was only one, the United States, but that's not bad, considering that in 1775, there weren't any at all. FTP, what "trendy" form of government is this?

A: DEMOCRACY

27) George Mitchell turned down a new job as baseball commissioner, but lots of people wanted his job as the Democratic Senate leader. Unfortunately, only one person could have it, and that man was, FTP, what senator from South Dakota.

A: Tom DASCHLE

28) Early betting lines on the Super Bowl have the San Francisco 49ers favored by as many as 19 points over the Chargers. If it stays there, this would make the 49ers the heaviest Super Bowl favorites ever, surpassing, FTP, what team favored by 18 1/2 points over the Jets in Super Bowl III?

A: BALTIMORE (prompt on "Colts")

1) (30 points)

30-20-10 Name the Supreme Court Justice.

30: He was confirmed on a vote of 98-1, with the one being Sen. Joe McCarthy, who disliked his history of civil liberties protection.

20: He wrote the opinion in both cases which upheld the legality of flag burning.

10: This liberal retired in 1989 and was replaced by David Souter.

A: William J. BRENNAN, Jr.

2) (30 points)

The dinar is the unit of currency in three nations. Two are geographically close and share a very similar culture. The other is quite a distance from both of them, and shares little with either. FTP each, name these three nations.

A: KUWAIT, JORDAN, BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA

3) (20 points)

The New York Daily News recently printed a list of the "100 most annoying New Yorkers," each with a biting comment about why they made the list. Answer these questions about them, for 5 points apiece.

a) #51, this actress had the comment, "We hope she never wins the damn thing."

A: Susan LUCCI

b) #26: "Who would have thought that the journalist in the family would turn out to be Maury?"

A: Connie CHUNG

c) There was a tie at number one, between what two tycoons, nicknamed "The Boss" and the "Rich Boob?"

A: George STEINBRENNER and Donald TRUMP

4) (30 points)

Give the askers of these questions from history, literature and culture FTP each:

a) "Isn't there anyone -- who knows what Christmas is all about?"

A: Charlie Brown

b) "What hath God Wrought?"

A: Samuel F.B. MORSE

c) "Excuse me, young man, but what day is today?"

A: Ebenezer SCROOGE

5) (20 points)

For 10 points each, name these K's of world history FTP each.

a) This German word describes Chancellor Bismarck's struggle between 1871 and 1883 to assert government control over the Catholic church.

A: KULTERKAMPF

b) This was the ruling party of China from 1928-1949. After the Communist takeover, they fled to form the opposition government on Taiwan.

A: KUOMINTANG

6) (25 points)

There is only one way to drive from Georgia to Washington state while passing through only five other states. For five points apiece name the five states.

A: TENNESSEE, MISSOURI, NEBRASKA, WYOMING, IDAHO

7) (20 points)

As prevailing winds rise on one side of a mountain, pressure and temperature drop, forming clouds and rainy weather, leaving no moisture for the other sidecausing deserts on one side and humid climates on the other. For 20 points, name this effect, which has nothing to do with your mouth or writing.

A: The OROGRAPHIC effect

8) (30 points)

Name these composers for the stated number of points.

(5) A romantic, he wrote incidental music for the play Turandot as well as his famous opera, Der Freischutz.

A: Carl Maria von WEBER

(10 points) His ninth symphony was the "great C major" and his 8th was "unfinished."

A: Franz SCHUBERT

(15) A humble German schoolteacher, his third symphony was entitled the Wagner Symphony.

A: Anton Brückner

9) (30 points)

Those midterm elections weren't so long ago, now were they? FTP each, I'll name a November loser, and you'll answer with the person who won the race.

a) Oliver North

A: Charles "Chuck" ROBB

b) Ann Richards

A: GEORGE W. BUSH

c) Mitt Romney

A: EDWARD KENNEDY or Ted Kennedy

10) (25 points)

There is some controversy as to whether Love's Labours Lost or The Comedy of Errors was Shakespeare's first play, but it is clear which two plays were his last. FTP for one and 25 for both, name these two plays, each written in 1611, one a history, and the other generally considered a romance.

A: THE TEMPEST; King HENRY VIII

11) (20 points)

Ross Perot did do quite well in the 1992 election, garnering 19% of the popular vote. This was third in history in terms of percentage for a third party candidate. This was behind Teddy Roosevelt's 27% in 1912, and the 21% garnered this former President in 1856. FTP apiece, name him and his party.

A: Millard FILLMORE; AMERICAN or KNOW-NOTHING

12) (30 points)

Given these quotes, give the source, 30-20-10.

30: "The diversity in the faculties of men from which the rights of property originate, is...an insuperable obstacle to a uniformity of interests. The protection of these faculties is the first object of government."

20: "A constitution is, in fact, and must be regarded by the judges, as fundamental. It therefore belongs to them to ascertain its meaning."

10: "Liberty is to faction what air is to fire, an aliment without which it would expire."

A: THE FEDERALIST Papers

13) (30 points)

30-20-10 Name the author.

30: He wrote an article entitled, "How I Lost a Billion Dollars in My Spare Time."

20: This referenced his failure to patent the communications satellite, which he invented. He now writes novels out of his home in Sri Lanka.

10: His novels include The Songs of Distant Earth and Rendezvous with Rama.

A: Arthur C. CLARKE

14) (30 points)

I've fused some movies together into one. I'll tell you the stars and the plot, and you tell me the movie FTP each. For example, if I said, "Cary Elwes stars as wife of green monster," you would say, "The Princess Bride of Frankenstein."

a) Timothy Dalton stars as James Bond, assigned to defend a black man wrongly accused of rape.

A: LICENCE TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD

b) Caine and Connery star in a Kipling tale about ape amok in New York.

A: THE MAN WHO WOULD BE KING KONG

c) A young French girl who falls in love with Marc Singer, a man with quite remarkable communicative powers.

A: BEAUTY AND THE BEASTMASTER

15) (30 points)

Given a character, name the author who created him FTP each.

a) Jack Dawkins

A: Charles DICKENS

b) Nick Carraway

A: F. Scott FITZGERALD

c) "Big Daddy" Pollitt

A: Tennessee WILLIAMS

16) (30 points)

30-20-10 Name the composer.

30: Born 1792, he made a fortune in comic opera, before retiring to cook in Paris.

20: He wrote only one grand opera, just to prove he could do it.

10: That grand opera was William Tell.

A: Gioacchino ROSSINI

17) (25 points)

The prime meridian (zero degrees longitude) passes through 5 nations other than Britain and France. Name them for 5 points each.

A: SPAIN, ALGERIA, MALI, BURKINA FASO, GHANA

18) (30 points)

Name this historical checklist, 30-20-10.

30: They were part of a speech delivered on January 8, 1918.

20: Some major ones included a call for freedom of the seas, removal of barriers of international trade, and self-determination of peoples.

10: The last one called for a worldwide association of nations.

A: Wilson's FOURTEEN POINTS

19) (25 points)

The 1994 Knicks were just a few shots away from an NBA title in 1994, bringing back memories of the Knicks last championship in 1973. The starters on that team have gone on to some varying careers. But four 5 points each, can you name these five players, three of whom are now announcers, one an NBA general manager, and one a U.S. Senator?

A: Dave DeBUSSCHERE, Earl MONROE, Walt FRAZIER, Willis REED, Bill BRADLEY

20) (30 points)

Name the number 30-20-10.

30: It's the size of the smallest simple group not of prime order.

20: It's the smallest number with 12 factors.

10: It's the base of the number system used by the Sumerians, which is why we use it extensively in time and angle measurements.

A: 60

21) (20 points)

FTP apiece, name these lesser known satellites of the solar system.

a) It's the lone satellite of Pluto.

A: Charon

b) This moon of Uranus is named after the Shakespearean character who spoke the line, "O, Brave new world, that has such people in't."

A: MIRANDA

22) (20 points)

Answer these A's of medicine for 10 points each.

a) A saclike widening in a blood vessel, usually in the aorta. Often caused by hypertension, it may block blood vessels and cause heart attacks.

A: ANEURYSM

b) An accumulation of pus from a breakdown of tissues, usually around a tooth.

A: ABSCESS

23) (30 points)

FTP each, answer these questions, whose answers all begin with "p".

a) King of Epirus (e-pie-russ) who said, "one more such victory and I am lost."

A: PYRRHUS

b) This city is the port of Athens.

A: PIRAEUS

c) This disease also called periodontitis involves inflammation and possible deterioration of the gums.

A: PYORRHEA

24) (20 points)

It calls for an arrangement of the sciences in an ascending order, with sociology at the summit. One of its first proponents was Comte, and later followers included J.S. Mill and G.H. Lewes. For 20 points, name this branch of philosophic thought, of which George Eliot's poem "The Choir Invisible" is an example.

A: POSITIVISM

25) (30 points)

Given a map on each of these surfaces, give the minimum number of colors needed such that no two adjacent regions of the map have the same color.

(5) A plane

A: FOUR

(10) A sphere

A: FOUR

(15) A torus

A: SEVEN

26) (25 points)

In 1994, an American army helicopter was shot down over North Korean territory near the demilitarized zone. Two pilots were aboard, one died, the other, the subject of extensive State Department efforts to arrange his return. For 10 points each, and a 5 point bonus for both, name these two pilots.

A: Bobby HALL; David HILEMON

27) (30 points)

Given the year and the continent, name the city where a major earthquake occurred, 10 points each.

a) 1755, Europe

A: LISBON

b) 1964, North America

A: ANCHORAGE

c) 1923, Asia

A: TOKYO

28) (30 points)

For the stated number of points, give the answers to these famous crossword clues. All the answers are 4 letters long and begin and end in "A".

For 5 points, the city in which the Taj Mahal is located.

A: AGRA

For 10 points, the name of Nick and Nora's terrier.

A: ASTA

For 15 points, a Celebes ox.

A: ANOA