

1. Rival of Poliahu, her jealous rages were believed to cause Kilauea's eruptions. For 10 points—identify this Polynesian fire goddess, whose name is the same as the better-known name of Edson Arantes do Nascimento.

Answer: Pele {pay'-lay}

2. This French surgeon and physical anthropologist is noted for his comparative study of the brain and his contributions to the understanding of aphasia. FTP—name this man, namesake of the lobe of the brain controlling articulate speech.

Answer: Paul Broca

3. In 1865, he was the first person in history charged with and executed for war crimes. He was charged because of the inhumane conditions at the Confederate prison he ran at Andersonville, Georgia. For 10 points—name the Commendant.

answer: Henry Wirz

4. Based on Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, it's the story of the materialistic Wilcoxes, idealistic Schlegel sisters, and bank clerk Leonard Bast. FTP, name this 1910 E.M. Forster novel, whose film adaptation stars Anthony Hopkins and Emma Thompson.

Answer: Howards End

5. It has been won twice by Mia Hamm, Mike Seerey, Ken Snow and Al Trost. Recent winners include Michelle Akers, Tony Meola, Alexi Lalas, Brad Friedel, and Claudio Reyna. FTP, name this annual award given to the best soccer male and female player in NCAA Division I—the Heisman trophy of soccer.

Answer: Hermann Trophy

6. Knighted in 1965, this Austrian philosopher wrote the 1945 book The Open Society and Its Enemies, whose ideas on democracy guided the Conservative Party under Thatcher. FTP, name this thinker known for his writings on science and the verifiability of knowledge through his falsifiability principle.

answer: Sir Karl Raimund Popper

7. His three principal ministers were William Catesby, William Ratcliff, and Viscount Lovell, and his personal emblem was a white boar. FTP, name this King, nicknamed "crookback," who ruled England until he fell at Bosworth Field.

Answer: Richard III

8. Bertrand Russell was one, as were Frank Ramsay, Lytton Strachey, and John Maynard Keynes. Despite encouragement to become a full member, Ludwig Wittgenstein reached only the 'embryo' stage, after which he ended his affiliation, with, FTP, which elite discussion group centered in Cambridge?

Answer: the Apostles

9. At No. 3 on Forbes's list of the world's highest-paid entertainers, this entity earned $84 million, going to creator Sheryl Leach and her father-in-law, Richard Leach. FTP, name this large, purple PBS staple of the preschool crowd.

Answer: Barney the Dinosaur

10. The First movement begins with an 8-bar theme on cellos and basses, unaccompanied. All of its principal themes are marked pianissimo, and it was not performed until 1863, nearly 40 years after its composer's death. FTP, give the popular nickname of Symphony no. 8 in B minor by Schubert.

Answer: Unfinished Symphony (Prompt if Symphony no. 8 given on early buzz)

11. On a November afternoon in Corvallis, Dino Philyaw caught a Danny O'Neil touchdown pass to put this Rich Brooks-coached team into the Rose Bowl for the first time since 1958. FTP, name this team, 1994 football champs of the Pac-10.

Answer: University of Oregon

12. After Uncle Tom's Cabin, it was the second best-selling American novel of the 19th century. In it, Julian West, a Bostonian, wakes from a trance of over one hundred years and discovers a lovely and harmonious new city. FTP, name this utopian book by Edward Bellamy.

answer: Looking Backward

13. Galileo in 1600 with shuttered lanterns, Olaus Roemer in 1675 with planetary observations, Hippolyte Fizeau in 1850 with a rotating mirror, and Froome in 1958. FTP, what did each of these scientists try to determine, now measured at approximately 299,792 meters per second.

Answer: the speed of light or c

14. After winning the 1992 Pulitzer Prize for commentary, this 42-year-old left the New York Times in September 1994 to pursue a career as a novelist. For 10 points—name this only regular female columnist on the Times's Op-Ed page.

Answer: Anna Quindlen

15. His most famous works are located in the United States, such as the Seagram Building, and they celebrate his credo of "Less is More." For 10 points—name this German architect was the last director of the Bauhaus.

answer: Ludwig MIES VAN DER ROHE (mees-van-der-row)

16. The Golden Driller, the world's largest free-standing statue, is located in this city, first settled in 1836 when Creek Indians moved there from Alabama. With barge traffic along the McClellan-Kerr Arkansas River Navigation System, it is a major transportation center. FTP, name this home of Oral Roberts University.

Answer: Tulsa

17. He built the first clock in America, and entirely out of wood at that. For 10 points—name this Black mathematician and astronomer is today more famous for working with Pierre L'Enfant to plan Washington D.C.

Answer: Benjamin Banneker

18. A five-month-long cross-country march seeking executive clemency for this man culminated in July 1994 in a rally in Washington, D.C. He is serving two life terms for the 1975 deaths of two FBI agents on a South Dakota Indian reservation. FTP, name this Native American activist.

Answer: Leonard Peltier

19. It has up to 30 daily power failures and two summers ago, a burst pipe in the basement nearly shorted out its electronic circuits. Yet the government won't pay for necessary repairs. FTP, name this Alexandria, VA, building that houses some 25,000 employees of the DOD.

Answer the Pentagon

20. He was the brother in law and uncle of Oedipus. In Sophocles's Antigone, he forbade the burial of Polyneices. FTP, name this tyrant of Thebes.

Answer: Creon

21. His reputation was so bad that Spain kicked him out when he fled there after escaping from lax prison security in 1875. FTP, name the man who, along with his cronies, had bilked the treasury of New York City out of millions of dollars.

Answer: William "Boss" Tweed

22. Born Gloria Watkins, this contemporary American author took her great-grandmother's name as her pen name, writing books like Sisters of the Yam, Yearning, and Teaching to Transgress. For 10 points—name her.

Answer: bell hooks (capitalization is correct)

23. We don't know whether he could spell, but he could shoot, which he proved in 1901 in Buffalo by assassinating President William McKinley. For 10 points—spell this assassin's last name.

Answer: C-Z-O-L-G-O-S-Z

24. Twice elected the mayor of Bordeaux, this author of On Friendship was the most widely read writer of the French Renaissance. For 10 points—name this 16th century inventor of the essay genre.

Answer: Michel de Montaigne {mohn-tayn'}

25. This treaty gave the German princes sovereign authority, gave Sweden compensation in northern Germany, and gave France Alsace and Lorraine. For 10 points—name this treaty, signed in 1648, which ended the Thirty Years War.

Answer: Treaty or Peace of Westphalia

26. He filed a brief supporting Stephen Knox, who said the Federal pornography laws had been misinterpreted. As the nation's lead lawyer, this caused trouble for his boss, President Clinton. For 10 points—name the Solicitor General.

Answer: Drew Days 3rd

27. Possibly because of its warlike nature, it only had its language codified in a dictionary within the past decade. FTP, name this race, whose delicacies include gakh and whose luminaries include K'eylehr (kay-LAIR), Gowron, and Worf.

Answer: Klingon

28. If you want to change 100 cents into a Lilangeni or meet either Prime Minister Jameson Mbilini Dlamini or King Mswati III, you should visit, FTP, which country whose capital is Mbabane and which is bordered by South Africa.

Answer: Swaziland or Swatini

29. In Septemer 1994, the Rome Opera fired him as artistic director. In 1993 he resigned as artistic director of the Spoleto Festival, the Charleston, South Carolina arts festival he founded. FTP, name the composer of Amahl and the Night Visitors.

answer: Gian Carlo Menotti

1. (30) FTP each—given the name of a U.S. state or territory, name the element whose chemical symbol is the same as its postal abbreviation:

A. Louisiana

Answer: lanthanum

B. North Dakota

Answer: neodymium

C. Puerto Rico

Answer: praseodymium

2. (30) Name this disease, 30-20-10:

30) This viral infection hit Philadelphia as a deadly epidemic in 1793.

20) Cuban scientist C.J. Finlay proposed that the Aedes aegypti mosquito spreads it.

10) Walter Reed proved Finlay's theory in 1900.

Answer: Yellow Fever

3. (20) Most Americans are familiar with the rules governing the players in American football, but how well do you know the procedures of the officials? For 10 points each—perform (you may stand if necessary):

A. the signal for offsides

Answer: place both hands on hips

B. the signal that a safety has been scored?

Answer: hands above one's head, pointing upwards with palms touching

4. (20) It's time to bring out the big guns. Identify these famous guns FTP each:

A. The massive gun the Germans used during WWI to lob shells from behind the lines as far as Paris?

Answer: Big Bertha (accept the German Grosse Berthe)

B. The name of the first U.S. atomic cannon?

Answer: Atomic Annie

5. (30) For 10 points—name these Nobel laureates in Chemistry:

A. He American won in 1934 for the discovery of heavy hydrogen.

answer: Harold C. Urey

B. This German won in 1918 for the synthesis of ammonia from atmospheric nitrogen.

answer: Fritz Haber

C. This Swede won in 1903 for his theory of ionic dissociation.

answer: Svante Arrhenius

6. (30) In 1877, John Ruskin was sued for libel by this painter, who had created a work Ruskin likened to "a pot of paint flung into the public's face." For 15 points each—name the painter sued and the short title of the painting.

Answer: James Whistler, Nocturne in Black and Gold

7. (30) Name the author by his works, 30-20-10:

30) The Air-Conditioned Nightmare, Remember to Remember

20) The Colossus of Maroussi, Nexus

10) Tropic of Cancer, Tropic of Capricorn

A: Henry Miller

8. (30) I'll name a natural capacity, and—for 10 points each—you tell me which derived SI unit it is measured in.
- A. Capacitance answer: Farad
B. Magnetic Induction answer: Tesla
C. Magnetic Flux Answer: Weber
9. (30) FTP each, given a song that has been the subject of recent litigation for copyright infringement, give the title of the song it allegedly infringed.
- A. "Big Hairy Woman" by 2 Live Crew answer: "Pretty Woman"
B. "When Sunny Sniffs Glue" by Rick Dees answer: "When Sonny Gets Blue"
C. "My Sweet Lord" by George Harrison answer: "He's So Fine"
10. (30) For ten points each—given a U.S. senator, name that state's other senator.
- A. Herbert H. Kohl answer: Russell D. Feingold (Wisconsin)
B. Harry M. Reid answer: Richard H. Bryan (Nevada)
C. Jeff Bingaman answer: Pete V. Domenici (New Mexico)
11. (30) For 10 points each—name these September 1994 Emmy winners:
- A. Actor, Drama Series, NYPD Blue Dennis Franz
B. Actress, Drama Series, Sisters Sela Ward
C. Actor, Comedy Series, Frasier Kelsey Grammer
12. (25) This Bulgarian-born writer wrote several books in German, including the dramas The Wedding and Comedy of Vanity, the novel The Blinding, and a study on mob psychology, Crowds and Power. For 25 points—name this 1981 Nobel Laureate in Literature who died in August 1994.
- Answer: Elias Canetti
13. (30) FTP each, name these terms from biology, all beginning with "C":
- A. A group of three nucleotides in messenger RNA, each of which determines the placement of one amino acid into a polypeptide chain.
Answer: codon
- B. Water droplets containing proteins and polysaccharides, proposed by Oparin to be precursors to living cells.
Answer: coacervates
- C. A structure formed from a follicle after ovulation; it produces hormones important to the maintenance of pregnancy.
Answer: corpus luteum
14. (30) President Clinton in August 1994 awarded the Medal of Freedom, the U.S.'s highest civilian honor, to nine people. FTP each, name these three winners from a short description:
- A. The recently retired House Minority Leader Answer: Robert H. Michel
B. The first head of the Peace Corps Answer: R. Sargent Shriver
C. The president of the AFL-CIO. Answer: Lane Kirkland

15. (30) His 1915 silent film The Cheat was one of 13 he made that year, but it that helped create interest in cinema by French intellectuals of that time. In particular, they were awestruck by the performance of one actor, the Valentino of his day, who went on to later act in many post World War II action films as the "Japanese commander" For 15 points apiece—name each of these men.

A: Cecil B. De Mille, Sessue Hayakawa (hi-ah-ka-wa) (accept Hayakawa Sessue)

16. (30) Alphabet soup on the Infobahn. If you're going to "ftp" a document from another computer using NCSA telnet, you'd better have an IP number. FTP each, what do these abbreviations mean?

A: ftp File Transfer Protocol, NCSA National Center for Supercomputing, IP Internet Protocol

17. (20) Behind every lead, there's a cast of supporters. Given the films they won their Oscars for—give the names of the last four Best Supporting Actresses.

A. The Piano

Anna Paquin

B. My Cousin Vinny

Marisa Tomei

C. The Fisher King

Mercedes Ruehl

D. Ghost

Whoopi Goldberg

18. (30) These two German scientists shared the 1950 Nobel Chemistry Prize for their joint discovery of the reaction type in which a diene is joined with another reactant containing a double or triple bond, forming a cyclic product. For 15 point each—identify this pair for whom that type of reaction is named.

Answer: Otto Diels and Kurt Alder

19. (30) If you visit the National Museum of American History, you can see the flag which, during the War of 1812, inspired Francis Scott Key to write "The Star-Spangled Banner." First—for 10 points—how many stars are on this flag?

Answer: 15

FTP each—identify the two states designated by the 14th and 15th stars.

Answer: Vermont and Kentucky (order not needed)

20. (20) For 5 points each—identify the creators of these great literary and musical works:
A. Both the Norwegian dramatist who wrote Peer Gynt and the composer who wrote the musical accompaniment to the play.

Answer: Henrik Ibsen, Edvard Grieg

B. Both the French writer who wrote the novella Carmen and the composer who wrote the opera of the same name.

Answer: Prosper Merimee, Georges Bizet

21. (30) For 15 points each—answer these questions about Henry IV:

A. Henry IV was known as Henry of Lancaster—but he was also known by what surname, the name of the castle where he was born?

Answer: Bolingbroke (bo-ling-brook)

B. What monarch, depicted in the Wilson Diptych and later the subject of one of Shakespeare's plays, did Henry IV depose?

Answer: Richard II

22. (20) Although the principle characters in the story are Encolpius and Ascyltus, its most famous character is Trimalchio, a comic figure reminiscent of Shakespeare's Falstaff. For 20 points—name this great Roman novel by Petronius, adapted for the screen by Fellini.

answer: The Satyricon

23. (30) Guiseppe Verdi composed three operas based upon Shakespeare's works. For ten points apiece, identify these three operas, inspired by and named for characters from Shakespeare.

Answer: Macbeth, Falstaff, Othello (In Italian, Otello)

24. (20) Despite the baseball strike, two pitchers still won the 1994 Cy Young Awards. FTP each—name the Atlanta Brave and the Kansas City Royal who won for their respective leagues.

Answer: Greg Maddux, David Cone

25. (30) Identify the author of the following works 30-20-10:

30) Ann Veronica, Tono-Bungay, and The History of Mr. Polly

20) New Worlds for Old, The Shape of Things to Come, and A Modern Utopia

10) The Invisible Man and The War of the Worlds

Answer: H.G. Wells

26. (30) In 1994, Rashaan Salaam of Colorado became the fourth running back in NCAA Division I-A football history to rush for over 2,000 yards in a single regular season. The three who had accomplished this feat previously were also Heisman trophy winners. For 10 points each, name them.

Answer: Marcus Allen, Mike Rozier, and Barry Sanders

27. (30) He was a Texas industrialist and multi-millionaire who founded a liberal arts college, but was murdered in 1906 by his greedy lawyer and valet in a plot to get the money willed to the school. For 15 points each—give his last name, now the name of the Texas university he founded, and the school's mascot:

Answer: Rice, Owls.