

1. His father wanted the young man to become a doctor but realised this was not for the boy and transferred him to Cambridge to study divinity. He probably needed this degree to defend his evolutionary theories from the clergy. FTP, name this most famous traveller on the HMS Beagle.

Answer: Charles DARWIN

2. This secret coal miners' organization conducted terrorist attacks from 1862-1876 in Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Named after an Irish widower who led an antilandlord revolt in the 1840's, they protested poor working conditions and discrimination. FTP, name this group.

Answer: MOLLY MAGUIRES

3. At the age of twenty two, he joined the communist Viet Minh, but later sided with the French. FTP, name this man who deposed Ngo Dinh Diem and later became President of the Republic of Vietnam during the US military buildup.

Answer: NGUYEN VAN THIEU

4. FQTP, Name the Jersey City, NJ moslem cleric who is currently on trial with 11 other Islamic fundamentalists for conspiring to blow up New York City landmarks.

Answer: Sheik Omar Abdel RAHMAN (ROK-mahn)

5. His surviving of a "one way" ride where he was abducted, beaten, stabbed with an icepick, had his neck slit from ear to ear and was left for dead on a Staten Island beach earned him his nickname. FTP name boss of all the bosses of the New York underground during the 1930's.

Answer: Lucky LUCIANO

6. He went from the Final Four to Oxford. Recruited by 75 colleges to play ball, he chose an Ivy league school, Princeton, which shocked many. In 1965, his senior year, he led this motley Princeton crew to the final four. FTP name this former New York Knick and Olympic gold medalist.

Answer: Bill BRADLEY

7. He lived his first ten years in China, was elected most brilliant at Yale upon graduation in 1920, and married American playwright Clare Booth. FTP, name this publisher, well remembered for launching Time, Fortune and Life.

Answer: Henry LUCE

8. Bob Dole was once the chairman of the Republican National Committee. This is of interest, because since 1944 only one other former such chairman of a party has been elected President of the US. FTP name him.

Answer: George BUSH

9. Los Angeles made it illegal to wear this men's garment after it was believed to have sparked 10 days of rioting between off-duty servicemen and Mexican-Americans in June, 1945. FTP, name this suit worn loosely with broad, padded shoulders, pegged pants, and heavy shoes to facilitate dancing the jitterbug.

Answer: ZOOT SUIT

10. A Dutch Renaissance humanist, he corresponded frequently with St. Thomas More. FTP, name this man, author of On the Freedom of the Will and In Praise of Folly.

Answer: Desiderius Erasmus

11. After helping to draft the Freedom Charter, which became the manifesto of the African National Congress, his struggle against apartheid resulted in 27 years of exile and the murder of his wife in 1982. FTP, name this Lithuanian-born South African Minister of Housing who recently died of bone-marrow cancer?

Answer: Joe SLOVO

12. Although this character appeared in only one 1955 cartoon, "One Froggy Evening", he will soon resurface as the on-air mascot for the new Warner Brothers television network. FTP, name this singing amphibian whose signature tunes included "I'm Just Wild About Harry" and "The Michigan Rag".

Answer: MICHIGAN J. FROG (full name required)

13. He made his mark writing the words to On the Town and West Side Story. FTP, name this composer and lyricist of Company, Assassins, and Sweeney Todd.

Answer: Stephen SONDHEIM

14. Besides being a skillful author in his own right, the young Truman Capote was also a featured character in Harper Lee's classic, To Kill a Mockingbird. FTP, give the full name of this character, known to his friends simply as "Dill".

Answer: CHARLES BAKER HARRIS (full name required)

15. Since he lived from 1800-1891, this American author experienced much of the history of the US, so he was well qualified to write a book by that title. FTP, name this historian and presidential relative who also wrote a book about his education?

Answer: HENRY ADAMS

16. One of the first artists to use oil paint, this artist's precocious realism appealed to the princes and wealthy merchants of the Low Countries. His most famous work, Giovanni Arnolfini and His Bride is remarkable for its minute detail and exquisite lighting. FTP name this 15th century Dutch painter.

Answer: Jan VAN EYCK

17. One of the leaders of Dada, this French-born artist turned to manufactured objects and declared them "art" to provoke the viewer. These objects, which he called Readymades, included a manufactured urinal which he titled Fountain and signed "R. Mutt". FTP, name this man.

Answer: Marcel DUCHAMP

18. For a quick ten points, name the third highest mountain on Earth.

Answer: KANGCHENJUNGA

19. This South American river is third in outflow, behind the Amazon and Parana. FTP, name this principal river of Venezuela, whose name is prominent in a work by the group Enya.

Answer: ORINOCO

20. Every year, his team is poised to win the Western Conference. However, his star players always seem to get injured or traded, or in one case, demand a trade. Then he comes down with viral pneumonia! FTP, name this head coach of the Golden State warriors.

Answer: Don NELSON

21. This poor chemist was simply born too late. While Einstein had an element named after him during his lifetime, the organization which assigns such names recently decided that a person should be dead before receiving such an honor. FTP, name the chemist who recently "lost" his element?

Answer: SEABORG

22. Much less famous than the first pope, Peter, this second pope was in office from 64-76. FTP, name this Pope, whose namesake also preached quite eloquently in the Peanuts Christmas special.

Answer: Linus

23. It was founded by Vardhamana Mahavira in approximately 600 BC. Differing from most religions in its belief that the world is eternal and uncreated, its main sacred texts are the Siddhanta and Pakrit texts. FTP, name this religion, centered in India, and now practiced by fewer than 4 million people.

Answer: Jainism

24. Pencils and paper ready! Suppose Mario Andretti, is testing a new car, but wants to take things easy. In two laps of a 1 mile oval, he only wants to average 60 mph. If his first lap takes 2 minutes, at what constant speed should he drive his second lap to meet his goal?

Answer: He can't do it or INFINITY (Accept equivalent answers)

25. This creature was recently born on an American farm. Because of the extreme rarity of its special characteristic, geneticists will perform tests to ensure that none of its ancestors were cows. FTP, what is this animal which is attracting crowds due to its fulfillment of Native American prophecies?

Answer: A WHITE BUFFALO

26. Nicholas Yonge issues Musica transalpina; Christopher Marlowe writes Doctor Faustus, and England defeats the Spanish Armada. FTP, in what year did these three events occur?

Answer: 1588

27. This organism has received a lot of publicity these days, mostly due to the publication of Richard Preston's The Hot Zone. One of its more grisly features is that of liquifying the bodies of its victims. FTP, name this lethal Virus.

Answer: EBOLA

28. The first name's the same, albeit spelled differently -- one's a Dodger pitcher who almost singlehandedly won a world series against the Oakland A's, and the other is a fundamentalist who has a university named for him.

Answer: OREL or ORAL

29. He is considered to be one of the three masters of the high Renaissance, although he only lived into his thirties. He painted a series of friezes in the Vatican, of which the most famous is his "School of Athens". FTP, name him.

Answer: RAPHAEL

30. Born in St. Paul, Minnesota, he received his training in part from a correspondence course called "Art Instruction Schools". His minor characters include 5, Harriet, Shermy, and Franklin. FTP, name this cartoonist who brought the sayings "Good Grief!" and "AUUUGHH!" (note to moderator: scream this, for full effect) to millions of people.

Answer: Charles SCHULZ

Michigan Kajagoogee Boni

1. (30) Though some of you will know these biblical men from a song describing their situation on the Beastie Boy album Paul's Boutique, you may remember them for being placed in a furnace by Nebuchadnezzar. FTP apiece, name these three men from the book of Daniel who refused to worship the Babylonian gods?
Answer: SHADRACH, MESHACH, and ABEDNEGO

2. (30) Are we not glad that the hockey lockout is over! Well let's see if you stayed current on your hockey trivia. FTP each, name the only three coaches to have won the Stanley cup 5 times.
Answer: Hap DAY, Toe BLAKE, and Scotty BOWMAN

3. (25) When he died near the end of World War I, many Parisians rejoiced, confusing him with the German Kaiser, whose name, in Frenchified form, he shared. For 25 points, name this poet whose best known works include "Heart Crown Mirror" from his collection Calligrammes or Beautiful Pictures, so named because his poems were written in the shape of the object they described.
Answer: Guillaume APPOLINAIRE

4. (30) I will give you a quote attributed to a famous African American leader. FTP each, you tell me who said it.

a. You are either part of the solution or part of the problem.

Answer: Eldridge CLEAVER

b. Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.

Answer: Martin Luther KING jr.

c. We are not engaged in domestic politics, in church building or in social uplift works, but are engaged in nation building.

Answer: Marcus GARVEY.

5. (30) Name the author from a list of works, 30-20-10.

30) The Cruise of the Snark, Martin Eden, Burning Daylight

20) The Son of the Wolf, The Iron Heel, The Sea Wolf

10) White Fang

Answer: Jack LONDON

6. (30) FTP each, name the following opponents of Odysseus in The Odyssey.

A. Leader of the suitors of Penelope who is slain when Odysseus returns.

Answer ANTINOUS

B. Cyclops who eats six of Odysseus' men. Blinding of this monster brings the wrath of Poseidon upon the voyage of Odysseus.

Answer: POLYPHEMUS

C. Monster and whirlpool combo that Odysseus must sail through.

Answer: SCYLLA and CHARYBDIS

7. (20) FTP each, name the two philosophers who, early this century, tried to establish a rigorous foundation to all knowledge, starting with math, with their work Principia Mathematica. In addition to his mathematical career, the longer-lived of the pair received accolades for his activities in the anti-war movement.
Answer: Alfred North WHITEHEAD and Bertrand RUSSELL

8. (30) While spending a long night myself in the Michigan library, I thought "Which universities have the most books?" For 5 points apiece and another five for getting them all right, name the top five University libraries based on number of volumes.

Answer: Yale, Harvard, U of Illinois-Urbana, U of California-Berkley, U of TEXAS.

9. (30) FTP each, given the famous scholarly treatise, name the author.

A) The Origins of Contemporary France

Ans: Hippolyte TAINÉ

B) The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire

Ans: Edward GIBBON

C) The Theory of the Leisure Class

Ans: Thorstein B. VEBLEN

10. (30) When the Grammy nominees were recently announced, 5 artists each received 5 nominations. For 5 points apiece, with an additional 5 point bonus if you can name them all, who were the 5 singers who were so honored?"

Answer: BABYFACE, Sheryl CROW, Elton JOHN, Bonnie RAITT, Bruce SPRINGSTEEN

11. (30) Identify the author of the work in which each quote is found, for 10 points each, or 5 if you need the name of the work.

A) 10: "All animals are equal, but some animals are more equal than others."

5: Animal Farm

Answer: George ORWELL

B) 10: "God's in His Heaven -- All's right with the world."

5: "Pippa Passes"

Answer: Robert BROWNING

C) 10: "There is no joy in Mudville -- mighty Casey has struck out."

5: "Casey at the Bat"

Answer: Ernest Lawrence THAYER

12. (30) Identify the following related to the color green, for 10 points each.

A) The favorite song of Cliff Claven on the TV show Cheers, which motivated him to remain in the US rather than follow his girlfriend to Canada

Answer: "BALLAD OF THE GREEN BERETS"

B) William Hudson novel chronicling the life of Rima, Bird-Girl of the Amazons

Answer: GREEN MANSIONS

C) The band nominated for best new artist/group whose songs include: "When I Come Around" and "Welcome to Paradise"

Answer: GREENDAY

13. (30) Identify the poet from the works, 30-20-10

30: "To a Mouse"

20: "Comin' Thro' the Rye"

10: "Auld Lang Syne"

Answer: Robert BURNS

14. (30) FTP apiece, identify the following regarding mythology.

A) The food of the gods, according to Greek mythology

Answer: AMBROSIA

B) According to English legend, the intended bride of King Mark who was eternally in love with his nephew, Tristan

Answer: ISEULT (pronounced i-SOOHLT) or ISOLDE or YSEULT

C) A nature god of Native Mexican tribes, depicted as a plumed serpent

Answer: QUETZALCOATL (pronounced ket-S AHL-koh-AHT-l)

15. (20) Combine your knowledge of science and orthography by spelling your answers to the following questions for 10 points apiece.

A) Sedative derived from an organic compound; also called a "downer".

Answer: B-A-R-B-I-T-U-R-A-T-E-S (accept plural)

B) Hereditary disease preventing metabolism of amino acid phenylalanine.

Answer: P-H-E-N-Y-L-K-E-T-O-N-U-R-I-A (prompt on "PKU")

16. (20) FTP each, name these ancient works of art and architecture.

A) The aqueduct, rising 180 feet above the valley floor near the Roman colony at Nimes in southern France, which has remained standing for over 2000 years.

Answer: PONT DU GARD

B) Around 340 BC, Praxiteles produced a statue of a goddess for a sanctuary in Cnidus. Endlessly copied, this inspired one of antiquity's most famous sculptures, though the imitator uses the Roman, rather than the Greek name for the goddess. Name this most unhandy imitation.

Answer: VENUS de MILO

16. (30) Name the artist, 30-20-10.

30: His drawing ability earned him an apprenticeship Andrew del Verrocchio.

His contribution of an angel to Verrochio's Baptism convinced the master to give up painting.

20: He left over five thousand pages of notes, recording observations from many disciplines.

10: Despite his troubles, this artist finally gained some much deserved fame, particularly from a painting sometimes known as La Gioconda.

Answer: Leonardo DA VINCI

17. Answer the following questions on Continental Drift FTP each.

A) Name the single supercontinent that existed 240 million years ago.

Answer: PANGAEA

B) Name the broad gulf that divided Pangea into two large landmasses, Laurasia and Gondwana, approximately 120 million years ago.

Answer: TETHYS

C) The existence of a supercontinent implies the existence of a superocean. Name the superocean which once surrounded Pangea.

Answer: PANTHALASSA

18. (30) FTP apiece, given two islands, name the group to which they belong. If you also need the body of water which surrounds them, and the country which administers them, you only get 5 points.

A) (10) Tenerife, Las Palmas

(5) Atlantic Ocean, Spain

Answer: CANARY Islands

B) (10) St. Croix, St. Thomas

(5) Carribean, UK

Answer: BRITISH VIRGIN Islands

C) (10) Baranof, Prince of Wales

(5) Pacific Ocean, Canada

Answer: ALEXANDER Islands

19. (30) Let's place "Name-that-breakaway-republic"! For ten points apiece, name these countries which successfully or unsuccessfully tried or are trying to separate from another country.

A) This nation, neighboring Ethiopia and Djibouti, struggled for 31 years before finally becoming independent in 1993.

Answer: ERITREA

B) In 1967, this Eastern Region of Nigeria seceded, plunging the country into a civil war, ending in 1970 with the capitulation of the secessionists.

Answer: BIAFRA

C) This mineral-rich province of Zaire, also known as Shaba, has been fighting for independence since the early 1960's.

Answer: KATANGA

20. (25) Here are two totally unrelated questions in biochemistry.

A) For ten points, give the total number of ATP's produced in the glycolysis and citric acid cycles per molecule of glucose.

Answer: 36 or 38

B) For fifteen points, give the name of the process that breaks down fats and converts them into molecules of acetyl-coenzyme A.

Answer: BETA-OXIDATION

21. (20) The Earth is usually divided into zones of core, mantle, and crust. For 20 points, name the region located approximately 1800 miles from the surface of the Earth, which separates the outer core from the lower mantle.

Answer: GUTENBERG Discontinuity

22. (20) These food additives enable oils and fats to mix with water in foods, thereby adding to the smoothness and creaminess of texture. They also retard baked goods from going stale. On labels, you may have seen them referred to as "stabilisers". Some of the most common include locust bean gum, polysorbate 80, guar gum, and agar. For 20 points, what is the general name for such additives?

Answer: EMULSIFIERS

23. (30) Newt Gingrich must have been far less happy in 1993, for that's the year when the ruling Conservative Party of Canada, was swept out of office and left with only two seats in the House of Commons. For ten points each, answer these questions about Canadian politics.

A) What party currently forms the official government of Canada?

Answer: LIBERAL Party

B) What new party became the official opposition?

Answer: BLOC QUEBECOIS (DO NOT ACCEPT Parti Quebecois!)

C) Name the leader of the Bloc Quebecois who recently battled a sudden infection of flesh-eating bacteria, surviving, but losing his leg in the process.

Answer: Lucien BOUCHARD

24. (30) Many of the rulers of England and Britain had quite colorful nicknames. FTP each, given the ruler, give his sobriquet.

A) Edward I

Answer: LONGSHANKS

B) William II

Answer: RUFUS

C) Ethelred II

Answer: the UNREADY

25. (30) Name the children of Leda, two mortal and two immortal, from the following descriptions FTP apiece.

A) Hers was the face that launched 1,000 ships after she left her husband for a younger man

Answer: HELEN

B) She and her lover plotted to kill her husband, Agamemnon, after his return from the Trojan War

Answer: CLYTEMNESTRA

C) Symbols of a sign of the Zodiac, they are known collectively as the Twins

Answer: CASTOR and POLLUX (need both for credit)

26. (30) Identify this athlete, 30-20-10.

30) During his playing days, he was rumored to be so dumb that an Oakland Raider commented "He couldn't spell "CAT" if you gave him the "C" and the "A".

20) Apparently, he wasn't so dumb after all. He is now a host of FOX's NFL studio show, moving from CBS.

10) He was also a winner. His Pittsburgh Steelers came away with four championships, and he also earned himself two MVP awards.

Answer: Terry BRADSHAW

27. (20) For 10 points each, name the fragrance given its advertising slogan:
A) More than a fragrance, it's a force of nature Answer: GRAVITY
B) Hot. Cool. And everything in between. Answer: FAHRENHEIT
28. (25) Let's see how much you know about the great Leonard Bernstein.
(10) What American orchestra did he conduct throughout the 1960's?
Answer: NEW YORK PHILHARMONIC
(15) What European orchestra was he most commonly associated with?
Answer: VIENNA PHILHARMONIC
29. (30) Here are some questions on DNA
A) For five points each, what two bases make up the purines? Give only the one letter abbreviations.
Answer: A AND G
B) For five points each, what two bases make up the pyrimidines. Again, give only the one letter abbreviations.
Answer: T AND C
C. For five points each, give the one letter abbreviation for the base that is in RNA, but not DNA, and the base it replaces in RNA.
Answer: U AND T
30. (30) Identify this Jazz musician, 30-20-10.
30) He studied engineering as an undergraduate at Grinnell College.
20) He scored big with his compositions "Maiden Voyage" and "King Cobra".
10) During the 80's, he had a monster hit with "Rock It" and his "Cantaloupe Island" is sampled in US3's "Cantaloop".
Answer: Herbie HANCOCK