

1. She played a teenage vamp opposite Paul Newman in The Drowning Pool, and she recently paired with him again in Nobody's Fool. Her breakthrough came in Something Wild with Jeff Daniels. FTP, name this actress, best known for Working Girl and for her on-again, off-again marriage to Don Johnson.

A: Melanie GRIFFITH

2. Its hero is imprisoned for being a Bonapartist even though he is non-political. Betrayed so that a conspirator can steal his fiancée, he escapes, finds a lost treasure chest, and takes his revenge. FTP, name this work concerning the travails of Edmund Dantes, by the author of The Three Musketeers.

A: The COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO

3. This religion teaches a oneness with nature and a belief that argument is destructive. Originally a reaction to Confucianism, its symbol is the Yin and Yang. FTP, name this religion whose name means "the way," credited to Lao Tzu.

A: TAOism (DOW-iz-em)

4. Like Unser, mention of this surname brings to mind one thing: really fast cars. This fame is belied by the family's bad luck at the Indianapolis 500, where they have had a twenty-five year losing streak. FTP name this family who, despite many close calls, have not won an Indy since 1969, led by patriarch Mario.

A: ANDRETTI

5. Recently, citizens of this country won both the Miss Universe and Miss World pageants. FTP, name this country, which has plenty of beautiful women to choose from in its population of 900 million, led by P. V. Narasimha Rao.

A: INDIA

6. The plane type of this form of mathematics was developed in the 15th century by Johann Muller. The spherical type was first described by Ptolemy of Alexandria. Its name is derived from the Greek words for triangle and measure. FTP, name this branch of math concerned with sines, cosines and tangents.

A: TRIGONOMETRY

7. Jaywalking proved fatal in November for this Wall Street banker with a colorful past. While a grad student at Berkeley, he wrote the revolutionary tract Do It! and coined the saying, "Don't trust anyone over 30." FTP, name this yuppie who co-founded the Yuppies and was a defendant in the Chicago Seven trial.

A: Jerry RUBIN

8. Gary Franks of Connecticut was the only African-American Republican in Congress until this former college football star was elected in 1994. FTP, name this new Representative from Oklahoma.

A: Julius Caesar WATTS, Jr.

9. One study revealed that 35% of them had broken bones--such is the price of being the world's largest tree-dweller. Its scientific name is Pongo pygmaeus, and its common name is Malay for "Man of the Woods." FTP, name this fruit-eating great ape of Sumatra and Borneo.

A: ORANG-UTAN

10. In its second major tragedy of the year, its bassist, Kristen Pfaff, died of a drug overdose in June 1994. Small wonder its critically-acclaimed second album was titled Live Through This. FTP, name this Seattle band led by Courtney Love.

A: HOLE

11. For an ivy-covered 10 points, this successor to Forbes Field hosted the 1994 Baseball All-star game. FTP, name the home of the Pittsburgh Pirates since 1970.

A: THREE-RIVERS STADIUM

12. In law, a tort is any wrong other than a breach of contract for which civil law provides a remedy. FQTP, what is the three-syllable legal term for a person who commits a tort?

A: TORT-FEASOR

13. In his 1961 autobiography, Memories, Dreams, Reflections, he discussed his mythologically-inspired dreams. He categorized people as thinkers and feelers, sensors and intuitors, and, most famously, as introverts and extraverts. FTP, name this psychologist, best known for his theory of the collective unconscious.

A: Carl Gustav JUNG

14. Her string of mid-'80s U.S. Open victories, over Helena Sukova, Steffi Graf and Chris Evert Lloyd, was interrupted by a 1985 loss to Hana Mandlikova. FTP, name this tennis star who between 1978 and 1990 also won nine Wimbledon singles championships.

A: Martina NAVRATILOVA

15. The Erie Canal is in New York, and the Panama Canal is in, of course, Panama, but FTP, where can you find the Haversian canals?

A: BONES (prompt if "human body" is said)

16. When Ravel's Daphne et Chloë was rehearsed, the Ballet Russe troupe found the finale's 5/4 time so confusing that they chanted their director's name to help keep their rhythm. FTP, name this Russian dance genius who shaped the careers of such greats as Pavlova and Nijinski.

A: Sergei DIAGHILEV

17. She was the first woman cable car driver in San Francisco, and was also a school administrator in Africa. FTP, name this poet, author of All God's Children Need Travelling Shoes, who read her work at President Clinton's inauguration?

A: Maya ANGELOU

18. It was one of the most significant battles in Russian history. After a series of defeats, Peter the Great assembled a large, well-trained army and overwhelmed Charles XII's troops, paving the way for Russian expansion to the west. FTP, what was the name of this 1709 battle against Sweden?

A: POLTAVA (pohl-TAH-vah)

19. In late 1994, AT & T, MCI, Sprint and GTE hope to offer a service where users could choose to have a unique phone number for all of their phones; in essence, to follow them around. FTP, give the prefix by which this service is known.

A: "500" numbers

20. An episode of The Twilight Zone featured a T-shirt describing this place as a summer festival--it only figures that Satan was wearing it. Originally named for a valley south of Jerusalem, this name later became synonymous with hell. FTP, what is this seven-letter word?

A: GEHENNA

21. As NAFTA celebrates its first anniversary, the peso continues its plummet. Mexico's greatest bit of luck might be to have an economist for a leader. FTP, name the RPI replacement who was elected President last year.

A: Ernesto ZEDILLO

22. When hemoglobin is broken down too rapidly, bile ducts are blocked, or the liver is damaged; excess bilirubin pigment accumulates in the blood and causes the sclera of the eye and the skin to turn yellow. FTP, identify this condition.

A: JAUNDICE

23. "Something like a War", "The Faith of 50 Million People", "Home", "A National Heirloom", "Our Game", "Shadow Ball", and "A Whole New Ballgame" are seven of the nine innings that make up, FTP, what recent PBS documentary by Ken Burns.

A: BASEBALL

24. A leader of the Celtic Renaissance, he cofounded Dublin's Irish Literary Theatre, which became the Abbey Theatre, in 1899. One of the world's greatest lyric poets, he won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1923. FTP, identify this author of "The Second Coming" and "Sailing to Byzantium".

A: William Butler YEATS

25. Minnesota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Missouri, Illinois, and Wisconsin surround it -- the 29th state to enter the Union. FTP, identify this "Hawkeye State" with its capital at Des Moines.

A: IOWA

26. Founded by Francois Quesnay, they believed agriculture was the basis of a nation's prosperity and that there was a natural economic law which merely required non-interference to be successful. Their famous dictum "laissez faire" influenced Adam Smith. FTP, name this 18th century French school of economics.

A: PHYSIOCRATS

27. End food stamp programs and give the money to the states. Term limits for Congress. Toughen last year's crime bill. Tort reform. All these proposals are part of, FTP, what symbol of the new Republican-led Congress, which has sworn to push all these plans through the House in it's first 100 days.

A: CONTRACT WITH AMERICA

28. She got her big break playing Screech's girlfriend Violet on the Saturday morning TV show Saved by the Bell. It helps when your dad is the producer. Well, dad moved on to bigger things and took his daughter with him. FTP, identify the actress, a star on Beverly Hills 90210 and Aaron Spelling's daughter.

A: TORI SPELLING

29. In 1794, Robespierre ordered the execution of so many fellow collaborators that moderates and radicals in the National Assembly united to execute him. Today we don't know this as the July reaction, but rather as the, FTP, what uprising, which takes its name from the French Revolutionary calendar.

A: THERMIDORIAN reaction

1. 20 POINT BONUS

Identify each of the following as either a plot line of Melrose Place so far this season, a plot line of Beverly Hills 90210 so far this season, both, or neither:

- a) Alcoholism leads regular character to drugs and finally to a rehab center.

A: BOTH

- b) Someone deliberately runs over their significant other with a car.

A: MELROSE Place

- c) Regular character appears in a porno film.

A: NEITHER (you just wish it was true)

- d) Female character moves in with her best friend's former boyfriend.

A: MELROSE Place

2. 30 POINT BONUS

Before fire was understood as a chemical reaction involving oxygen, FTP what fluid was believed to escape from objects when they burned?

A: PHLOGISTON

FTP, who disproved the phlogiston theory and explained the oxygen theory in his Elementary Treatise on Chemistry.

A: Antoine Laurent LAVOISIER (luh-VWAH-zee-a)

Before heat was understood to be caused by vibrations of molecules, it too was believed to be due to the presence of a fluid. FTP, what was this fluid called.

A: CALORIC

3. 30 POINT BONUS

30-20-10 Identify the artistic and architectural style.

30) An 18th century painter who epitomized the style was Francois Boucher

20) It was characterized by lightness and delicacy and first emerged in France.

10) The most famous artisans of this style were Watteau and Fragonard.

A: ROCOCO

4. 20 POINT BONUS

FTPeach, identify the following works of literature penned by women.

- a) Jane Austen's title heroine tries to arrange the future of Harriet Smith.

A: EMMA

- b) It was the first book of a trilogy that also included Sons and A House Divided and won the 1938 Pulitzer Prize.

A: THE GOOD EARTH

5. 30 POINT BONUS

How well do you remember which American Civil War generals were in charge at which battles? Identify the following FTP each:

- a) Southern commander at Stone Mountain A: Joseph Johnston

- b) Northern commander at Chancellorsville A: Joseph HOOKE

- c) Northern commander at Antietam A: George McClellan

6. 30 POINT BONUS

FTP each, name the second largest city by population in each of the following South American countries.

- a) Brazil A: RIO de Janeiro (São Paulo is #1)
- b) Columbia A: MEDELLIN [may-day-YEEN] (Bogota is #1)
- c) Argentina A: Cordoba (Buenos Aires is #1)

7. 30 POINT BONUS

This bonus will ask you to shamelessly combine Shakespeare titles with somewhat more modern works, FTP apiece. For example, if I mentioned a Dr. Seuss character agonizing about whether to kill his stepfather, you would say "Green Eggs and Hamlet" (or sacrifice points for dignity).

- a. Lovers mismatched by fairy magic chase each other around in the forest to the sounds of Sting's first solo album.

A: A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM OF THE BLUE TURTLES

- b. A joyous, romantic comedy about zombies on holiday in Illyria.

A: TWELFTH NIGHT OF THE LIVING DEAD

- c. Beatrix Potter's Mr. MacGregor exits pursued by a bear.

A: A WINTER'S TALE OF PETER RABBIT

8. 30 POINT BONUS

OK, I'm sure someone on your team surfs the 'Net so this bonus should be a breeze. Tell me what each of the following acronyms stands for FTP a piece.

- a) MUD A: MULTI USER DUNGEON
- b) IMHO A: IN MY HUMBLE OPINION
- c) YMMV A: YOUR MILEAGE MAY VARY

9. 20 POINT BONUS

In 1968 Steven Weinberg theorized that the weak and electromagnetic forces were in fact one and the same. This notion has given physicists cause to presume that all the forces of nature could some day be encompassed under one theory, 'GUT'. FTP, what does GUT stand for?

A: GRAND UNIFIED THEORY

GUT also implies that a particle once thought to be stable actually decays, albeit rather slowly. For ten more points, name this hadron.

A: PROTON

10. 25 POINT BONUS

Perhaps this group should do a cover of the Talking Heads' "Burning Down the House," since one of its members torched Andre Rison's home after a lover's quarrel. FTP, name the rap group.

A: TLC

For twenty points, name the TLC'er who'll marry Rison despite arsonous ways.

A: Lisa "One-Eye" LOPEZ

11. 30 POINT BONUS

25-10 name the author.

25) His first collection of short stories was 1959's The Same Door--his most recent, 1994's The Afterlife and Other Stories.

10) He is best know for his series of novels beginning with Rabbit Run.

A: John UPDIKE

12. 25 POINT BONUS

He was Babe Ruth's ghost writer before becoming baseball's commisioner. During his tenure he helped establish the Hall of Fame, but he is infamous for his 1961 ruling which let Roger Maris and the Babe share the single-season home run crown. For 25 points, who was he?

A: Ford FRICK

13. 30 POINT BONUS

FTP each, identify the following terms associated with glaciers.

a. uneven ridges formed by deposits of clay, silt, sand and rocks.

A: MORAINEs

b. round hills formed usually by deposits of rocks left by glaciers

A: DRUMLINs

c. narrow ridges of sand and gravel formed by streams of water that flowed in tunnels beneath melting glaciers

A: ESKERs

14. 25 POINT BONUS

This ancient novel concerns the wanderings of two freedmen and their young traveling companion. FTP, name its author, a close companion of Nero's, and for fifteen points, name the work, made into a film by Fellini and concerning overly ostentations banquets and the impressive endowment of one of its protagonists.

A: PETRONIUS (author) and the SATYRICON

15. 20 POINT BONUS

A legendary high school player, he was awarded the honor of Mr. Basketball of Indiana. He stayed home and played his college ball for Bobby Knight, but did not blossom until his senior season. For twenty points, name this phenom, who's still not going anywhere since he was drafted by the Indiana Pacers.

A: Damon BAILEY

16. 25 POINT BONUS

Considered the greatest sculptor of ancient Greece, this Athenian was a friend of the politician Pericles. He designed the sculptures of the Parthenon and is known for his statue of Olympian Zeus and different incarnations of Athena. For 25 points, name him.

A: PHIDIAS

17. 20 POINT BONUS

Protestantism is the majority religion of the US, but not all Protestant sects are mainstream. FTP apiece, name these unusual Protestant denominations involved in landmark Supreme Court decisions.

a. In Sherbert v. Verner, a member of this sect was fired because she refused to work on Saturday; the Court ruled she could not be denied unemployment compensation for turning down jobs that would violate her Saturday Sabbath.

A: SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST

b. In Wisconsin v. Yoder, members of this sect were granted an exception to compulsory education laws because education beyond the eighth grade violated their religious duty to withdraw from the secular world.

A: AMISH or MENNONITE

18. 25 POINT BONUS

California's Proposition 187 has yet to be implemented because of a 1982 Supreme Court decision prohibiting Texas from denying public education to the children of illegal immigrants. For fifteen points, name this case, which the court is likely to revisit.

A: PLYLER v. Doe

Only Justice Stevens remains of the Plyler majority, but two of the three dissenting Justices are still on the Court. For 5 points apiece, name these two.

A: William REHNQUIST and Sandra Day O'CONNOR

19. 30 POINT BONUS

30-20-10, name the playwright.

30) His latest play, Three Tall Women, won him his third Pulitzer.

20) Other plays include A Delicate Balance, Seascape, and Zoo Story.

10) His best-known work is Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?

A: Edward ALBEE

20. 20 POINT BONUS

Despite its name, it's not a movie about a Frenchman in Las Vegas. Instead, it's a philosophical reasoning which says that one should believe in God because one has everything to gain and nothing to lose. It requires no faith on your part either to name this principle and get twenty points.

A: PASCAL'S WAGER

21. 20 POINT BONUS

On January 1, 1995 the European Union welcomed three new members to the group. For five points apiece, name these newly admitted partners.

A: SWEDEN, FINLAND, and AUSTRIA

For five more points, which country refused the EU's offer in a fall referendum?

A: NORWAY

22. 30 POINT BONUS

30-20-10, identify the island.

30) Musician Shoukichi Kina, whose work has recently been released in the U.S., created a sensation in Japan by adding electric instruments to its folk music.

20) Conquered by Japan in the 1800's and now its southernmost prefecture, its people are Japan's largest indigenous minority.

10) The largest of the Ryukyu Islands, it is the site of a US Air Force base.

A: OKINAWA

23. 30 POINT BONUS

30-20-10, identify the planet.

30) Galileo first discovered it during his observations of Jupiter, but never followed up on it.

20) Its major surface feature is the Great Dark Spot.

10) Voyager II found six new moons in 1989, bringing the total to eight.

A: NEPTUNE

24. 30 POINT BONUS

In 1994 football returned to Baltimore for the first time in ten years via a Canadian Football League franchise. FTP each, name the other three American cities that fielded teams in the CFL in 1994.

A: LAS VEGAS Posse, SACRAMENTO Gold Miners, SHREVEPORT Pirates

25. 30 POINT BONUS

Alabama nearly pulled off a rare trifecta: having three governors in one month. FTP each, name:

a. the ex-governor ousted by a 1993 embezzling conviction, who would have briefly returned to the state house if he had won a third court appeal.

ANSWER: Guy HUNT

b. the outgoing governor, who took over after Hunt's removal.

ANSWER: James FOLSOM

c. the new governor, who defeated Folsom in November 1994.

ANSWER: Fob JAMES

26. 30 POINT BONUS

Naming the members of the Clinton Cabinet is too easy, so we'll go to the Yeltsin Cabinet. FTP, name the following prominent Russians.

a. the Prime Minister

ANSWER: Viktor CHERNOMYRDIN

b. Foreign Minister

ANSWER: Andrei KOZYREV

c. Defense Minister

ANSWER: Pavel GRACHEV

27. 30 POINT BONUS

FTP each, or twenty-five for both, answer these questions about two books that debuted the same week in October 1994.

a. Although it breaks little new theological ground, this book by John Paul II reportedly earned the pontiff a $6 million advance.

ANSWER: CROSSING THE THRESHOLD OF HOPE

b. This alleged best friend of the deceased published Nicole Brown Simpson: The Private Diary of a Life Interrupted in time for jury selection.

ANSWER: Faye RESNICK

28. 25 POINT BONUS

Development of 'high temperature' superconducting materials has driven the use of SQUIDS, which can detect changes in magnetic fields. For five points each, plus five for all correct, what four words does the acronym SQUID stand for.

A: SUPERCONDUCTING QUANTUM INTERFERENCE DEVICE