

1. His pro-choice and pro-gays in the military positions contributed to his winning the "Civil Libertarian of the Year" award from the ACLU's Phoenix chapter. FTP, name this 86 year old author of The Conscience of a Conservative.
Answer: Barry Goldwater

2. Korsakoff's Syndrome is a form of amnesia caused by this substance, and delirium tremens and delusions often result from its withdrawal. FTP, name this most commonly abused drug, also associated with cirrhosis.
Answer: Alcohol

3. This comedian made his preferences clear with such lines as "I'd much prefer two 21 year-old women to one 42 year-old." FTP, name this funny man, who, on the whole, would rather have been in Philadelphia.
Answer: W.C. Fields

4. Ivan is a chemist. Dmitry is a soldier. Alexei is a monastic novice. Smerdyakov is an epileptic cook. One of the killed their father, but a different one is punished for the crime. FTP, name this novel by Fyodor Dostoevsky, to which these four characters as a group lend their name.
Answer: The Brothers Karamazov

5. While Manassas is also known as Bull Run, this famous city is known for the running of the bulls through the streets. FTP, name this Spanish metropolis.
Answer: Pamplona

6. His satires, such as his parody of Richardson's Pamela entitled Joseph Andrews, were so biting that they led to an English law closing his theater. FTP, name this author of Tom Jones.
Answer: Henry Fielding

7. Her husband is Dr. Robert Jarvik, the inventor of the first artificial heart. She's better known for her world-record high IQ and her column in Parade magazine. FTP, who is this aptly named genius.
Answer: Marilyn vos Savant

8. A slave in Egypt, he was jailed for an alleged dalliance with Potiphar's wife. However, he rose to prominence when he correctly interpreted the Pharaoh's dreams. FTP, name this Old Testament figure, the youngest son of Jacob.
Answer: Joseph

9. He died before he could complete scoring methods for his tests, so various techniques devised by his American followers were synthesized by J.E. Exner based on empirical evidence. FTP, name this inventor of objective inkblot tests.
Answer: Hermann Rorschach

10. He has won three Olympic gold medals and two silvers, but has been shut out in skiing's World Championships since 1987. FTP, name this skier, a winner of seven World Cup races this season known almost as much for his fast cars and lifestyle as for his dominance in the slalom.

ANSWER: Alberto Tomba

11. If you encounter Oklahoma Representative J.C. Watts in the halls of Congress, instead of addressing him as "Your Honor," it might be more appropriate to simply say "Hail!" since his initials stand for, FTP, what Roman statesman.

Answer: Julius Caesar

12. "I'll terror your Shivan," "I tap my Library of Alexandria to draw another card," and "I'll band the Pikemen and the Elven Archers and attack." You might hear these phrases if you are playing, FTP, what collectable card game?

Answer: Magic: The Gathering (prompt on "Magic")

13. This painter started out as a stockbroker, but in 1888 became the leader of a group of painters at Pont Aven, Brittany. FTP, name this French artist, whose works include The Vision after the Sermon and various portraits of the natives of Tahiti.

Answer: Paul Gauguin

14. It comprises four stages: isothermal then adiabatic expansions, followed by isothermanl and adiabatic compressions. An engine based on this cycle is the most efficient engine possible. FTP, name this cycle, first proposed in 1824.

Answer: Carnot cycle

15. In 1860, this British general helped crush the Taipin Rebellion, which helped him earn his nickname. In 1877 he became governor of Sudan, and was later killed in a rebellion lead by the Madhi two days before relief troops arrived. FTP, name him.

Answer: Charles G. "Chinese" Gordon

16. A close advisor to LBJ, he gained fame as the defense attorney in the seminal case of Gideon v. Wainwright, and was appointed to the Supreme Court by Johnson, but a Life magazine article forced him from the court. FTP, name him.

Answer: Abe Fortas

17. "We sent him to an acting coach in New York who called us back and said, 'This guy's got talent!'" So said Sherry Spillane, the agent of this man, known for an ill-fated romance in which he was Humbert Humbert to the "Long Island Lolita." FTP, name the former beau of Amy Fisher.

Answer: Joey Buttafuoco

18. This spherical halo at a distance of 50,000 Astronomical Units is located at the boundary of the Sun's sphere of influence. Named for a Dutch astronomer, FTP, name this theoretical source of long-period comets.

Answer: Oort cloud

19. Isolationist senator Burton K. Wheeler said that this program "was the New Deal's triple AAA foreign policy; it will plow under every fourth American boy." Still, it was passed by Congress, and authorized FDR to give war materials to Britain to help fight Germany. FTP, name this program passed in 1940.

Answer: Lend-Lease Act

20. He worked for the parole board in New York City for two years after retiring from professional sports until his death in 1941. FTP, name this baseball great now eponymous with amyotrophic lateral sclerosis.

Answer: Lou Gehrig

21. All but three of the geographic features here are named after females, including Sacajewea, Colette, Phoebe, Ishtar, and Aphrodite, and its rotation is retrograde. FTP, name this, the second nearest planet to the sun.

Answer: Venus

22. This Italian sculptor first assisted Ghiberti on the bronze doors for the Baptistery. Among his most famous works are St. John the Evangelist and The Miracles of St. Anthony. FTP, name this sculptor, creator of the bronze David.

Answer: Donatello

23. This name is the Anglicized derivative of an Old French term of affection, which became modern French for "son-in-law". However, we're more likely to associate the name with a really stupid blond 14-year old. FTP who's that dorky guy always hanging around with Butt-Head?

A: BEAVIS

24. Valentine Michael Smith, a survivor of a failed Mars expedition, returns to Earth in this novel, where he teaches humans about water sharing, grokking, and love. FTP, name this Robert Heinlein novel.

Answer: Stranger in a Strange Land

25. "What walks on four legs in the morning, two legs in the afternoon, and three legs in the evening." FTP, give me the answer to this famous riddle, solved by Oedipus to end the Sphinx's reign of terror in Thebes.

Answer: Man (accept equivalents)

26. Two answers required. About 1000 miles apart, these two U.S. cities, which are anagrams of each other, became famous for historical events separated by 273 years. FTP, name these northeastern and southern towns, renowned for a civil rights march and famous witch trials.

Answer: Selma, Salem

27. In various song titles, it precedes "love," "blues," and "blackbird." FTP, name this repetitive farewell address.

Answer: Bye Bye

28. In 1994, Liv Andersen trekked 745 miles over fifty days to become the first woman to ever reach this destination alone. Her trek began at the Hercules Inlet and ended at an American research base. FTP, what was the destination of this Norwegian woman?

Answer: The South Pole

29. This nickname was given to the Presidency of James Monroe because of the widespread prosperity of the U.S. after the War of 1812. However, it was cut short by the Panic of 1819. FTP, give the happy-sounding nickname.

Answer: Era of Good Feelings

30. He was on Elizabeth I's secret service, and a poet and playwright on the side. He established dramatic blank verse, a style used for The Jew of Malta, Dido, Queen of Carthage, and Doctor Faustus. FTP, name this contemporary of Shakespeare?

Answer: Christopher Marlowe

31. The name's the same: a schematic of the human body with higher functions proportionally represented in the motor or sensory cortex, or an artificially created miniature creature. FTP, name this term, derived from the Latin for "small man".

Answer: Homunculus

32. Janine Brookner's settlement with this organization may spur efforts by its other female employees to file a class-action sex bias lawsuit. FTP, name Brookner's employer, for whom she was the Jamaica station chief for covert operations.

Answer: Central Intelligence Agency

20 POINT BONUS

1. Born in Lithuania, this Communist party activist became the first white to serve on the executive committee of the African National Congress. and played a key role in negotiating the end to apartheid. For twenty points, name this late Housing Minister under President Mandela.

Answer: Joe Slovo

20 POINT BONUS

2. Dead, Canadian, both, or neither? For five points each, state whether the following show-biz personalities are dead, Canadian, both, or neither.

- |                 |                    |
|-----------------|--------------------|
| a. Hume Cronyn  | A: Canadian |
| b. Raymond Burr | A: Both     |
| c. John Candy   | A: Both     |
| d. Bert Convy   | A: Dead     |

30 POINT BONUS

3. Time for some Periodic Table Stock Exchange! FTP each, given the name of the element, name the company which uses the same symbol on the New York Stock Exchange. For example, if I said "carbon", your answer would be "Chrysler".

- |              |                                   |
|--------------|-----------------------------------|
| a) Radon     | A: REYNOLDS NABISCO (Rn)   |
| b) Potassium | A: KELLOGG Corporation (K) |
| c) Antimony  | A: SALOMON Brothers (Sb)   |

30 POINT BONUS

4. FTP each, given a college, name the schools sports team nicknames.

- |                               |                         |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------|
| a. UC Santa Clara             | A: Bananna Slugs |
| b. Texas Christian University | A: Horned Frogs  |
| c. Kansas                     | A: Jayhawks      |

30 POINT BONUS

5. The word "outgrabe" is most unusual. FTP, name the 1855 nonsense poem the word appears twice in.

ANSWER: "Jabberwocky"

FTP, name the author of "Jabberwocky".

ANSWER: Lewis Carroll or Charles Dodgson

FTP, name the Lewis Carroll novel that the poem "Jabberwocky" appears in.

ANSWER: Through the Looking Glass

20 POINT BONUS

6. In 1994, an amateur home movie entered the Registry of American Film. But this was no ordinary movie: it was used as evidence by the Warren Commission. For twenty points, name the maker of the film, featured in the court-room scene of Oliver Stone's JFK.

ANSWER: Abraham ZAPRUDER

30 POINT BONUS

7. FTP each, name the composers of the following operas.

a. Eugene Onegin

A: Piotr Ilich TCHAIKOVSKY

b. Vanessa

A: Samuel BARBER

c. The Bartered Bride

A: Bedrich SMETANA

30 POINT BONUS

8. Answer these questions about the Black Sea area for 10 points a piece

A. The largest city off the southwest Crimean Peninsula bordering the Black Sea?

Answer: SEVASTOPOL

B. What smaller sea would you be in if you sailed through the Kerch Strait?

Answer: Sea of AZOV

C. Name the only country to border both the Black Sea and Caspian Sea

Answer: RUSSIA

30 POINT BONUS

9. FTP each, given a list of characters, name the George Bernard Shaw play they appear in FTP each.

a. Lady Britomart, Andrew Undershaft

ANSWER: Major Barbara

b. Captain Shotover, Hermione

ANSWER: Heartbreak House

c. Henry Higgins, Eliza Doolittle

ANSWER: Pygmalion

20 POINT BONUS

10. It was reported in late 1994 that scientists were developing new, non-intrusive ways to study variations in Chimpanzee DNA by collecting hair from abandoned chimp nests. They are doing this in the Gombe reserve, made famous by, FTP, what chimpanzee-studying female?

Answer: Jane GOODALL

FTP more, in what country is Gombe located?

Answer: TANZANIA

30 POINT BONUS

11. Between 345 Million and 280 million years ago, there were two geologic epochs named after U.S. states that saw the formation of lowland forests and many mountains. For 5 points a piece - name these two epochs

Answers: PENNSYLVANIAN and MISSISSIPPIAN

B. FTP, name the Geologic period that contains those epochs

Answer: CARBONIFEROUS

C. And for 5 points a piece - name the appropriate Era and Eon for the Carboniferous period.

Answer: PALEOZOIC (Era) and PHANEROZOIC (Eon)

30 POINT BONUS

12. He brought cable TV to schools with Channel One. Now he wants to start a string of for-profit private schools. FTP, name this education entrepreneur.

ANSWER: Christopher WHITTLE

FTP, name Whittle's stalled venture to run these private schools.

ANSWER: the EDISON Project

FTP, name the former Yale President Whittle enticed to lead the Edison Project.

ANSWER: Benno SCHMIDT

30 POINT BONUS

13. The following have the thirteenth letter of the English language in common. FTP each, identify them.

a. A Portuguese overseas province in South China

A: MACAO

b. A British economist who feared overpopulation

A: Thomas MALTHUS

c. An Ancient civilization on the Island of Crete

A: MINOAN

30 POINT BONUS

14. 30-20-10, name this Japanese city.

30) Lying on the island of Honshu, it is the capital of Hyogo Prefecture.

20) It is Japan's largest commercial port.

10) It was rocked by a major earthquake in January 1995.

ANSWER: Kobe

30 POINT BONUS

15. Identify the American author from a list of works, 30-20-10.

30) Afternoon of an Author, the Basil and Josephine Stories

20) The Beautiful and the Damned

10) Tender Is the Night

ANSWER: Francis Scott Key Fitzgerald

20 POINT BONUS

16. A homonym is a pair of words that are pronounced the same despite a difference in spelling. One interesting homonym pair consists of the name of a sovereign nation on the Persian Gulf and the name of a nasal disease. FTP each, spell correctly the two words of this homonym pair.

Answer: Q-a-t-a-r and C-a-t-a-r-r-h

20 POINT BONUS

17. It all began with a rather bizarre Romanian poet reading from a newspaper while an electric bell rang so loudly that no one could hear what he was saying. This same poet left this artistic movement in 1931, only eleven years later. FTP each, name the poet and the movement.

A: Tristan Tzara, Dadaism

30 POINT BONUS

18. Have you bred any good rooks lately? This question is an example of a spoonerism. Given a synopsis of a hypothetical work whose name is a spoonerism of a work of literature, FTP each, name the spoonerized title.

a. Short story is about an oil drum that goes to China and, impressed, decides to imitate the oriental culture by disguising himself as a porcelain vase.

Answer: The Can Who Would Be Ming

b. This collection of poems by a Camden, New Jersey resident describes the sadness and melancholy of a young Scottish girl.

Answer: Grieves of Lass

c. This novel is about an American butcher who puts his ground beef through a sieve to cleanse it of impurities.

Answer: Strain Meat

20 POINT BONUS

19. Like Newt Gingrich, he became Speaker of the House following mid-term elections in an embattled Democratic presidency, but he only lasted two terms. For twenty points, name this Speaker, the last Republican before Gingrich to hold the post.

ANSWER: Joseph MARTIN

30 POINT BONUS

20. Sometimes a famous person's horse becomes famous in his own right. FTP each, given the real or fictional person, name his favorite mount.

a. Alexander the Great

ANSWER: Bucephalus

b. Robert E. Lee (during Civil War)

ANSWER: Traveller

c. Don Quixote (kee-HOH-tay)

ANSWER: Rocinante

30 POINT BONUS

21. Now it's time for Venereal Disease Grab Bag. FTP each:

a. Chronic infectious disease caused by a spirochete, usually contracted through sexual contact, but also occurring congenitally.

A: Syphilis

b. Any of a number of inflammations of the skin or mucous membranes, characterized by clusters of vesicles that tend to spread.

A: Herpes

c. Finally, spell gonorrhea. (gah-nor-REE-uh)

A: G-O-N-O-R-R-H-E-A

30 POINT BONUS

22. All right, you've all heard far too many election questions, and by now you're probably sick of them. But this question is different. In 1994, only three states held neither a race for the Senate nor a race for governor. FTP each, name them.

Answer: Louisiana, Kentucky, and North Carolina

30 POINT BONUS

23. Early copies of Christian religious texts are hard to come by. FTP, what is the term given to the collection of writings found in 1947 near Qumran in Israel.

A: Dead Sea Scrolls

The Dead Sea scrolls may have been copied by, FTP, what ascetic sect of Judaism.

A: Essenes

In 1945, a collection of mostly Gnostic texts, written in Coptic, were found near what Egyptian town.

A: Nag Hammadi

30 POINT BONUS

24. In 1994, the US won its record third straight World Cup golf title. FTP each, name the two American golfers who teamed up for all three victories.

ANSWER: Fred COUPLES, Davis LOVE the Third

Twice in the 1960's, the US won back-to-back World Cup golf titles. For five points each, name the two golfers who teamed up for all four victories.

ANSWER: Arnold PALMER, Jack NICKLAUS

25 POINT BONUS

25. It wasn't until 1944 that Congress created the rank of General of the Army, or five-star general. In the midst of the war effort, Congress wanted to particularly elevate and recognize four men. For five points each, plus five for all correct, name these generals who served during World War II.

A: Douglas McArthur, George Marshall, Dwight Eisenhower, and Matthew Arnold

20 POINT BONUS

26. Did she actually write "her" 1994 novel Swan? She tape-recorded some ideas, and ghost-writer Caroline Upcher put them into prose. For twenty points, name this model-turned-"author", who also released the album Babywoman in 1994 and posed with Madonna in the 1992 book Sex..

ANSWER: Naomi CAMPBELL

20 POINT BONUS

27. In this Mexican state, chaos continues in the wake of Mexico's largest popular uprising in decades. FTP, name this southern Mexican state.

A: Chiapas (chee-AHP-ahs)

Now, FTP, name the revolutionary group behind the rebellion in Chiapas.

A: Zapatistas (Zapatista National Liberation Armey is also acceptable)

30 POINT BONUS

28. In 1994, Time magazine ran a cover story naming fifty young American leaders. FTP each, name these members of that group from a brief description.

- a. The governor of Indiana      ANSWER: Evan BAYH
b. Microsoft's founder and CEO      ANSWER: Bill GATES
c. Feminist author of The Beauty Myth      ANSWER: Naomi WOLF

20 POINT BONUS

29. In November 1994, OSHA (oh-SHUH) announced that it is considering new ergonomic standards for American workplaces, in an effort to combat repetitive stress injuries. For five points per letter, expand the acronym "OSHA", a government agency charged with ensuring workplace protection.

ANSWER: OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH and SAFETY ADMINISTRATION

30 POINT BONUS

30. 30-20-10, name the author from a list of works.

- 30) The Reef and The Custom of the Country
20) The House of Mirth
10) Ethan Frome and The Age of Innocence A: Edith Wharton

30 POINT BONUS

31. The French often call their nation as "The Hexagon" as it appears to have six sides: English, Atlantic, Spanish, Mediterranean, Swiss, and Belgian. FTP each, given a city on France's perimeter, name the "side" nearest to which it lies.

- a. La Rochelle      Answer: Atlantic
b. Caen (KAHN)    Answer: English
c. Strasbourg       Answer: Swiss

25 POINT BONUS

32. First, FTP, who was the mathematician whose seven bridges problem launched the field of topology?

Answer: Leonhard Euler (OIL-er)

Euler discovered an equation describing the relationship between faces, edges, and vertices of three-dimensional objects with planar faces. For fifteen points, provide this equation.

Answer: Faces - Edges + Vertices = 2 or  $F - E + V = 2$