

1) He claimed to have found his pen-name on the society page of a New Orleans newspaper, but biographers have argued he took it from a family cat, a French pharmacist, or the warden of the Ohio State Penitentiary, where he served time for embezzlement. FTP, provide the pen-name of William Sydney Porter.

Answer: O. Henry (prompt on "William Sydney Porter" on early buzz)

2) The song "Send in The Clowns" was not composed by Mozart. But, FTP, what is the name of the 1973 Stephen Sondheim musical that includes this famous song, and shares its name with one of Mozarts most famous tunes.

Answer: A Little Night Music or Eine Kleine Nachtmusik

3) Two answers required. They first began performing in nightclubs in 1946, and over the next decade they would inspire 17 movies, including That's My Boy and The Caddy. FTP, give the last names of these two performers which now share their names with a tasty $5 milk shake from the movie Pulp Fiction

Answer: Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis

4) This effect is named for one of the two German physicists who discovered it in 1933. A property of all superconductors, it is the exclusion of magnetic flux from a substance when it is in the super-conducting state. For ten points, name it.

Answer: Mizener effect

5) A "Little" one occurred from 1550 to 1850. The "Great" one spanned 650,000 years of the Pleistocene epoch, distinguished by the formation of large glaciers in middle latitudes. FTP, what term is used for these periods of cold weather?

Answer: Ice Age

6) It consists of cells known as chondrocytes, a matrix of fibers called collagen, and a ground substance known as proteoglycans. Two main types are hyaline and elastic. FTP, by what name we know this connective tissue, which makes up the "Skeletons" of such animals as sharks.

Answer: cartilage

7) His first major command came in 1943, when he led the Second Corps in North Africa and Sicily. Two years later he led the 12th Army Group in Europe, the largest exclusively American field command ever! FTP, name this general who would become the first Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Answer: Omar Bradley

8) His fifth symphony has only two movements, the first of which is dominated by an insistent snare drum. His fourth symphony is more conventional in structure, but he gave it an unusual name: The Inextinguishable. FTP, name this 20th century Danish Composer who composed 6 symphonies in all.

Answer: Carl Nielsen

9) Joseph Chifley, Robert Menzies, Harold Holt, John Gordon, William McMahon, Howard Whitlam, Malcolm Fraser, Robert Hawke, and Paul Keating have all held, FTP, what important post for a large country south of Indonesia?

Answer: Prime Minister of Australia (prompt for more on Australia)

10) In the United States, it is equal to roughly 4.9289 cubic centimeters; in the UK, it is equal to about 4.7355 cubic centimeters. FTP, name this unit of measurement which in both countries is one-third of a tablespoon.

Answer: teaspoon

11) She was born in Alberta in 1907, and most memorable moment was her portrayal of Ann Darrow in a classic film of the 1930's. FTP, name this actress who co-starred opposite a large primate in King Kong.

Answer: Fay Wray

12) Spy magazine would love this play, since the entire plot hinges on siblings "separated at birth". The action takes place in Ephesus, and half the characters are from that city, while the other half hail from Syracuse. FTP, name this comedy of mistaken identities, considered to be Shakespeare's earliest.

Answer: The Comedy Of Errors

13) Although this state's highest point is only 4,863 feet above sea level, its rugged terrain earned it the nickname "The Switzerland Of America". FTP, name this state whose university's sports teams are aptly named "Mountaineers".

Answer: West Virginia

14) It was originally called The Shooting Party Of Captain Hans Banning Cocq, and the men depicted in it were shown in a bright light. Over a couple of centuries, however, the painting has become so dark and dirty that it is called by another name. FTP, name this work by Rembrandt.

Answer: The Night Watch

15) The rarer form of this gemstone is sodium aluminum silicate; the more common type is called "nephrite". FTP, name this hard, usually green stone that has been used for centuries for carving of jewelry and small sculptured objects.

Answer: jade

16) The name's the same: a first century AD Chinese philosopher who tried to purge Confucianism of spiritual elements and wrote the Disquisitions, and a mediocre music group of the 1980's who are famous for recording "Dance Hall Days", and "Everybody Have Fun Tonight". FTP, provide the common name.

Answer: Wang Chung

17) This bleak region was fought for by several countries in the 19th century because of its mineral resources. Chile eventually won the contest. FTP, name this South American desert, the world's driest.

Answer: Atacama desert

18) "At Home", "Anna On the Neck", "Sergeant Prishibeyev", "Vanka", "The House With The Mansard", and "The Chameleon" are all short stories by, FTP, what Russian author who has been better remembered for his plays?

Answer: Anton Chekhov

19) "When you cover a war, you hire an ex-general", replied Sydney Biddle Barrows when asked about a 1994 courtroom corresponding job. FTP, name the subject of Barrows's reporting, convicted of running a Tinseltown call girl ring.

ANSWER: Heidi FLEISS

20) In 1992, Libertarian presidential candidate Andre Marrou received his highest percentage of the vote in this state. This is not surprising, given the state's libertarian motto, "Live free or die." FTP, name this "Granite State."

Answer: New Hampshire

21) Archie Manning won the Heisman Trophy two times in a row; but what title, FQTP, did Mary Campbell win two times in a row in the early 1920's?

Answer: Miss America

22) America and Great Britain have had many poet laureates, but the Confederacy also had a poet given this title. FTP, name the South Carolina poet whose most well known works include "The Cotton Boll", and "Ethnogenesis".

Answer: Henry Timrod

23) Newspaper columnist Bob Greene coined the word in 1983. Whether or not they're scum and should die is still a subject of popular debate. FTP, give the acronym that stands for "young urban professionals".

Answer: Yuppies

24) He is the only President with a registered patent -- #6469, a plan to buoy steamboats over shoals. FTP, name this chief executive who was shot by John Wilkes Booth.

Answer: Abraham Lincoln

25) In Project Sapphire, 1,300 pounds of enriched uranium were airlifted in November 1994 for safekeeping in the US. FTP, from what nation did this cache originate, a former Soviet Republic, whose capital is Alma-Ata.

ANSWER: KAZAKHSTAN

26) In the recent film, Quiz Show, Charles Van Doren stormed through the competition until he deliberately missed a question about this king. FTP, name this Belgian monarch who reigned from 1951-1993.

Answer: Baudouin

27) Naum Gabo and Anton Pevsner published the Realist Manifesto in 1920 which summarized a style of Art that celebrated modern materials, and the romanticism of modern technology. FTP, name this style, which flourished for a time in Russia, and had its purest expression in the work of Vladamir Tatlin.

Answer: Constructivism

28) "Whoever loves instruction loves knowledge; he who hates reproof is a fool;" "In all labor there is profit, but idle chatter leads only to poverty;" "Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of correction will drive it from him." All of this good advice comes from, FTP, what book of the Old Testament.

Answer: Proverbs (prompt for more if "Old Testament" or "Bible" is given)

29) Educated at Harvard and in Europe, he left America to become a British subject. He tried and failed to become a successful playwright, but his novels are known for their psychological drama and intensity. FTP, name the authors of classics such as The Golden Bowl, and The Ambassadors.

Answer: Henry James

30) Eat Your Paisley, Bucky Fellini, and Big Green Lizard In My Backyard are all albums, FQTP, by what Philadelphia-based musical ensemble, whose best-known songs may be "Bitchin' Camaro" and "Punk Rock Girl"?

Answer: The Dead Milkmen

31) Many art critics think his talent diminished with age, which is a why an exhibition of his early work at the Metropolitan Museum in New York last year was looked upon so fondly by lovers of surrealism. FQTP, name this Spanish artist best known for his limp wrist-watches.

Answer: Salvador Dali

30 POINT BONUS

1. 30-20-10, name the writer from the clues provided.

30 - With a running time of only 30 seconds, his play Breath in 1970 with no actors or dialogue, is considered at the shortest play ever written.

20 - Although he was Irish, he spent much of his time in France. His early works include Murphy, and Watt.

10 - He is best known for plays such as Endgame, and Waiting For Godot

Answer = Samuel Beckett

30 POINT BONUS

2) Identify these historical phrases with the word "Great" in their title, for 15 points a piece:

A. This three word phrase was Mao Zedong's slogan for the attempt to increase industrial production in China between 1958-1961.

A = Great Leap Forward

B. 1836-38 migration of Boer families from Cape Colony to the Orange River under Andrius Pretorius. It featured violent clashes with the Zulus.

A = Great Trek

20 POINT BONUS

3) The most famous example is the 1478 Caxton edition of The Canterbury Tales. Although coined by German scholars, this term is from the Latin for "swaddling clothes and cradle" and refers to books printed in the infancy of movable type, usually before 1500. For twenty points, give this term that sounds slightly similar to a portly former left-fielder of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Answer = Incunabula

30 POINT BONUS

4) How much do you know about those unpronounceable substances on ingredient labels? I'll describe 3 such substances, and you name them FTP a piece.

A. Polysaccharide taken from Irish Moss, it resembles agar in molecular structure.

A = carrageenan

B. This emulsifier's full name is Polyoxethelene sorbitan monooleate.

A = Polysorbate 80

C. Thickening agent is derived from the seeds of the legume genus cyamopsis.

A = guar gum

30 POINT BONUS

5) I'll name a famous US Supreme Court case, and you tell me, FTP each, who was the Chief Justice when the case was decided.

A. McCullough v. Maryland

A = John Marshall

B. Gideon v. Wainwright

A = Earl Warren

C. Plessy v. Ferguson

A = Melville W. Fuller

30 POINT BONUS

6) This bonus will test your knowledge of Sting's youthful endeavors with The Police. Excluding Soundtracks and Greatest Hits Albums, the Police released 6 albums before splitting up. For 5 pts each, name them:

Answer: Ghost In The Machine, Outlandos d'Amour, Regatta de Blanc, Synchronicity, Zenyatta Mondatta, The Police.

20 POINT BONUS

7) In 1994, she was elected Prime Minister of Sri Lanka by a landslide. For twenty points, name this new president whose father and husband have both been murdered by political extremists.

A = Chandrika Kumaratunga

30 POINT BONUS

8) 30-20-10, name the Artist from the clues.

30 - This artist was a house painter before he turned to the fine arts.

20 - His Works include, Violin And Palette (1910), and The Portuguese (1911).

10 - With Picasso, he is credited with the birth and early development of cubism.

A = Georges Braque

30 POINT BONUS

9) FTP each, identify the following Mountains.

A. Located in extreme southern Bavaria, this mountain in Germany's highest.

Answer = Zugspitze (Zoog - spit - zeh)

B. This mountain in Maine is the Northern Terminus of the Appalachian Trail.

Answer = Katahdin

C. This peak in Kenya is the second highest in Africa after Mount Kilimanjaro.

Answer = Mount Kenya

25 POINT BONUS

10) In Goethe's classic play, Faust, Faust has children by two women, one in the play's first part, and the other in its rarely performed second part. FTP for one, and twenty-five for both, name there two women.

A = Margaret (accept Gretchen), and Helen of Troy

30 POINT BONUS

11) Everyone knows about the planets; how much do you know about the other members of our solar system? First, FTP, name the largest asteroid:

A = Ceres

FTP, the mean distance between this moon and its planet is the shortest in the solar system:

A = Phobos

For five points each, name the two largest moons of Uranus:

A = Oberon and Titania

20 POINT BONUS

12) Name these two mythological figures from the descriptions, FTP each.

A. A shepherd Selene fell in love with, also the subject of a poem by Shelley. Kent's!

A = Endymion

B. She lived in Babylon, and was the most beautiful maiden in the East. After she and her lover committed suicide, their ashes were placed in the same Urn.

A = Thisbe

30 POINT BONUS

13) Name the President from members of his cabinet on a 30-20-10 basis:

30 - Secretary of Transportation, Alan S. Boyd

20 - Secretary of the Interior, Stewart Udall

10 - Secretary of Defense, Clark Clifford

A = Lyndon Baines Johnson or LBJ

30 POINT BONUS

14) Given two clues which fit together, FTP each you give the combined answer. For instance, if I said, "The first President of the United States, and the author of The Legend Of Sleepy Hollow", you'd say "George Washington Irving".

A. An Orangutan from Disney's Jungle Book and an Obese comedian, who starred in a pathetic new animated Christmas special in 1994.

A = King Louie Anderson

B. A fast food restaurant chain whose slogan is "Your way, Right Away", and an obese English King famous for his six wives.

A = Burger King Henry VIII

C. An boxing promoter with psycho-static hair, and the alternative music group who recorded "Happy Hour".

A = Don King Missile

30 POINT BONUS

15) In December, Rashaan Salaam of the University of Colorado won the Heisman Trophy. You'll earn 30 points if you can name the last prior Heisman winner from a Big 8 conference school without any clues, twenty if you need the year, ten if you need the school. [Moderator: take first answer now]

20: 1988

10: Oklahoma State

Answer: Barry Sanders

30 POINT BONUS

16) Paris is the most populated city in France; and every good College Bowler knows that Marseilles is second. Now, for five points each with a fifteen point bonus for the right order, name the next three most populous cities in France.

A = Lyon, Toulouse, Nice

25 POINT BONUS

- 17) Name the scientist after hearing things named for him on a 25-10 basis.
25 - His "cell" is a type of primary cell in which the positive electrode is formed by carbon plates in a nitric acid solution, and the negative electrode consists of zinc plates in a sulfuric acid solution.
10 - You probably used his "burner" in high school.
A = Robert Bunsen

30 POINT BONUS

- 18) After hearing a list of stars from a 1994 movie, name the movie FTP each.
a. Rob Morrow, John Turturro A = Quiz Show
b. Harvey Keitel, Julia Sweeney, Christopher Walken A = Pulp Fiction
c. Meryl Streep, and Kevin Bacon A = The River Wild

25 POINT BONUS

- 19) Formerly, radiation dosages were measured in rems. For 5 points per word, what does "rem" stand for?
A = Roentgen Equivilent Man
Now, however, radiation dosages are measured in a different unit. FTP, name this unit, equivalent to 8.4 Roentgens, and named for a Swedish radiologist.
A = sievert

30 POINT BONUS

- 20) 30-20-10: Name the astronomer.
30 - His "Constants" are two empirical quantities which determine the radial velocity and proper motion of stars.
20 - The best known object named for him is sometimes referred to by both his name and that of Estonian astronomer Ernst Opik.
10 - A hypothetical comet-forming "cloud" is also named for him.
A = Jan Oort

30 POINT BONUS

21. Many groups of elements have two names--a numerical name, such as Group 0, and a descriptive name, such as noble gases. I will give you three descriptive names; for 10 points apiece, give me the numerical designation for the group.
a. alkaline-earth metals A: group II
b. halogens A: group VII
c. chalcogens A: group VI

30 POINT BONUS

- 22) Only four Heavyweight Boxing World Champions have ever left the ring while still on top of the heap. For five points each, with 10 more for all correct, name the four heavyweight champions who retired while still champion.
A = James Jeffries, Gene Tunney, Joe Louis, Rocky Marciano

30 POINT BONUS

23) Given a brief plot summary of a #1 pop song from the 70's or 80's, tell me, for 5 points per piece of information, the name of the song and who recorded it:
a. A man, bored with his girlfriend, answers a mysterious personal ad, only to discover that it was placed by that very girlfriend.

A: "Escape (The Pina Colada Song)", Rupert Holmes (prompt on "Piña Colada")

b. During his travels around the world, an Australian is comforted by meetings with other Aussie expatriates.

Answer: "Down Under", Men At Work

c. A man turns a waitress into a star, and then is shocked when she no longer wants anything to do with him.

Answer: "Don't You Want Me", Human League

30 POINT BONUS

24) Of the 14 non-Russian former Soviet republics, only 6 are lucky enough not to share a border with an increasingly aggressive Russia. For 5 points apiece, name these six countries.

Answers: Uzbekistan, Kyrgyzstan, Turkmenistan, Tajikistan, Moldova, Armenia

25 POINT BONUS

25) Given a candidate from the 1992 presidential election, you tell me in which state or other entity casting electoral votes he or she received his or her highest percentage of the vote. 5 points apiece, 5 point bonus for all four.

a) Bill Clinton

A: District Of Columbia (accept equivalents)

b) George Bush

A: Mississippi

c) Ross Perot

A: Maine

d) Lenora Fulani

A: District Of Columbia (accept equivalents)

30 POINT BONUS

26) Since this round is being written around Christmas time, its time to see if your team has any wise men. FTP apiece, give the names of the three wise men who gave the baby Jesus, gifts of gold, frankenscence, and myrrh.

A = Gaspar, Balthazzar, Melchior (accept "Caspar" for "Gaspar")

30 POINT BONUS

27) 30-20-10, name the composer from the works provided:

30 - choral works include: The Black Knight and King Olaf

20 - He wrote the music for a childrens play The Starlight Express

10 - Pomp and Circumstance

Sir Edward Elgar

30 POINT BONUS

28) Name the poet from the lines, 30-20-10:

30 - "Burning, Burning, Burning"

20 - "But McCavity was not there"

10 - "April is the Cruellest Month, Breeding"

A = Thomas Sterns Eliot

20 POINT BONUS

29) We all know about William Henry Harisson's defeat of Tecumseh at the battle of Tippacano. But your team will get 20 points if you can identify the battle in which Tippecanoe was killed.

A = The Thames

25 POINT BONUS

30) Jeffrey Dahmer was recently beat to death with a broom handle inside a Wisconsin jail. For twenty-five points, name the man, a fellow inmate, who has been charged with murdering Dahmer.

A = Christopher Scarper

25 POINT BONUS

31) He was commander of the army of Jabin, King of Canaan. After his defeat by an Israelite army he sought refuge with Jael, of one of his king's allies, but she drove a tent peg through his head and killed him. For twenty-five points, name this General from the book of Judges.

Answer: Sisera