

1. His 9th book is a collection of poetry called Always A Reckoning, although he really didn't start writing serious poems until 1980. Along with Lincoln and John Quincy Adams, he is the third President to have his poetic works published. FTP, identify this Georgian perennially passed by for the Nobel Peace Prize.

A: James (Jimmy) Earl Carter, Jr.

2. The second son of King Frederick VIII of Denmark, he ruled Norway for half-a-century, from its reestablishment in 1905 through World War II. FTP, name this King who adopted his name from 6 Norwegian Kings of the Middle Ages.

A: Haakon VII

3. It's modern form originated in the Magna Carta, and during the War Between the States it was suspended in parts of Maryland by President Lincoln. FTP, what is this legal term literally translated as "you are ordered to have the body?"

A: habeas corpus

4. The Archbishops of Mainz, Trier, and ^bKln; the Margrave of Brandenburg, the Duke of Saxony, the Prince Palatine of the Rhine, and the King of Bohemia were traditional electors, FTP, of what Central European royal office?

A: Holy Roman Emperor (prompt on "Electors")

5. At temperatures between 400-600 C, at 200 times atmospheric pressure, and in the presence of a metallic catalyst nitrogen and water will combine to produce ammonia. FTP, name this process invented by a German chemist in 1913.

A: Haber process

6. This daughter of Maria Theresa of Austria was married off to a foreign Prince at age 15. The "Little Chateau" at Versailles was transformed into a memorial to her after, FTP, what queen was guillotined in 1793?

A: Marie Antoinette

7. After Congress approved their formation, the first ones were recruited from a Philadelphia tavern. Stationed high in the rigging to serve as sharpshooters, the also saw action on land in 1776 when they attacked a British base in the Bahamas. FTP, name this Semper Paratus branch of the Armed Services.

A: United States Marine(s) Corps

8. After graduating from Cambridge, he went to London and joined a theatrical company called the "Admiral's Men." Before his death in Canterbury at age 29, he saw them produce both Edward II and The Jew of Malta. FTP, name this English playwright of The Tragedy of Dr. Faustus.

A: Christopher Marlowe

9. Lynchburg College math professor Thomas Nicely discovered the problem with it, and reported this over the Internet: after the 9th decimal place, the division was wrong. Although Intel had known of the flaw for months, it took Nicely's revelation for Intel to begin the recall, FTP, of what computer processing chip?

A: Pentium

10. After sailing around Cape Horn on the whaler Acushnet, he jumped ship in the Marquesas and was taken captive by Polynesian cannibals. FTP, who is this American author who wrote about the experience in Typee?

A: Herman Melville

11. Trees of the genus Diospyres often have a grayish or pinkish white outer wood, but the dark inner heartwood can be polished to an almost metallic luster. FTP, what is the name for this usually black wood that is used to make piano keys, knife handles, and ornamental objects.

A: ebony

12. For their 50th wedding anniversary, they went to the Grand Old Opry in Nashville. This wouldn't be too unusual; except that their party was hosted by the Oak Ridge Boys and broadcast on The Nashville Network. FTP, what former First Couple partied on in January, 1995?

A: George and Barbara Bush

13. This author of Influence of the Planets on the Human Body was once investigated by a committee that included Antoine Lavoisier and Benjamin Franklin. FTP, who was this Austrian physician and mystic whose theory of "animal magnetism" was a precursor to hypnotism.

A: Franz Friedrich Anton Mesmer

14. The word originated in Chinese characters meaning "exalted door" or "honorable gate." FTP, what is this ancient spiritual title for the Emperor of Japan that Gilbert and Sullivan appropriated for an operetta title?

A: Mikado

15. She wrote the words and Dean Taylor composed the music for the opera The King's Henchman. FTP, name this Rockland, Maine poet who wrote "Renascence" when she was just 19.

A: Edna St. Vincent Millay

16. "The program gives no evidence of balance or objectivity. The Nazi point of view, however unpopular, is still a point of view and is not presented, nor is that of the Ku Klux Klan." She came to regret those words when, FTP, what historian of the House of Representatives was fired after less than a week in office?

A: Christina F. Jeffrey

17. Born in a Norman village near Cherbourg, this painter's Oedipus Unbound caused protests when exhibited in 1846. FTP, name this dweller on the edge of the Barbizon forest who painted The Quarriers, The Winnower, and The Gleaners.
A: Jean Millet (mill-LAY)

18. He called a dark-eyed Serbian beauty his "pussycat" and "sweet little witch," and rhapsodized about drinking coffee and eating sausages with her. The editor of Physics Today, who published the love letters in the summer of 1994, found them "cloying" in English and "worse in German." FTP, these love letters were written by what Nobel laureate, who won for work on the photoelectric effect?
A: Albert Einstein

19. Flemish born, his real name of the was Gerhard Kremer, and he constructed some of the first globes. FTP, name this official geographer to Emperor Charles V who also put latitude and longitude at right angles to invent a new type of map.
A: Gerhardus Mercator

20. Lawrence Houseman wrote words for this composition first titled Land of Hope and Glory. In D Major, this first in a series of six military marches created for Edward VII's coronation is usually called by the title of the whole series. FTP, identify this Edward Elgar piece usually played at graduations.
A: Pomp and Circumstance

21. A football coach from 1892-1927, he remarked "There is no such thing as best player - this is a team game" when this athletic director of the Downtown Athletic club found out a trophy would be awarded to the nation's best football player. FTP, name this man after whom the award was later named?
A: John Heisman

22. The harpy lives in South America, and prays on Monkeys. The short-toed is found in the Eastern hemisphere, and mainly eats snakes. The martial lives in grassy African plains, and the golden is sometimes called the war. FTP, what kind of bird am I describing?
A: eagle

23. In Spring 1995, she will begin hosting her own talk show on German t.v. She plans to cook with Paul Newman, and ask President Clinton questions while they jog together. FTP, name this German supermodel, Sports Illustrated covergirl, and fiancée of magician David Copperfield.
A: Claudia Schiffer

24. First discovered in the debris of an H-bomb explosion, its most stable isotope has a half-life of 280 days and a mass of 254. FTP, name this element number 99 with symbol Es.

A: Einsteinium

25. Old and New, Strike, Ten Days That Shook the World, Alexander Nevsky, and The Battleship Potemkin are all films by this Soviet director. FTP, name this film maker, whose career ended when Stalin took his Ivan the Terrible personally.

A: Sergei Mikhailovich Eisenstein

26. Daniel Deronda reflects this writer's pro-Jewish sentiments, Romola is set in Renaissance Florence, and her masterpiece is subtitled A Study of Provincial Life. FTP, name this author of Middlemarch.

A: George Eliot or Mary Ann Evans

27. A god of growth, worship of him is connected with tilling the soil. When the Hebrews "borrowed" this god from the Canaanites, Elijah got pissed off; but some Hebrews continued to worship him until the Babylonian conquest. FTP, identify this deity whose name means "lord" or "master."

A: Baal (BAY ul)

28. The basic form of this sport has been around for a few thousand years, and the modern form takes its name from the country home of the Duke of Beaufort. FTP, name this game played with a net, racket, and shuttlecock.

A: Badminton

29. He was married to Marquerite Whitley for 12 years, and they had three children. After their divorce, he married a certain Ms. Brown. FTP, name this man who in 1973 rushed 2,003 yards for the Buffalo Bills.

A: Orenthal James Simpson

1. 30-20-10 Points

FTP each, identify these terms from ballet:

- a. A jump in any direction from both feet to one foot.

A: JET (zhe TAY)

- b. A full turn on one foot.

A: pirouette (peer ooh ET)

- c. A jump straight up, during which the dancer rapidly crosses his legs before and behind each other.

A: entrechat (ahn treh SHAH)

2. 30 Points

FTP each, answer these questions about American elections:

- a) First, name the Mid-Atlantic state that's split its electoral vote more than any other, on 7 occasions since 1804.

A: Maryland

- b. Second, name the Virginian who in 1960 received 6 of Alabama's 11 and 1 of Oklahoma's 8 electoral votes.

A: Harry F. Byrd

- c. For a final chance at 10, name any 1 of the 4 states that cast every electoral vote for the Whig candidate 1836-1852.

A: Kentucky, Massachusetts, Tennessee, or Vermont

3. 30 Points

Answer these questions about Ecuador for the stated number of points:

- (5) For five points, give me the English name for what Ecuadorians call the Archipelago de Colon.

A: Galapagos Islands

- (10) Identify the unit of currency, which is named for the general who defeated the Spanish at the Battle of Pichincha.

A: Sucre

- (15) For fifteen points, the national coat-of-arms features what mountain, a volcanic peak rising to over 20,000 feet in the Andes?

A: Chimborazo

4. 30 Points

FTP each, answer the following archaeologist Sir Arthur Evans:

- a. Evans gave what name, taken from that of a legendary king of Crete, to the Mediterranean bronze age civilization?

A: Minoan

- b. Evans excavated what Minoan palace to look for clay tablets?

A: Knossos (NOS os)

- c. Many of the tablets Evans found were written in what script, an archaic form of Greek deciphered by Ventris in 1952?

A: Linear B

5. 30 Points

England has had 11 kings named Edward. FTP each, identify:

- a) The last Saxon king. A: Edward the Confessor
- b) He is alleged to have been killed by Richard III. A: Edward IV
- c) He proposed the first Book of Common Prayer. A: Edward VI

6. 30-20-10 Points

30-20-10, name the German:

30: Since he showed that injections of certain dyes cured tropical diseases, he is considered the father of chemotherapy.

20: Salvarsan was the 606th compound he tested as a remedy for syphilis.

10: He shared the 1908 Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine.

A: Paul Ehrlich (AIR lick)

7. 30 Points

The White House probably isn't near the top of the list of safe places to be in 1994. For ten points each, identify:

- a. The depressed truck driver who crashed a plane into the House in September.
A: Frank Corder
- b. The Colorado hotel worker who opened fire on the House in October.
A: Francisco (Frank) Martin Duran
- c. Knife-wielding homeless man shot to death outside the White House in Dec.
A: Marcelino Corniel (corn EEL)

8. 30 Points

FTP each, name these January, 1995 inductees to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame:
a. This soul and gospel singer performed "Take Me to the River" backed by Paul Schaffer and the CBS Orchestra.

A: Reverend Al Green

b. Melissa Etheridge performed this posthumous inductee's "Piece of my Heart."

A: Janis Joplin

c. Lou Reed compared this late guitarist, singer, and composer, to Andy Warhol.

A: Frank Zappa

9. 30 Points

You'll get fifteen points if you can name the poet after a line of poetry, five points if you need the name of the poem:

a. (15) "And swear/No where/Lives a woman true, and fair."

(5) "Go and Catch a Falling Star"

A: John Donne

b. (15) "And this same flower that smiles today/Tomorrow will be dying."

(5) "To the Virgins, to Make Much of Time"

A: Robert Herrick

10. 25 Points

PCR is an important tool in genetic engineering. First, for five points each, what do the letters "PCR" stand for?

A: polymerase chain reaction

Now, FTP, identify the California-based corporation whose name translates as "whale" who originated the three-step PCR process in the late 1980's.

A: Cetus Corporation

11. 30 Points

30-20-10, name the composer from the clues:

30: His "Violin Quartet in F Minor" was inspired by the death of his sister.

20: The choral symphony Hymn of Praise was written to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the invention of movable type.

10: He also composed the oratorio Elijah and the Overture to A Midsummer Night's Dream.

A: Felix Mendelssohn

12. 30 Points

For the stated number of points, identify the following about the sport of cricket:

(5) Two of these, each consisting of three stumps, are in the center of the field.

A: wickets

(10) One complete run through of both teams' batting order is called this.

A: an inning

(15) The number of players on a cricket team.

A: 11

13. 30 Points

The Continental System was established by two decrees of Napoleon Bonaparte, each known by the name of the city from which it was issued. For fifteen points, in what European capital did he declare a blockade against Britain in 1806?

A: Berlin

For fifteen more, in what Italian city did he issue the 1807 decree declaring he would seize ships of any nation that had entered British ports.

A: Milan

14. 30 Points

For the stated number of points, identify these Fall, 1994 Emmy winners:

(5) His performance on Frasier won Outstanding Lead Actor in a Comedy Series.

A: Kelsey Grammer

(10) This show won six, including Outstanding Directing in a Drama Series.

A: N. Y. P. D. Blue

(15) This winner for Outstanding Made for T.V. Movie was based on a book by Randy Shilts.

A: And the Band Played On

15. 20 Points

The rich keep getting richer, especially the British royal family. First, they allow oil drilling at Windsor Castle, and now traces of gold have been found in streams at, for twenty points, what Scottish estate of the royal family.

A: Balmoral

16. 30-20-10 Points

30-20-10, name the psychologist:

30: The English titles of his works include The Neurotic Constitution and Understanding Human Nature.

20: His system of psychotherapy is increasingly popular today, and known as "individual psychology."

10: Although Freud claimed him as a disciple who later defected, this Austrian would only concede that "I learned from [Freud's] mistakes."

A: Alfred Adler

17. 30 Points

First it was actors, now it's athletes becoming politicians. FTP each, identify:

a. This former NFL receiver won a congressional seat from Oklahoma in 1994.

A: Steve Largent

b. This owner of the Milwaukee Bucks retained his U. S. Senate seat in 1994.

A: Herb Kohl

c. This drag racer lost his 1994 bid for a congressional seat from Florida.

A: Don Garlits

18. 30 Points

For the stated number of points identify the following people, each of whose names appear on the Civil Rights Memorial:

(5) He was gunned down at the Lorraine Motel.

A: Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

(10) President of the NAACP in Jackson, Mississippi, he was shot at his own front door on June 11, 1963.

A: Medgar Evers

(15) This 14-year-old Chicago youth was murdered in September, 1955 in Mississippi after supposedly "talking trash" to a white woman.

A: Emmett Till

19. 30-20-10

30-20-10, name the American:

30: With Elmer Rice, she co-wrote the Broadway play Close Harmony.

20: The collection After Such Pleasures contains her story "Big Blonde."

10: This Algonquin round-table wit published the verse collection Enough Rope.

A: Dorothy Parker

20. 30 Points

For ten points each, tell me the country from the following clues:

a. The Yo-yo was originated here as a weapon.

A: Philippines

b. A mathematician invented Rubik's Cube in this nation.

A: Hungary

c. The hula hoop actually originated in this southern hemisphere nation.

A: Australia

21. 30 Points

For ten points each, identify these 1994 winners of the Kennedy Center Honors:

a. This folk singer and composer wrote "If I Had a Hammer" and "Where Have All the Flowers Gone?"

A: Pete Seeger

b. This Broadway producer and director won a 1993 Tony Award for Kiss of the Spider Woman.

A: Harold Prince

c. This actor, whose roles have ranged from a boxer to Vincent Van Gogh, was born Issur Danielovich.

A: Kirk Douglas

22. 30 Points

99% of all living tissue is comprised of six elements. You'll get five points for each you can name.

A: carbon, hydrogen, nitrogen, oxygen, phosphorous, sulfur

23. 30-20-10

30-20-10, name the animal:

30: The genus for this creature is Sciuridae.

20: Varieties include abert, kaibab, striped, and fox.

10: Other varieties of this rodent include red, gray, and flying.

A: squirrel

24. 30 Points

FTP each, answer the following questions about electrochemistry:

a. While working in Sir Humphry Davy's lab, this man coined the term "electrolysis."

A: Michael Faraday

b. According to one of Faraday's Laws, 1 mole of electrons flowing through electrolyzed molten sodium chloride will produce this much sodium metal.

A: 1 mole

c. This method of electrochemical analysis measures the equilibrium potential of an electrochemical cell at zero current.

A: potentiometry

25. 30 Points

For ten points each, identify the following works of John Milton from the clue:

- a. This abbreviated title is used for a political prose work written in response to the Press Licensing Order of 1643.

A: Aeropagitica

- b. A verse drama based on the Old Testament story of a Hebrew warrior.

A: Samson Agonistes

- c. This 1638 work is a pastoral elegy on the death of Edward King.

A: "Lycidas"

26. 30 Points

FTP each, name the book of the bible that provided the following literary titles:

- a. Steinbeck's East of Eden

A: Genesis

- b. Wilder's The Skin of Our Teeth

A: Job

- c. Ferber's No Room at the Inn

A: Luke

27. 30 Points

Where were you on August 1, 1981? If you were watching the first ten videos ever broadcast on MTV, you might be able to identify the performer from the song for the stated number of points:

- (5) "Video Killed the Radio Star," the 1st played.

A: Buggles

- (10) "Brass in Pocket," the 7th played.

A: The Pretenders

- (15) "Rockin' the Paradise," the 10th played.

A: Styx

28. 30 Point Bonus

FTP each, given the name of a major US city, name the county it's located in.

- a. Houston

A: Harris County

- b. Seattle

A: King County

- c. Detroit

A: Wayne County

29. 20 Point Bonus

She contracted AIDS through a blood transfusion during a 1981 pregnancy. Co-founder of the Pediatric AIDS Foundation, she became a crusader who made both Democrats and Republicans treat the disease seriously. For twenty points, name this social activist who met her husband on the set of Starsky and Hutch.

A: Elizabeth Glaser