

1) It cost this man over $100,000 to divest himself from all holdings with Lloyd's of London, in order to avoid any conflicts of interest which bothered some during his hearings. FTP, name this 108th Justice of the Supreme Court.
A: Stephen BREYER

2) His real name is Michael Douglas, and while he may not be starring in Disclosure, he has appeared in The Squeeze, Speechless, and Batman. FTP, identify this popular actor.
A: Michael KEATON

3) Roger Bannister was the first to run the four-minute mile, but he was also the first to hold this title, given out annually by a leading magazine. FTP, what title is this that was given to a pair of speed skaters in 1994?
A: Sports Illustrated's SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR

4) His last great case was his defense of Thomas Massie on charges that Massie and others killed Hawaiian natives in revenge for an alleged raping of Massie's wife. Identify, ftp, this legal warrior who also defended Leopold and Loeb and a teacher named Scopes.
A: Clarence DARROW

5) He was the court musician for the Esterhazy family for 48 years, and in that time he wrote 107 symphonies, 25 operatic works, and hundreds of violin and piano concertos. FTP, name this Austrian best known for his London symphonies.
A: Franz Joseph HAYDN

6) Opposed by Shammai, he developed the Seven Rules of Exegesis that called for a more liberal interpretation of scriptural law. FTP, name this Jewish scholar whose name is often found at Jewish student centers across the country.
A: HILLEL

7) Its scientific name is Bombyx mori. It is the caterpillar of a moth, and a thread of its cocoon can measure up to 900 meters long. When unraveled, the thread is an important commercial material. FTP, what is this creature that was a native of China?
A: SILKWORM

8) In this 17th century play, Giovanni falls in love with Annabella, who just happens to be his sister. Their affair ends tragically when Giovanni kills his sister. FTP, identify this most famous work by John Ford.
A: 'TIS PITY SHE'S A WHORE

9) Milton Berle appeared on this show as an aging actor with Alzheimer's Disease who is befriended by Steve Sanders. FTP, name this show which also features Valerie but not Brenda.

A: BEVERLY HILLS 90210

10) It began on August 24, 1572, when a plot to assassinate Gaspard de Coligny went awry, and it did not end until October of that year despite the orders of Charles IX. FTP, name this historical event which started on the feast day of the saint the event is known by.

A: ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S DAY MASSACRE

11) Founded by Andrew Taylor, this theory of health care stress the body's ability to make remedies for diseases in addition to the manipulation of the musculoskeletal system. FTP, name this alternative health care system recognized in all 50 states.

A: OSTEOPATHY

12) Claude was an architect best remembered for his colonnade of the Louvre and his translations of Vitruvius. Charles was a poet who penned children's stories such as Cinderella. FTP, give the common last name of these brothers.

A: PERRAULT

13) Stella Liebeck initially won a multi-million dollar settlement after a mishap at a drive-up window, but a judge later reduced the award. FTP, against what fast food chain did Liebeck bring a suit after she spilled scalding-hot coffee?

A: McDonald's

14) The O.J. Simpson case is big news, but Hollywood was similarly abuzz when 14-year old Cheryl Crane killed her mother's mobster lover because of his abuse toward her mother. Cheryl's mother was, ftp, what famous actress discovered at the counter of Schwab's Drugstore?

A: Lana TURNER

15) Traveling through this state, you may encounter the first diamond field established in the U.S., near Murfreesboro. Name this southern state also known for its national forests the Ouachita, the Gulf Coastal Plain, and the Ozarks.

A: ARKANSAS

16) Bob Dole is the Senate Majority Leader again, but this man is the number two Republican in the Senate after beating out Alan Simpson for the whip position. FTP, name this Mississippi conservative.

A: Trent LOTT

17) Influenced by Rousseau, this literary movement which stress rebellious individualism boasted among its leaders Heredr, Goethe, and Schiller. FTP, give this movement whose name translates to "storm and stress" in English.

A: STURM UND DRANG

18) Founded in 1675, this observatory has been headed by such figures as Flamsteed, Airy, and Halley, and its original building was designed by Wren. Name, FTP, this observatory located at Herstmonceaux no longer on its famous meridian.

A: Royal GREENWICH Observatory

19) Arthur Griffith founded this organization in 1905 and most of its leaders died during the Easter Rising in 1916. FTP, name this political organization currently led by Gerry Adams.

A: SINN FEIN

20) A hunting accident in which he was shot has poisoned his blood to such an extent that he was forced to retire from his sport. FTP, name this premier American cyclist and Tour de France winner.

A: Greg LEMOND

21) A writer who labored for years with his novels, his greatest works included the history spanning Three Tales, the exotic Salamambo, and a tragic work about a woman who attempts to live her romantic fantasies. FTP, name this author of Madame Bovary.

A: Gustave FLAUBERT

22) Jimmy Swaggart and Jim Bakker may be for sale, but the Vatican? An Internet hoax claimed that what computing giant, ftp, was attempting to be the first with a major religion among its holdings?

A: MICROSOFT

23) He coined the term "anticyclone" in meteorology and helped to develop one of the first fingerprint systems for identification. He is better known, however, as the founder of eugenics. Name, ftp, this British scientist whose radical views are still controversial.

A: Francis GALTON

24) Eddie Polec was beaten to death by a gang of children while his neighbors attempted to call 911 to no avail. FTP, name the city this incident occurred, which has brought new attention to 911 systems.

A: PHILADELPHIA

25) Many of this artist's works, such as Belisarius, The Funeral of Patroclus, and The Oath of the Horatii attempt to draw universal lessons from Classical subject material. FTP, identify this painter who was a key figure in the French Revolution and the artist of the Tennis Court Oath.

A: Jacques-Louis DAVID

26) Her works include the verse drama Aria da Capo as well as collections such as Wine from these Grapes, A Few Figs from Thistles, and The Harp Weaver. FTP, name this famous Vassar graduate and American poet.

A: Edna St. Vincent MILLAY

27) It can be dark, denied, sweet, blind, or poetic. FAQTP, what is the common word which is also shared by Atlanta Brave David.

A: JUSTICE

28) Passed in 1887, this legislation tried to end the status of Native Americans as "domestic nations" and to absorb the Indian population into the American mainstream. FTP, identify this federal law that was reversed in 1934 with the Indian Reorganization Act.

A: DAWES Act

29) He has advocated a system in which different cultural patterns are related so that the universal logical substructure underlying them may be elicited. FTP, identify this anthropologist whose works include the Savage Mind.

A: Claude LEVI-STRAUSS

1. (30) Among his successes as a director of musicals are Cabaret, Evita, and Sweeney Todd. He currently has three shows on Broadway. For 15 points, name this director recently honored with a Kennedy Center honor, and for another 15, name his latest success he brought back to Broadway after 63 years.

A: Hal PRINCE, SHOW BOAT

2. (20) Some government departments are in danger of being cut. Name who leads the following troubled agencies for 5 points each.

- a) Department of Education A: Richard RILEY
- b) Department of Energy A: Hazel O'LEARY
- c) Department of Commerce A: Ron BROWN
- d) EPA A: Carol BROWNER

3. (25) For ten points, name the Nobel Prize literary giant whose works include the plays Androcles and the Lion and Arms and the Man.

A: George Bernard SHAW

For fifteen points, the title of Arms and the Man comes from Vergil's Aeneid.

Give the first three lines of that work which translates in English into "I sing of arms and the man".

A: ARMA VIRUMQUE CANO

4. (30) 30-20-10, name the person.

30: He served as Secretary of the Army from 1962-1964 and as deputy defense secretary from 1964-1967.

20: He was one of the many diplomats who tried to bring an end to the Bosnian crisis, and he wrote a plan with a British diplomat.

10: He was Secretary of State from 1977-1980.

A: Cyrus VANCE

5. (30) Name the Dutch scientist given a short clue for 15 points each.

a) He recognized that fossils were once-living creatures and he did much work with sedimentary rock.

A: Nicolaus Steno

b) A biologist who applied Mendelian genetics with Darwinian theory.

A: Hugo de VRIES

6. (30) Name the Agatha Christie creation for the stated number of points.

(5) The most famous resident of St. Mary Mead who debuted in Murder at the Vicarage.

A: Miss Jane Marple

(10) The last name of Tommy and Tuppence, a crime-solving couple featured in Partners in Crime.

A: Beresford

(15) The mysterious stranger who appears out of the blue to help troubled lovers.

A: Harley QUIN

7. (30) Name these presidents based on the unsuccessful assassins FTP each.

- a) Squeaky Fromme and Sara Jane Moore A: Gerald Ford
- b) Guiseppe Zangara A: Franklin Roosevelt
- c) Oscar Collazo and Griselio Torresola A: Harry TRUMAN

8. (20) Name the two states that lend their name to geological periods for five points each, and for another ten, name the period that they combine to create.

A: MISSISSIPPI, PENNSYLVANIA, CARBONIFEROUS

9. (25) Highly regarded for his work with children, his reputation was tarnished after his death by reports of abuse he inflicted on many of his patients. For twenty-five points, name this thinker and author of The Uses of Enchantment.

A: Bruno BETTELHEIM

10. (30) 30-20-10, name the person.

30: Alger Hiss and his brother Donald both served as his secretaries at certain times.

20: His father called Boston "Hub of the Universe" and its elite "Brahmins".

10: He served on the Supreme Court from 1902-1932, and his most famous work was The Common Law.

A: Oliver Wendell HOLMES JR.

11. (30) Given a novel which became a famous movie, name its author, FTP each.

- a) Bridge on the River Kwai A: Pierre BOULLE
- b) Breakfast at Tiffany's A: Truman CAPOTE
- c) Terms of Endearment A: Larry MCMURTRY

12. (30) Given a movie, name the Best Actress Oscar winner, FTP each.

- a) A Streetcar Named Desire Vivien Leigh
- b) Roman Holiday Audrey Hepburn
- c) Hud Patricia Neal

13. (25) A memo she circulated a few days before the November elections mentioned the possibility of raising taxes for more revenue. For 25 points, name this woman who currently heads the Office of Management and Budget and is a key financial player in Washington.

A: Alice RIVLIN

14. (30) For ten points each, name the Biblical woman.

- a) The only female Judge DEBORAH
- b) Mother-in-law of Ruth NAOMI
- c) Mother of John the Baptist ELIZABETH

15. (20) Pope John Paul II is the first non-Italian Pope in centuries, but for twenty points, can you name the last non-Italian Pope?

A: ADRIAN VI

16. (30) In honor of Macauley Culkin, here's a Richie Rich bonus. FTP each, name:

- a) Richie's robotic maid IRONA
- b) Richie's butler CADBURY
- c) Richie's dog DOLLAR

17. (30) Given a plot summary of an Arthur Miller play, name it for ten points.

- a) A Holocaust survivor finds herself paralyzed with psychological fear.

A: Broken Glass

- b) A not-so-veiled account of Miller's marriage to celebrity Marilyn Monroe.

A: After the Fall

- c) John Proctor sacrifices his life so his wife Elizabeth can live.

A: THE CRUCIBLE

18. (30) In a classic experiment, a Yale professor tested how people responded to orders of giving a man electric shocks even when that man was expressing severe pain; an act that was a total fabrication. For fifteen points, name the professor who did these experiments and for another fifteen, give the title of the book in which he describes his studies.

A: Stanley MILGRAM, OBEDIENCE TO AUTHORITY

19. (30) Given a quantity, give the name for ten points each.

- a) electric potential (joule/coulomb) Volt
- b) magnetic flux (volt/second) Weber
- c) inductance (magnetic flux/ampere) HENRY

20. (25) 25-10, name the person.

25: He was the first head of state to request armed assistance from the League of Nations in 1936.

10: He called himself the "King of Kings of Ethiopia, Lion of Judah, and Elect of God".

A: Haile SELASSIE I

21. (25) For ten points, name the U.S. Senator who was name chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and for 15 points, name the departing chair.

A: Christopher DODD, David WILHEIM

22. (20) Given a real-life crime, give the work of literature it inspired FTP each.

- a) Chester Gillette murdered his secretary-lover whom he got pregnant inspired a Theodore Dreiser work.

A: An American Tragedy

- b) Corrupt police Lt. Charles Becker's assault on a young prostitute inspired Stephen Crane to write this novel.

A: MAGGIE: A GIRL OF THE STREETS

23. (30) Baseball? It seems like a memory...but test your knowledge of the labor dispute for 10 points per part.

a) Who is the federal mediator involved?

A: William "Bill" Usery

b) Name the owner of the Baltimore Orioles who refuses to field a scab team.

A: Peter Angelos

c) Name the lawyer who served as the owners' representative originally.

A: Richard RAVITCH

24. (20) Identify the river for ten points each.

a) It rises in the Southeastern section of Yellowstone National Park and flows through Wyoming, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington.

A: Snake River

b) It rises in the Rocky Mountains of western Colorado and flows through New Mexico and Texas.

A: RIO GRANDE

25. (30) For fifteen points each, name the Supreme Court case given a description.

a) The Supreme Court ruled legal a Virginia law requiring forced sterilization of the mentally retarded.

A: Buck v. Bell

b) The Court struck down a Virginia law banning interracial marriages.

A: LOVING v. VIRGINIA

26. (30) FTP a piece - what do the following postal abbreviations stand for?

A. A-l-y

Answer: ALLEY

B. C-s-w-y

Answer: CAUSEWAY

C. V-i-a

Answer: VIADUCT

27. (20) $C_{20}H_{80}O_6-Na_2Br_2Hg_2$ is a green, crystalline coarse powder that becomes a deep red liquid when dissolved in water. Generically known as merbromin, it is often "painted" on wounds. For twenty points, name this common household antiseptic.

A: mercurochrome

28. (25) The Prime Meridian runs south from London through France, and then through five African countries. Name these African nations, for five points each.

A: Algeria, Mali, Burkina Faso, Ghana, Togo