

1. In 1994, Simpatico, his first full-length play in nine years, premiered. FTP, name this playwright, who appeared in the film The Right Stuff and is noted for such plays as Cowboys, Red Cross, True West, Savage Love, and Buried Child.

ANSWER: Sam SHEPARD

2. A stronger cousin of the tranquilizer Xanax (Zan-acks), among its possible side effects are paranoia, psychosis and depression. FTP, name this powerful, highly addictive sleeping drug that President Bush took while in office?

A: Halcion (Hal-see-on)

3. Elected to the San Francisco city council in the late 1970's, he was the first open homosexual to do so. Sadly, less than a year after taking office, he and the city's mayor were assassinated by Dan White, another city councilman. FTP, name this influential activist for gay rights.

A: Harvey MILK

4. An X-ray photon passes through a piece of graphite and interacts with an electron, causing the photon to shift to a higher wavelength dependent on the scattering angle. FTP, this is a simple explanation of what effect, which sounds like it was discovered on the streets of a hotbed of West Coast rap.

A: COMPTON Effect

5. In his 18 year career in the major leagues, most of which with the St. Louis Cardinals, this baseball player had 3000 hits, but he's probably more well-known for a very different feat. FTP, name the player whose career record for stolen bases was broken in 1991 by Rickey Henderson.

A: Lou BROCK

6. Three of his friends were Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar, and frankly, they did quite a rotten job of comforting him during his trials. FTP, name this much put-upon Biblical character who was eventually rewarded for his patience and faith.

A: JOB

7. This philosopher and well-known psychologist attempted suicide in his youth, but survived to become a founder of pragmatism. FTP, name this American who theorized about the will to believe and the cash-value of ideas and was the older brother of the author of The Turn of the Screw.

A: William JAMES

8. In 1994, this American author followed up his 1991 Pulitzer Prize in Fiction with a critically acclaimed collection entitled The Afterlife and Other Stories. FTP, name this elder writer best-known for his Rabbit series.

A: John UPDIKE

9. In November 1994, he resigned as foreign policy advisor to accept a teaching post at Duke. FTP, name this Washington figure, a former Republican spin doctor who joined the White House staff as "counselor to the president" in 1993.

ANSWER: David GERGEN

10. Complications of this serious condition include hypertension, accumulation of fluid in the abdominal cavity, disordered cerebral functions, and decreased hepatic function. FTP, name this condition characterized by fibrous scarring and nodular regeneration of the liver.

A: CIRRHOSIS

11. This musical artist, once a session musician for Otis Redding, reached his peak in the early '70s, had a significant effect upon soul music, and for better or worse, paved the way for disco. FTP, name the keyboardist and singer who scored a Number One hit with the "Theme From Shaft."

A: Isaac HAYES

12. An early 20th century astronomer, he used the idea of doppler shifts to find the distance between the Earth and galaxies. His law is expressed as  $D$  equal to  $u$  divided by  $H$ . An orbiting space telescope bears his name. FTP, name him.

A: Erwin HUBBLE

13. He joined the Boston Symphony as a violist in 1915. In 1929, he organized the first free Esplanade concert on the bank of the Charles. FTP, name this famed deceased conductor, famed as the long-time leader of the Boston Pops.

ANSWER: Arthur FIEDLER

14. In December 1994, Philadelphia mayor Ed Rendell was inducted into the Order of Bernardo O'Higgins, the highest tribute of this nation to non-citizens. FTP, name this nation, liberated by O'Higgins in 1818, whose capital is Santiago.

ANSWER: CHILE

15. Developed by Professor Nicklaus Wirth, it was introduced in 1971 and is one of the preferred introductory programming languages at most universities, because of its simple structure. Named for a 17th century mathematician and philosopher, FTP, what is this computer language?

A: PASCAL

16. You're probably a Thinker, but if you are Intuitive and Perceptive enough to see where this question is heading, and Extroverted enough to answer, you probably took the test which uses the personality types Thinker, Perceiver, Extrovert, Intuitive, and four others, to describe personality. FTP, name this test.

A: MYERS - BRIGGS Personality Inventory

17. This Biblical figure has long been a favorite among Florentine sculptors. FQTP, name the man immortalized by Bernini, Donatello, and Michelangelo.

A: DAVID

18. Covering an area the size of Missouri, it has a diameter of 370 miles and a height of 15 miles, positively dwarfing Mount Everest on Earth. For ten points teams, name the solar system's largest mountain, located on Mars.

A: OLYMPUS MONS

19. The films Throne of Blood, My Own Private Idaho, Chimes at Midnight, Ran (RON), Forbidden Planet, and Prospero's Books, among others, all have one thing in common: they were all adaptations of works by the same author of Hamlet. FTP, name him.

A: William SHAKESPEARE

20. FQTP, name Charlemagne's younger brother, who inherited half of the Frankish kingdom on the death of Pepin the Short?

A: Carloman

21. Almost every image of Christmas depicts the three wise men visiting the baby Jesus. However, this event actually is celebrated on a different Christian holiday, traditionally twelve days later. FTP teams, name the holiday.

A: EPIPHANY

22. Naming Attorney General Harry Wheelehan to his nation's High Court split his coalition, forcing him to resign in November 1994. FTP, name this former Irish Prime Minister, a key man in peace talks over Northern Ireland.

ANSWER: Albert REYNOLDS

23. During World War II, 260,000 captured Allied troops and Asian laborers built a railway from Burma to Thailand for their Japanese captors, with over 100,000 dying. This link is best known by a crossing over, FTP, what minor river, made famous in a movie starring Sir Alec Guinness.

ANSWER: KWAI (Accept BRIDGE ON THE RIVER KWAD)

24. Before the 1994 baseball season, in Crescent City he and his buddy Eddie Vedder of Pearl Jam got into an altercation with fans in the French Quarter. FTP, name this former Stanford star who won the 1993 A.L. Cy Young award.

A: Jack MCDOWELL

25. In chemistry it is the name for half the distance between the nuclei in a molecule consisting of identical atoms. FTP, name this term equal to the square root of A divided by pi.

A: ATOMIC RADIUS

26. While a prisoner during World War II, he made pro-German radiocasts, yet was still knighted shortly before his death in 1975. FTP, name this British writer, creator of such characters as Mr. Mulliner, Lord Emsworth, Bertie Wooster, and Jeeves.

ANSWER: Sir Pelham Grenville WODEHOUSE ("wood-house")

27. This Asian city attacks traffic jams by charging fees for a permit to drive in the city. But don't drive without a permit--they believe in strict corporal punishment. FTP, name this city-state at the base of the Malay peninsula.

A: SINGAPORE

28. His targets have usually been universities, but his most recent victim was ad exec Thomas Mosser. The FBI thinks he hates computers, but most computer-haters don't resort to mail bombs. FTP, give the name the FBI has given to this mail bomber, about whom little is known.

A: UNABOMB

29. This occurs when a third copy of a homologous chromosome is present in a cell. In its most common case, it causes Down syndrom. FTP, name this numerical mutation of chromosomes.

A: TRISOMY

1. (25 points)

Everyone knows that Machiavelli's most famous work was The Prince. but for twenty points does anyone know who the prince of the title was?

A: Cesare Borgia

For an additional fifteen points, name Cesare Borgia's father.

A: Pope Alexander VI

2. (20 points)

Her latest book, Talking from 9 to 5, tells how differences in communication styles affect men and women at work. For twenty points, name this prominent socio-linguist, famous for her studies of differences in male and female communication in You Just Don't Understand and That's Not What I Meant.

ANSWER: Deborah TANNEN

3. (30 points)

Answer these questions about Hinduism FTP each.

a. this text is a dialogue between the god Krishna and the warrior Arjuna.

A: Bhagavad Gita

b. These are the most ancient religious texts in the world.

A: Vedas

c. This other important religion started out as an effort to reform Hinduism.

A: Buddhism

4. (20 points)

It's been a nasty couple of years for the House of Windsor. FTP each, name the British royal involved.

a. Photographed topless with her financial advisor sucking her toes.

A: Sarah Ferguson or Fergie

b. Was recently confronted with full frontal nude photos of himself published in a German magazine.

A: Prince Charles

5. (30 points)

A 1994 bestseller chronicles a disease discovered in Zaire which can turn the human body into a puddle of mush in a matter of hours. FTP, name the book.

A: The HOT ZONE

For another ten points, name the author.

A: Richard PRESTON

For a final ten points, identify the disease, named after a river in Zaire.

A: EBOLA

6. (20 points)

Yes, boys and girls, it's time for nifty facts about the apostles!! For ten points, which apostle was crucified upside down in Rome?

A: St. Simon Peter

For an additional ten points, which apostle made his way to Spain to do missionary work and whose remains are revered at the shrine at Campostella?

A: James the Greater (prompt on "James")

7. (20 points)

This British Prime Minister accomplished in post-war England what Bill Clinton has not achieved in 1990's America. For twenty points, name the Labour head who helped created the National Health Service.

A: Clement ATTLEE

8. (30 points)

Combine the two films given, for instance, if I said a 1993 Danish film and a 1975 Sidney Lumet film starring Al Pacino, you would say "Man Bites Dog Day Afternoon" For fifteen points apiece, combine:

a) A 1993 Merchant Ivory Film and a 1973 Fred Zinneman thriller.

A: The REMAINS OF THE DAY OF THE JACKAL

b) A 1949 Vittoria De Sica realist classic and a 1924 silent starring Douglas Fairbanks, Sr.

A: The BICYCLE THIEF OF BAGHDAD

9. (30 points)

We don't have any strawberries and cream if you are right, but lets see what you know about Wimbledon. For five points apiece, and five for all correct, name the five individuals who have won the most Wimbledon singles titles. Hint, all have won at least four titles.

A: Martina NAVRATILOVA, Billie Jean KING, Bjorn BORG, Steffi GRAF, Rod Laver

10. (30 points)

It was a whirlwind year for the Rock Group Nine Inch Nails, giving them a platinum album, and a starring role in Woodstock '94. First, for five points for one and ten points for all three, identify all three Nine Inch Nails Albums.

A: PRETTY HATE MACHINE, BROKEN, the DOWNWARD SPIRAL

Nine Inch Nails is basically just one person who hires studio musicians for tours. FTP, name this man.

A: Trent REZNOR

Reznor had another hit album in a soundtrack he produced for a movie. FTP, name the Oliver Stone film.

A: NATURAL BORN KILLERS

11. (30 points)

This Italian Renaissance artist won a competition to carve the bronze doors for the Baptistry in Florence. For 15 pts, who was he?

A: Ghiberti

For fifteen points, by what name are these doors are most commonly known?

A: Paradise Doors or Gates of Paradise

12. (30 points)

It is the first major piece of literature in the Spanish language. FTP which epic poem details the adventures of Rodirigo Diaz de Bivar?

A: The Poem of the Cid or La Poema del Cid (Prompt on "El Cid")

The Poem of the Cid became the movie El Cid. FTP each, name its two stars.

A: Charleton Heston and Sophia Loren

13. (30 points)

Name the author from a list of his works, 30-20-10.

30 - Uncle Tom's Children

20 - Black Boy

10 - Native Son

A: Richard WRIGHT

14. (20 points)

FTP apiece, answered these questions about popular 80's blue jeans brands. Brooke Shields vowed that she never let anything come between her and this brand of jeans.

A: Calvin Klein

What brand had the look you want to know better?

A: Jordache

15. (25 points)

The Golden Globe Awards are often a precursor of the Oscar nominations. For five points apiece, name the five films nominated for 1994's best dramatic film.

A: Forrest Gump; Pulp Fiction; Quiz Show; Nell; Legends of the Fall

16. (30 points)

Answer the following questions about the June 28, 1914 assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand in Sarajevo for the stated number of points.

(5) name the assassin.

A: Gavrilo PRINCIP

(10) Serbian secret society of which Princip was a member.

A: the BLACK HAND

(15) first name of the Archduke's wife, also killed on that fateful day

A: SOPHIE

17. (25 points)

In October 1994, British researchers announced they had probably solved an enduring mystery involving the Russian royal family. Answer the following questions about this case for the stated number of points.

(10) name the Grand Duchess involved in this case, who was supposedly executed with the rest of the royal family in 1918.

A: ANASTASIA

(15) the woman who claimed until her death in 1984 to actually be Anastasia.

A: Anna ANDERSON

18. (25 points)

This man is considered to be one of the most prolific and influential ballet choreographers of the 20th century. He created ten dances for the Ballets Russes, for which he was chief choreographer for several years in the 1920s, and also helped to found the New York City Ballet, for which he created more than 200 ballets, including its signature piece. For 25 points, name this choreographer.

A: George BALANCHINE

19. (30 points)

Identify these five artists from their works FTP apiece:

a. The Burial of Count Orgaz; The View of Toledo

A: EL GRECO

b. The Two Fridas

A: Frida KAHLO

c. The Mural of Chapengo

A: Diego RIVERA

20. (25 points)

25-10, identify the common title.

25) The name of a magazine edited by Kevin Kelly which chronicles the culture of cyberspace and the Internet.

10) The title of a best-selling biography of John Belushi.

A: WIRED

21. (20 points)

As of 1/16/95, Orlando and Phoenix had the best records in the NBA, but last year neither made the conference finals. For five points apiece, name the four teams that did?

A: Houston or ROCKETS; New York or KNICKS; Indiana or PACERS; Utah or JAZZ

22. (30 points)

FTP each, give the Tolstoy novel that included these characters:

a. Alexi Alexandrovich and Count Vronski

A: ANNA KARENINA

b. Prince Vasily and Nickolai Rotof

A: WAR AND PEACE

c. Peter Ivanovich and Fedor Vasilievich

A: The DEATH OF IVAN ILYCH

23. (30 points)

FTP each, given a plane, name the country that makes (or made) it.

- a. Buccaneer A: GREAT BRITAIN or variant
- b. Fw 200 Condor A: GERMANY
- c. KFIR A: ISRAEL

24. (20 points)

Following the 1994 elections, the Senate Judiciary Committee will look very different. FTP each, given a freshman Republican member of the Committee, name the state he represents.

- a. Spence Abraham ANSWER: MICHIGAN
- b. Jon Kyl ANSWER: ARIZONA

25. (30 points)

Between January 1977 and October 1994, 249 death sentences were carried out in the US. Four states had a combined total of 154 of these executions. For 5 points each, name these four states; for an additional 10 point bonus name all four in order from most to least executions.

ANSWER: TEXAS (82), FLORIDA (33), LOUISIANA (21), GEORGIA (18)

26. (30 points)

FTP each identify the species of bat given a short description.

- a) These are the fastest of all bat species, traveling up to 40 miles per hour. They also tend to live in urban environments.

A: BIG BROWN bat

- b) Small brown bats distinguished by their ears, which are close to an inch long.

A: KEEN'S bat

- c) One of the largest bat species, these bats weigh about one and a quarter ounces, and have thin, elongated wings used for long-distance flight.

A: RED bat, or SILVER-HAIRED bat, or HOARY bat

27. (20 points)

Women have become prominent in South Asian politics in recent years. FTP each, given a South Asian nation, name its female leader.

- a. Pakistan ANSWER: Benazir BHUTTO
- b. Bangladesh ANSWER: Khaleda ZIA

28. (30 points)

FTP apiece, name the three party slogans found in Orwell's 1984.

A: WAR IS PEACE; FREEDOM IS SLAVERY; IGNORANCE IS STRENGTH