

1. The name's the same. One, the US Representative from North Carolina's 7th District, is one of the most powerful democrats left in the House. The other is the erudite host of a popular PBS late-night talk show. FTP, give the common name.
ANSWER: Charles "CHARLIE" ROSE

2. Imagine you own your own oil fields, your own refineries, pipelines, refineries, gas stations, and tankers. FTP, what two-word term for the situation in which one company controls every step in producing a particular product?
ANSWER: VERTICAL MONOPOLY (prompt on "monopoly" on early buzz)

3. March 29, 1912: "We shall stick it out to the end, but we are getting weaker. It seems a pity, but I do not think I can write any more." This ends the diary, FTP, of what explorer who led a doomed expedition to the South Pole?
ANSWER: Robert Falcon SCOTT

4. In old England, if you saw a crime in progress, you had to yell that you saw it; everybody else was to start chasing the alleged perpetrator. This law was called, FTP, by what three-word phrase now used to mean a clamor of protest?
ANSWER: HUE AND CRY

5. Hertz demonstrated that radio waves, like light, can be reflected. Marconi worked to produce something useful from this fact, but it wasn't until World War II that the British were able to use it to detect incoming German planes. FTP, name this technology now used by policemen to catch speeding motorists.
ANSWER: RADAR

6. Born in 1697, he showed early artistic talent and was apprenticed to an engraver. FTP, name this engraver famous for such satirical works as The Rake's Progress and Marriage à la Mode.
ANSWER: William HOGARTH

7. Its ball is 26 inches in circumference and weighs a maximum of 10 ounces. The court is 30 by 60 feet, with a net 39 inches wide, 7 feet, 4-1/4 inches high for women, and 8 feet high for men. FTP, name this sport that has six on a side indoors and two on a side in its beach version.
ANSWER: VOLLEYBALL

8. James Hayter played Mr. Tebbs, Mike Berry played Mr. Spooner, Frank Thornton played Capt. Peacock, Mollie Sugden played Mrs. Slocombe, and John Inman played Mr. Humphreys, FTP, on what British sitcom set in the Grace Bros. department store?
ANSWER: ARE YOU BEING SERVED?

9. He took his father's nickname as his last name. Known for his wit and irony, his novels include The Crime of Sylvestre Bonnard and he won the 1921 Nobel Prize in Literature. FTP, name this French author born Jacques Anatole Thibault.
ANSWER: Anatole FRANCE

10. Born in Belgium, he became a sociology professor in Brazil. A proponent of structuralism, his books include World on the Wane and several anthropological studies. FTP, name this anthropologist whose name implies he's a seller of jeans.
ANSWER: Claude LEVI-STRAUSS

11. Besieged for two months in 1863, Confederate General Joseph Pemberton commanded a garrison in a seemingly insignificant little town, but if it were lost the Union would control the whole Mississippi River. FTP, name Pemberton's command, which finally fell on July 4, 1863.
ANSWER: Vicksburg

12. Sometimes when the moon is in crescent phase, one can see the rest of the moon very faintly, caused by light reflected from the earth onto the moon, and then back to the earth. FTP, what 10-letter word describes this effect?
ANSWER: EARTHSHINE

13. Its president is Rita Sussmuth. Four vice-presidents, elected from its 656 members, serve alongside Ms. Sussmuth in its Presidium. FTP, name this legislative body for which elections were last held in October 1994 and which is the lower house of Germany's parliament.
ANSWER: BUNDESTAG

14. The third man to bear this name founded the World Book Encyclopedia and the Chicago Sun. The first started the family's business empire, however, as a dry-goods merchant in 1860's Chicago, who became prominent with the phrase, "Give the lady what she wants." FTP, give this name which still graces a famous Chicago department store.
ANSWER: MARSHALL FIELD

15. He was a conductor in Sweden and for the Prague opera, resigning in 1874 due to sudden deafness. Better known as a composer, his works include the operas The Kiss and The Bartered Bride, and the symphonic poem The Moldau. FTP, name this composer and founder of the Czech national school.
ANSWER: Bedrich SMETANA

16. As scribe to the gods, he was believed to be the inventor of writing. The Egyptians considered him the god of time as well. FTP, name this Egyptian god of the moon.
ANSWER: THOTH

17. Oregon's Crater Lake, as the name implies, was formed when the crater of a volcano filled with water. But FAQTP, can you name the volcano whose crater forms Crater Lake?

ANSWER: Mt. MAZAMA

18. Archibald, the only son to survive World War II, joined the John Birch society, Kermit committed suicide in Alaska in 1943, a third son was the oldest infantryman to come ashore in the D-Day invasion, and Alice Longworth was instrumental in keeping her father's memory alive. FTP, these are the children of what 20th century US president?

ANSWER: THEODORE ROOSEVELT

19. He gained fame for his 1873 report "On the Continuity of the Liquid and Gaseous States." His law of corresponding states and won him the 1910 Nobel prize in Chemistry. FTP, name this Dutch scientist after whom the weak forces attracting molecules to one another in gases are named.

ANSWER: Johannes Diederik VAN DER WAALS

20. "If I could have my choice about it, I never would put pen to paper--except to write a socialist essay to tell the bourgeois world how much I despise it," he wrote in 1911. He was both a socialist and author, as well as a participant in the Klondike gold rush. FTP, name this American author of The Call of the Wild.

ANSWER: Jack LONDON

21. In World War I he invented a gear system making it possible to fire machine guns from propeller-driven planes without hitting the propeller; although he tried to sell his plane to both sides, only the Germans bought it. FTP, name this aviation pioneer after whom a famous German fighter plane was named.

ANSWER: Anthony Herman Gerard FOKKER

22. We all know that Katarina Witt won two straight Olympic gold medals in figure skating in 1984 and 1988. While this is rare enough, one woman actually won three consecutive golds in Olympic figure skating. FTP, name this Norwegian figure skater of the 1930s.

ANSWER: Sonia HENIE

23. Both of its branches start in the Texas panhandle, then flow eastward until they join near their junction with the Arkansas River in eastern Oklahoma. Among the cities lying on a branch of this river is Oklahoma City. FTP, name this Oklahoma river which sounds as if it should actually be north of the border.

ANSWER: CANADIAN River

24. His first buildings were simple worker's cottages in Pomerania. During World War I, the city of Weimar approached him about teaching art education. he did, and his school became famous, attracting such artists as Paul Klee and Vasily Kandinsky. FTP, name this architect who was the founder of the Bauhaus school.
ANSWER: Walter GROPIUS

25. In 1776, Friedrich von Klinger wrote a play, the title of which begins "Der Wirrwarr, oder..." This play showed a style against the formalism and rationalism prevalent in Klinger's day, a style sometimes called Pre-Romantic. FTP, give the three-word completion of the title of Klinger's play, thereby naming the 18th century Germany literary movement this play typified.
ANSWER: STURM UND DRANG

26. Confucius once said that "simply by being a good son and friendly to his brother, a man can exert an influence on government." Indeed, Confucianism constantly stresses the belief that children should be respectful of their parents and obey them. FTP, what is the two-word term for such a belief?
ANSWER: FILIAL PIETY

1. (30) For the stated number of points, identify these works by Charles Dickens.
(5) Dickens was working on this novel when he died.

ANSWER: THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD

- (10) the heroine of this novel is Little Nell.

ANSWER: THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP

- (15) other than A Tale of Two Cities, it's the only Dickens novel not set in Dickens' own time.

ANSWER: BARNABY RUDGE

2. (30) All of these acronyms have multiple meanings, but for the stated number of points, give their meanings when used in banking.

- (5) CD

A: Certificate of Deposit

- (10) IRA

A: Individual Retirement Account

- (15) the NOW in NOW account

A: Negotiable Order of Withdrawal

3. (20) Siskel and Ebert agreed on what were the best and worst films of 1994. FTP each, name:

- a. The basketball documentary they selected as the best film of 1994.

ANSWER: HOOP DREAMS

- b. The Rob Reiner-directed film starring Elijah Wood they selected as the worst film of 1994.

ANSWER: NORTH

4. (30) FTP apiece, identify the following diseases:

- a. To find out whether or not you've got this disease, take the Dick test.

ANSWER: SCARLET FEVER or SCARLATINA

- b. This disease, often found in pneumonia sufferers, is an inflammation of the lining surrounding the lungs.

ANSWER: PLEURISY

- c. This disease is a form of tuberculosis that attacks the immune system, especially the lymph nodes.

ANSWER: SCROFULA

5. (20) Most College Bowlers know the amendments to the US Constitution, but how much can you remember about the original Constitution? Answer the following questions FFP each.

- a. This article declares the US Constitution to be the supreme law of the land.

ANSWER: SIX

- b. This article declares that no state may coin money.

ANSWER ONE

- c. For five points each, give the two years named in the Constitution.

ANSWERS: 1787 (year in which the Constitution was written)

1808 (in which Congress may start regulating the slave trade)

6. (20) Technically, they're just a gold or golden-brown form of algae no longer than a thousandth of an inch. Most prevalent in colder waters, their shells, formed from dissolved silica found in the water, collect at the bottom of the water, eventually forming a type of "earth" that has many uses, including in the making of concrete. For twenty points, name this single-celled plant.

ANSWER: DIATOMS

7. (30) FTP each, name the authors of these works of French literature.

a. "Night Flight"

ANSWER: Antoine de SAINT-EXUPERY

b. Caligula

ANSWER: Albert CAMUS

c. A Very Easy Death

ANSWER: Simone de BEAUVOIR

8. (30) Name the following books of the Bible from brief description FTP each.

a. The first book of the Bible named after a woman.

A: RUTH

b. With just 25 verses, it's the shortest of all Paul's epistles.

A: PHILEMON

c. The single person to whom Paul wrote two epistles.

A: TIMOTHY

9. (25) If you ask a German to name the notes of the musical scale, you'll get what sound like odd answers.

(10) the note that is called B in English is called by what other letter in German?

ANSWER: H

(15) as Germans refer to B as H, they use the letter B to refer to this note.

ANSWER: B-FLAT

10. (30) Some people, such as Babe Ruth, have last names that are also first names. For the stated number of points, identify three other such people.

(5) He ran for President on the Socialist ticket in every presidential election from 1928 to 1948.

ANSWER: NORMAN THOMAS

(10) He knocked Mike Tyson out in a 1990 heavyweight championship fight.

ANSWER: JAMES (or "BUSTER") DOUGLAS

(15) She played Sally Rodgers on The Dick van Dyke Show.

ANSWER: ROSE MARIE

11. (20) Last November's Virginia Slims Championships honored Martina Navratilova, but other players stole the show. FTP each:

a. This player defeated Navratilova in the first round and won the entire tournament, thus winning her first title since 1992.

ANSWER: Gabriella SABATINI

b. This 6 foot 2 inch 18-year-old who lost to Sabatini in the finals is now the highest ranked American on the women's tour.

ANSWER: Lindsay DAVENPORT

12. (30) FTP each, name the geologic periods that immediately followed each of the periods given.

- a. Jurassic
- b. Cambrian
- c. Silurian

ANSWER: CRETACEOUS

ANSWER: ORDOVICIAN

ANSWER: DEVONIAN

13. (25) Communism is gone from Eastern Europe, but for the stated number of points, identify the following East European Communist leaders.

(10) this man was named head of the Polish Communist party in a major upheaval in 1956 and remained in that post until his ouster in 1970.

ANSWER: Wladyslaw GOMULKA

(15) He ruled Hungary from after the 1956 rebellion until his ouster in 1988.

ANSWER: Janos KADAR

14. (30) Many large American cities, such as San Francisco, have two-word names starting with the letter S. But for 5 points each, and a possible 30 points total, name the six largest US cities according to the 1990 census that have one-word names starting with the letter S.

ANSWER: SEATTLE, SACRAMENTO, STOCKTON, SHREVEPORT, SPOKANE, SYRACUSE

15. (30) For 10 points each, identify the following British Poets Laureate.

a. The first to hold the title officially, from 1668 to 1688, this man is famous for his Heroic Stanzas.

ANSWER: John DRYDEN

b. He spent much of his life in England's Lake District and held the post from 1843 until his death in 1850.

ANSWER: William WORDSWORTH

c. He was married to Sylvia Plath and has held the title since 1984.

ANSWER: Ted HUGHES

16. (30) Bon appetit! FTP, name the following types of cheese.

a. Although commonly called Swiss cheese, if you're referring to the holey cheese from Switzerland, it's more properly called this.

ANSWER: EMMENTALER

b. This close equivalent to Emmentaler is a Norwegian variant of "Swiss" cheese.

ANSWER: JARLSBERG

c. This English cheese with a wrinkled ring is a close equivalent to Bleu cheese.

ANSWER: STILTON

17. (30) FTP apiece, name the mothers of the following mythological figures.

a. The Titans

ANSWER: GAEA

b. Castor and Pollux

ANSWER: LEDA

c. Aeneas ANSWER:

ANSWER: APHRODITE

18. (30) Roman numerals weren't used for multiplication, and you'll find out why. FTP each, answer the following Roman numeral multiplication questions in Roman numerals.

a. X times L

ANSWER: D (10x50=500)

b. XI times IX

ANSWER: XCIX (11x9=99)

c. XXVI times XXVI

ANSWER: DCLXXVI (26x26=676)

19. (30) For the stated number of points, identify the following islands that are very far north.

(5) it's the world's largest island.

ANSWER: GREENLAND

(10) this large island, not Baffin, is Canada's most northerly island.

ANSWER: ELLESMERE

(15) this island group located between Norway and Greenland and owned by Norway is named after the Dutch explorer who discovered it in the 17th century.

ANSWER: JAN MAYEN Land

20. (30) FTP apiece, name these terms used in linguistics.

a. The smallest unit of sound that can be distinguished from any other sound.

ANSWER: PHONEME

b. If a language is simplified, and this simplified language becomes the first language of a group of people, the end result is one of these.

ANSWER: CREOLE (not "pidgin"; a pidgin becomes a creole)

c. This term denotes a definite article expressed as a suffix at the end of a word, such as the "-en" in the name of the Norwegian island group Jan Mayen.

ANSWER: POST-ENCLITIC

21. (25) After studying law at McGill University, he was elected to Canada's House of Commons in 1874. He rose through the ranks, becoming liberal party leader in 1887, and Prime Minister in 1894, a post he held for some 15 years. For twenty-five points, name this first French-Canadian Prime Minister.

ANSWER: Sir Wilfrid LAURIER

22. (30) 'K' is for Killer is the latest installment of Sue Grafton's Kinsey Millhone mystery series. FTP each, complete the titles of other novels in this series.

a. "E" is for...

ANSWER: EVIDENCE

b. "G" is for...

ANSWER: GUMSHOE

c. "I" is for...

ANSWER: INNOCENT

23. (30) We all know what flying buttresses are, but FTP, name these other architectural terms.

a. This area forms the "arms" of a cross-shaped church.

ANSWER: TRANSEPT

b. This is the term for a continuous walkway inside a circular building.

ANSWER: AMBULATORY

c. This term refers to the shallow vertical grooves often found running from the top to bottom of columns.

ANSWER: FLUTING

24. (20) For five points each, with a five point bonus for correctly answering all three, name the winners of the following NCAA Division 1 tournaments in 1994.

a. Men's Basketball

A: University of ARKANSAS

b. Women's Basketball

A: University of NORTH CAROLINA (Chapel Hill)

c. Men's Water Polo

A: STANFORD University

25. (30) FTP each, name the playwrights who penned each of the following plays:

a. Ah Wilderness

ANSWER: Eugene O'NEILL

b. An Enemy of the People

ANSWER: Henrik IBSEN

c. The Imaginary Invalid

ANSWER: MOLIERE

26. (20) Born in 1859 with the last name Rabinowitz, he first wrote in Russian and Hebrew. In 1883, he published his first work in Yiddish, and published 40 or more volumes of fiction in Yiddish before his death in 1916. For twenty points, name this author, whose stories were the basis for Fiddler on the Roof.

ANSWER: SOHEM ALEICHEM