

1. Originally the designers of this car wanted to call it the cougar. Under Lee Iaccoca's tutelage this sporty Ford product has become an American Icon. For ten points what did they decide to call this American car?

Mustang

2. Limestone plaques indicate that it lies in the sands near the oasis of Siwa in western Egypt. FTP, whose 2300-year old tomb was reportedly located last month?

Alexander the Great

3. This cardinal and archbishop's wish to convert Africa to Christianity prompted him to found the Society of Missionaries of Africa, or White Fathers. He always opposed slavery and spent his last years organizing Antislavery societies in Central Africa. Name this Frenchman for ten points?

Charles Lavigerie

4. This international insurance marketing association consist of more than 20,000 individual members who accept insurance for their own account and risk. Based in London this company can trace its beginnings to a 1688 coffeehouse where businessmen transacted business informally. For ten points name this company that insures Mary Hart's Legs.

Lloyd's of London

5. This German Philosopher was one of the most important Existentialists in Germany. He came into conflict with Hitler because he would not waver his views to fit the Nazi's views. Some of his thirty books include: The Idea of a University, Reason and Existence, and Man in the Modern Age. For ten points name this philosopher that died in 1969?

Karl Jaspers

6. This former US presidential candidate began his career as a Pharmacist. He began his Political career as Minnesota campaign manager of Franklin Delano Roosevelt in 1944. He was elected mayor of Minneapolis in 1944 and three year later elected to the senate. ^{FTP name} He was Lyndon Johnson's Vice-president. ~~For ten points name this man that gave his name to the Metrodome.~~

Hubert H. Humphrey^{rey}

7. This practicing Atlanta lawyer was the first American since Ben Franklin to be awarded the freedom of the burgh of St. Andrews, Fife, Scotland. He was a great amateur golf champion and the only person to win golf's grand slam. In 1934 he helped initiate the Masters tournament. For ten point name this winner of 13 grand slam championships.

Bobby Jones

8 This Roman goddess was connected with all aspects of the life of women, most particularly married life. She closely resembles the Greek goddess Hera and is the roman chief goddess. For ten points name her?

Juno

9 You may have seen this Russian artist' two sided work in Six Degrees of Separation. He founded the influential Munich group Der Blaue Reiter and began completely abstract painting. His forms evolved from fluid and organic to geometric and finally to pictographic. His paintings include Black Lines and Tempered Elan. For ten points name him.

Wassily Kandinsky

10 Henry Kissinger wrote his doctoral dissertation on the policies of this German. His influence in the Austrian Empire was immense. He presided at the Congress of Vienna and dictated all of Austria's foreign policy up to his ousting in 1848. For ten points name this Austrian leader who Beethoven calls an ass in the film Immortal Beloved?

Metternich

11 For a quick ten points name this Island in the Caribbean that proves that the French can get along with other people. In this case the dutch.

Saint Martin or Sint Maarten

12 This Flemish painter born in 1577 is known for his portraits and landscapes. Many women compare themselves to the women in many of his paintings. A 21 picture cycle of Marie de Medicis' life that he painted now sits in a room of its own in the Louvre. For ten points name this painter.

Peter Paul Rubens

13 This Austrian received the Nobel Prize in 1945 for a rule he discovered in 1925 and now bears his name. According to Stephen Hawking, the rule states that two similar particles cannot exist in the same state. This means they cannot have the same position and velocity. For ten points name the man associated with this famous principle.

Wolfgang Pauli

14 The Mills Brothers certainly sang about an interesting creature. In the Larvae stage this animal has the ability to undergo a chemical reaction to create a lasting bluish-green light in the bottom part of its body. It is not a worm like its name suggests. For ten points name this insect.

Glowworm

15 Tea may be the product most people associate with the Celestial Seasonings Co. but now they have a new product, one you do not drink but is sure to tickle your throat. For ten points what is this product?

cough drops or throat drops or soothers

16 Like the Aborigines of Australia, this group made up the pre-European population of a South Pacific nation. They were known for bulging their eyes and sticking out their tongues when meeting and challenging an enemy. For ten Points what is the name of these New Zealanders?

Maori (Mao (like the chinese leader) rea)

17 For a quick ten points, what place can you reach with the directions "Take the second star to the right and straight on till morning"?

Neverland . accept Never-Never-land

18 A former patient at an insane asylum, she wrote "Faces in the Water" and is now known as the subject of the Jane Campion film "An Angel at My Table." For ten points name this New Zealand author:

Janet Frame

19 In one form or another, from psychedelic rock to pop ballads, this band has been around for twenty five years now. Only three members remained after guitarist Steve Hackett left the group in 1979. But the most profound change came in 1975 when lead singer and visionary Peter Gabriel departed. For ten points, name this English band featuring Tony Banks, Mike Rutherford and Phil Collins.

Genesis

20 In size, this country is slightly larger than Washington, D.C. ^{FTP} Name this country which is a part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands, has its capital at Oranjestad and lies 18 miles of the coast of Venezuela.

Aruba

21 ~~Cheryl, Diane and Alan are all actors who share the same last name, but none of them are related.~~ Cheryl is the former Cheryl Stoppelmoor of Huron, South Dakota, Diane is better known as the mother of Laura Dern and Alan rode into the sunset in "Shane". For ten points give their surname.

Ladd

22 The original Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was published in the September 8, 1892 issue of The Youth's Companion. But it wasn't until June 14, 1954, in the heat of the McCarthy-Army hearings, that two words were added to the pledge which brought it to its final form. For ten points, what two words.

Under God

23 Knowledge of its existence dates back to 1642 when it was taken from India and later sold to King Louis XIV of France, who had its size reduced by 40%. It stayed in the family through the executions of Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette, and mysteriously appeared in London thirty years later and another one-third smaller. It is now the most popular attraction of the National Museum of Natural History. What is this famous Smithsonian Item?

Hope Diamond

24 Among the most successful political analyses published in the U.S. is the series of presidential campaign studies that were begun in 1960 and expanded to each of the three subsequent elections. For ten points, name the author of The Making of the President.

Theodore H. White

25 Ives W. McGaffey invented the first manually operated one, Hubert C. Booth the first electric one, and J. Murray Spangler the first upright one. For ten points what is this device that is the corporate darling of Kirby, Electrolux and Hoover?

Vacuum cleaner

26 Both the first African-American to enter the Senate, Hiram Revels of Mississippi, and the first African-American in the House of Representatives, Jefferson Long of Georgia, were elected during the same year. For ten points, which election year was this that also saw the beginning of the Franco-Prussian War?

1870

25

27 Situation Normal, The Misfits, Jane's Blanket, Honors at Dawn, The Man who had All the Luck, The Creation of the World and Other Business, An American Clock, ^{and} All My Sons, ~~The Crucible, and Death of a Salesman~~, are all works for ten points by this American author

Arthur Miller

26

28 She was born in New York City in 1849 and began writing poetry at an early age. She had already published three books of poems before writing her most famous and long-remembered sonnet in 1883. This sonnet, written in tribute to one of America's greatest symbols of freedom and compassion includes the lines "Send these the homeless, tempest, tempest-tost, to me/lift my lamp beside the golden door!" For ten points, who was this author of "The new Colossus".

Emma Lazarus

27

29 This pope wrote a prayer to St. Michael the Archangel after he envisioned a futuristic battle to be waged against the church in the 20th century. For ten points name this 19th century Pope?

Leo XIII

24

30 He was educated in Cairo University in Egypt and Baghdad, University in Iraq. He was forced into exile in 1959 because of a failed assassination plot. When he returned to Iraq he was imprisoned from 1964 to 1966. After getting out he joined the Ba'ath party and quickly laid the foundation for his rise to power. For ten points name this Iraqi ruler?

Saddam Hussein

BONUS

1 30 points. Most major U.S. newspapers have eliminated evening editions, ~~as a response to market forces~~. There are, however, three cities that still publish an evening paper with circulations of more than 200,000. For ten points each, given the city, name the paper.

Detroit	News
Milwaukee	Journal
Seattle	Times

2. 20 points. If you were to travel from Cornell University to Cornell College, for five points each name the cities and states where your journey would begin and end.

Ithaca, New York to Mt. Vernon, Iowa

3. 25 points. In the 1992 U.S. presidential election, most large states voted for Clinton/Gore. Five states, however, committed more than ten electoral votes each to the Bush/Quayle ticket. For five points name those five states.

Texas(32), Florida(25), North Carolina(14), Virginia(13), Indiana(12)

4. 30 points. The position of Poet Laureate of the United States was established in 1985. Currently the post is held by Rita Dove. For ten points each, name any three of the six poets who held the post before her.

Robert Penn Warren
Richard Wilber
Howard Nemerov
Mark Strand
Joseph Brodsky
Mona Van Duyn

5 20 points. Simply because you might have heard of some of his work, D.A. Pennebaker is one of the most successful American documentary filmmakers in history. For ten points each given a description of a Pennebaker film, you provide the film's title.

A study of the 1992 Clinton campaign for the presidency. The War Room

Bob Dylan's groundbreaking 1966 concert tour. Don't Look Back

6 20 points. New information supporting the existence of black holes in the cosmos was recently provided by a series of ten identical 82-foot-diameter observation dishes, known as VLBA, scattered across the U.S. between the Virgin Islands and Hawaii. For five points for each word, what does VLBA stand for?

Very Long Baseline Array

7 20 points. According to the 1990 census, four ethnic groups claimed to have over 20 million members in the United States. For five points apiece name these top four ancestries claimed by American families.

German
Irish
English
Afro-American (accept African, Black or other equivalents)

8 25 points. Henry VII and Henry VIII were the first two English rulers representing the House of Tudor. For five points apiece and an additional five points for putting them in order from earliest to latest, name the four succeeding Tudor monarchs.

Edward VI
Jane(accept lady Jane Grey)
Mary I(accept Bloody Mary)
Elizabeth I

9 20 points. Two common features in the Southern Hemisphere sky are the Southern Cross and its accompanying pair of pointer stars. The stars in the cross are Alpha, Beta, Gamma, Delta, and Epsilon Crucis. For ten points each what are the names of the two pointer stars?

Alpha Centauri
Beta Centauri

10 25 points. The ancient Romans discovered that when this volcanic ash was added to concrete, the concrete became harder, more waterproof and even capable of hardening under water, the name of this ash comes from a corruption of the name Puteoli, the town close to where this ash was found in abundance. For 25 points, name this useful Italian ash.

Pozzolana (or Pozzolan)

12 30 points. New Zealand-what a country! for ten points each and a total of thirty points identify these New Zealand attractions.

1) It is the largest city in New Zealand and boasts a large park called Domain:
Auckland

2) It is the strait between the North and south island which was named for the explorer who took possession of New Zealand for Britain.
Cook Strait

3) These trees, known for their beautiful timber and ability to grow to 28 feet in diameter were lumbered to near extinction and are now protected.
Kauri (COW-ree)

13 25-10 Bonus Name the year for 25 points on the first clue and 10 points on the second clue.

25 points: The first experiment to generate electricity by geothermal steam was carried out in Larderello, Italy.

10 points: The Olympics were held in St. Louis, Missouri

1904

14 30 points. Since 1969 the Government has been withdrawing 500, 1000, 5000, and 10,000 dollar bills from circulation. For five points apiece and a ten point bonus for all 4, given the bill tell us whose face graces the ~~cover~~ ^{front} of the bill.

$500	William McKinley
$1000	Grover Cleveland
$5000	James Madison
$10000	Salmon P. Chase

15 20 Points. D.H. Lawrence is one of the most important and controversial novelists of the 20th century. For five points apiece and a total of 20 name these parts of his life:

1. What do the letters D and H stand for:

David and Herbert

2. What was his ^{wife} ~~wives~~ first name:

Frieda

3. What was his first published novel?

The White Peacock

16 30 point bonus. It is time to play name that French Louis. Tell me the name of this Louis for 10 points on his nickname or 5 points with some biographical data?

1 10pts. Saint Louis

5pts. Led seventh crusade to the holy land and was cannonized Aug 11,1297
Louis IX

2. 10 pts. Louis the Just

5 pts. His principal Advisor was Richelieu
Louis XIII

3. 10 pts. Louis the Great or The Sun King

5 pts. His prime minister was Cardinal Mazarin
Louis XIV

17 20 points. Ulster, Leinster, Munster and Connaught are the four ancient Irish provinces. After a short description name the province in Ireland.

Host: Give answers if ~~correct~~ at end of the entire question only,

1. 6 of its 9 counties are now part of Northern Ireland

Ulster

2. It includes Dublin

Leinster

3. This province includes Cork, Waterford and Tipperary

Munster

4. This least populous province includes the towns of Galway and the county of Mayo.

Connaught

18 30 points. The celtic people once inhabited many parts of Europe. Today Celts are located in six different regions. For five points apiece list the six areas that are still today celtic:

Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Cornwall, Brittany, Isle of Man (accept Mannites)

19 30 points. In Russian the KGB acronym is in full Komitet Gosudarstunnoy Bezopasnosti. Pretty much incomprehensible and unspeakable to the untrained Russian ear. For five points apiece and a bonus of 15 points if you get all three words of what these words are translated to in English.

Committe for State Security

20 25 Points. What an "Old" bonus! For five points each, given the clues supply the term beginning with the word old.

1) A short novel by Ernest Hemmingway:

The Old Man and the Sea

2) A nickname given to Gen. Winfield Scott of the U.S. Army:

Old Fuss and Feathers

3) A popular name for the devil, it may come from the name of a German water sprite or even an alternate name for Santa Clause:

Old Nick

4) The pyramid age of Ancient Egypt:

Old Kingdom

5) Nickname given to Andrew Jackson:

Old Hickory

21 30-20-10 name the Artist

- 1) He was a French Painter who worked as a collector of taxes on goods brought into Paris and served in the army from 1864-1868 before seriously starting his work
- 2) His so-called "primitive" or "naive style was admired by Gauguin and Picasso:
- 3) Two of his works "The sleeping Gypsy" and "The Waterfall" which feature exotic locations as deserts and tropical jungles, are typical of his paintings.

Rousseau

22 20 Points. For Five points apiece can you name any of the four presidents who never had the "Help" or "moral Support" of a Vice-President?

- Tyler (after the death of Harrison)
Fillmore (after the death of Taylor)
Johnson, Andrew (after assassination of Lincoln)
Arthur (after the assassination of Garfield)

27 28 30-20-10 Name this famous American

- 1) He was imprisoned during the French Revolution after he protested the execution of Louis XVI.
- 2) In England he wrote his 2nd most successful work the "Rights of Man"
- 3) He authored an anonymous pamphlet entitled "Common Sense"

Thomas Paine

29 30 points. name these questions about counties in the united states.

1) This state doesn't call its divisions counties. For ten points apiece name this state and its internal designations.

Louisiana, Parishes

2) For ten points name this state that doesn't have any counties:

Alaska

24 25 20 points. Given the event, for five points a piece Identify the WWII battle.

- Rommel driven out of Egypt: El-Alemein
 End of Japanese naval power: Leyte Gulf
 Four day battle in which all fighting was done by airplanes: Coral Sea
 100 Japanese ships defeated by Raymond Spruance with 50 ships: Midway

26 25 points. In the 19th century European powers controlled most of Africa. For five points each identify the former controlling country of these former colonies:

- | | |
|------------|----------------|
| Zaire | Belgium |
| Madagascar | France |
| Kenya | Britain |

Ethiopia
Angola

Italy
Portugal

27 30 points. Can you give the following phrases from the Christian Bible, for ten points apiece:

- | | |
|--|-------------------------|
| 1) First Phrase of the Bible: | In the Beginning |
| 2) Last phrase of the Christian Bible: | Amen |
| 3) Shortest sentence in the Christian Bible: | Jesus wept. |