

JV-3-26

Minnesota A
1995 Elvis
Boni

1. (30) For 30 pts. please answer a few questions about what is reputed to be the greatest UFO-Government cover-up in US history.

1. FTP name the Air Force Base in New Mexico whose personnel originally investigated the crash site. Its name was used as a title of a cable movie starring Kyle McLachlan and Dwight Yoakam about the incident which was explained away as a weather balloon.

A: ROSWELL

2. FTP the alleged bodies recovered from the site were supposedly put in cold storage in the infamous hangar 18 at this Air Base in Dayton, Ohio.

A: WRIGHT-PATTERSON

3. FTP name the Sec. of Defense who according to the movie threw himself to his death because of his guilt over his involvement in the cover-up.

A: James FORRESTAL

2. (20) He lived from 1777 until 1855. He is ranked with Archimedes and Newton as one of the greatest mathematicians who ever lived. He was a child prodigy who received his doctorate at the age of 22 in absentia from the university at Helmstedt. Two years later he published "Disquisitiones Arithmetical" which dealt with number theory. For 20 pts. Name this man who formulated his own error curve.

A: Karl Friedrich GAUSS

3. (25) Her real name was Shannon Wilsey but like all porn stars she changed it to something more provocative. Unlike most of the actors in her profession she became ^{well} known in the main-stream. She dated several celebrities including Greg Allman, Slash, and Pauley Shore. In July of last year she unexpectedly committed suicide after sustaining a facial injury in a car accident. For 25 points what was her stage name?

A: Savannah (Shame on you if you knew this.)

4. (30) This film is perhaps the greatest undertaking in the history of cinema. The sets constructed could have supplied 15 movies. Bankrolled by the Soviet government as a means of propoganda, it cost the equivalent of $100 million. The film's 100 thousand plus cast was made up mostly of Soviet soldiers trained in Napoleonic battle tactics. FTP name it.

A: WAR AND PEACE

For 20 pts. who was its director?

A: Sergei BONDARCHUK

5. (25) He was perhaps the US's second best sprinter in the 1980's after Carl Lewis. In 1988 he snuck in for an Olympic bronze medal in the 100 m after Ben Johnson was disqualified. In 1982 he broke Jim Hines' long held world record in the 100. The next year he won the 200 and the 400 meter relay for another world record at the Track and Field World Championships in Helsinki. For ~~20~~²⁵ pts. name him.

A: Calvin SMITH

6. (25) This African author made the news recently with his harrowing escape from his native Nigeria. Of course he left because of violence and political instability of his homeland. He won the Nobel Prize for literature in 1986 for his plays, novels, and short stories. For 25 pts. what is his name?

A: Wole SOYINKA

7. (25) For five points apiece and another five for all right, list the order of the four types of human teeth from front to back, not counting wisdom teeth

A: Incisors, Cuspids, Bicuspid(~~acc: Canines~~), and Molars
(acc: canines) (acc: premolars)

8. (30) 30-20-10 name the musical

30: It was the first nude musical to appear on Broadway.

20: Its name can be slightly altered to sound like a crude French phrase.

10: Its title includes the name of a city in Eastern India.

A: OH! CALCUTTA!

9. (20) This novel made its mark in 1940 for its uncomfortably accurate depiction of the irrationality of racism. The book follows a few days in the life of an African-American chauffeur as he flees from his employer's house after having killed his employer's daughter. For ten points, name this novel whose main character is Bigger Thomas, and for another ten points, name its author.

A: NATIVE SON by Richard WRIGHT

10. (30) The root of this word comes from the French for "catapult" or "slingshot," and it originally was a name for a street urchin who threw mud at the carriages of the rich as they rode by. By 1650, it was used for anyone who disliked government policies in France. For thirty points, give the name for the series of civil wars provoked by Richelieu's attempts to increase royal revenues.

A: FRONDE or FRONDEUR (say it as it appears)

oh, lot of help there.

11. (20) For five points apiece and five more for all correct, list these European capitals in order from north to south: London, Berlin, Kiev.

A: Berlin, London, Kiev

12. (25) Dr. Etienne-Emile Baulieu is in the news again, but this time it's not for his work with the RU-486 pill. Instead, he has created excitement among both researchers and the elderly with his announcement that an adrenal hormone might help slow or offset many of the negative effects of aging. For 25 points, give the four-letter acronym for this drug, spelled almost like the name of a Greek goddess.

A: DHEA

13. (25) The leading proponents of this school of psychology were Max Wertheimer, Wolfgang Kohler, and Kurt Koffka, and they argued that human behavior could not be simply analyzed into elementary components, but rather that perception is a dynamic system in which all elements interact to produce something unique. For 25 points, name this school of psychology which had its heyday in the 1920s and 30s. GESTALT

14. (25) This man was the first person executed by the state of Texas in 1995. What makes his case perversely ironic is that the same district attorney who prosecuted him for murder claimed in a later trial and convinced the jury that his sister, Bobbie Jean Hogan, had actually been the one who killed Etta Ann Urdiales. For 25 points, name this unfortunate man whose sister, a clear co-conspirator to murder, could be out on parole this spring. Jesse DeWayne JACOBS

15. (30) Name the economist from a brief description, 10 points each.

A. This economist is most famous for his curve, supposedly first sketched on the back of a cocktail napkin, which postulates that at some point tax rates become so high that further raising them will actually decrease revenues. Arthur B. LAFFER

B. This British economist elaborated upon the labor theory of values, the function of wages, and comparative advantage in his 1817 classic "The Principles of Political Economy and Taxation." David RICARDO

C. In the 1930s, this economist proposed a notion often called the "process of creative destruction," which argues that monopolies actually bring into existence the very forces of competition that would replace them. Joseph SCHUMPETER

16. (25) Given a quote from the Bible, name its speaker, 5 points each.
- A. Genesis 4:9 - "Am I my brother's keeper?" CAIN
- B. Mark 15:71 - "I do not know this man about whom you are talking."
Simon PETER
- C. Second Chronicles 1:10 - "Give me, therefore, wisdom and knowledge to lead this people, for otherwise who could rule this great people of yours?" SOLOMON
- D. Mark 1:7 - "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals." JOHN THE BAPTIST
- E. Luke 1:38 - "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." MARY

17. (30-20-10) Name the religious sect from the clues given.

30 - Its two main divisions are Soto and Rinzai.

20 - It traces its beginnings to 6th Century A.D. China, and is also important today in Japan.

10 - This Buddhist sect bases itself upon the use of either surprise methods or a discipline of meditation to search for enlightenment.

ZEN Buddhism

18. (25) With his theory of individual psychology which asks people to move away from situations that make one feel inferior and move instead toward goals of success and superiority, you might think I just described infomercial guru Tony Robbins. On the contrary, for 25 points, name the Austrian physician and psychologist who was a younger contemporary of Freud who established more than 30 child-guidance centers in Vienna before moving to the United States.

A: Alfred ADLER

19. (25) Not many saints who were nuns also gave birth to five children, but America's first native-born saint did just that. For twenty-five points name the founder of the Sisters of Charity of Saint Joseph who also helped lay the foundation for America's parochial school system.

A: Elizabeth SETON

20. (20) For ten points apiece, give the terms coined by behaviorist Abraham Maslow:

1. The top of his hierarchy of pre potency, that is, becoming everything that one is capable of becoming A: SELF-ACTUALIZATION

2. Feelings of intense insight, joy or awareness A: PEAK EXPERIENCES

21. Now that the Chargers have been in a Super Bowl, the list of franchises that haven't made it to the big game has been reduced from nine to eight. For five points apiece name any six of those eight. Please, no Panthers or Jaguars.

A: Lions, Buccaneers, Saints, Falcons, Cardinals, Seahawks, Oilers, Browns

22. Given a city or town, name the island where you would find it.

- | | |
|---------------|----------------------|
| 1. Edgartown | A: MARTHA'S VINEYARD |
| 2. Oranjestad | A: ARUBA |
| 3. Moriah | A: TOBAGO |

23. (25) The 1970's left us with a rich heritage. Who could forget such wonderful artifacts as polyester leisure suits, platform shoes, swinger's clubs, and disco! Well, just in case you have, have the 70's Preservation Society has decided to quiz you on your knowledge of 70's music. I'll name a hit from the 70's and you supply the person or group who sang it.

"The Night The Lights Went Out In Georgia"

Vicki LAWRENCE

"Chug All Night"

The EAGLES

"(Shake, Shake, Shake) Shake Your Bootie"

K.C. AND THE SUNSHINE BAND

"A-B-C"

The JACKSON 5

"Y.M.C.A."

~~The~~ VILLAGE PEOPLE

24. (30) BONUS- 30- 20- 10

Name the architect.

1) For 30 points, this Italian lived from 1377-1446

2) For 20 points, he was one of the first practitioners of linear perspective.

3) For 10 points, this first great Renaissance architect's masterpiece is the dome of Florence Cathedral.

Fillipo Brunelleschi

25. (30) In the 40 year history of West Germany, there were 6 prime ministers or chancellors. For 5 points each, name all six of them.

Konrad ADENAUER

Ludwig ERHARDT

Kurt KIESLINGER

Willy BRANDT

Helmut SCHMIDT

Helmut KOHL