

80s Music is for people from the 80s (I mean, I grew up in the 80s, and I didn't think it was that good.)

TTGT11 v.4.11: None More Black

Written by Matt Larson of the University of Iowa

Subject: 80's Music [Note: At no point is a Weird Al parody used in this round. So there. Nyah.]

Scoring for the 80s Audio Round

Players get 10 points for each correct title. That's all they need. If they supply the artist, they earn an additional 5. However, if any part of their answer is wrong, they lose 5 points. If someone only knows the title, people may attempt to name the artist – however, the 5 point penalty still applies. Hopefully, this will stop rooms from becoming guess fests in this situation. Also, the year of the song is supplied for curiosity's sake, and not because the players need to supply it.
