

Game 3

Toss-ups

1. Q. Only one American President has won a Pulitzer Prize. Five years after he won it, he was the subject of another Pulitzer Prize-winning book, this one by Theodore H. White. Who was this 35th American President?

A. John F. Kennedy

2. Q. It is 74 miles long, and it extends from Bowness to Wallsend. It was built in the second century AD and extended a century later. For 10 points, what is this line of fortification and demarcation?

A. Hadrian's Wall

3. Q. Two Canadian provincial capitals are named in honor of Queen Victoria. One is Victoria, British Columbia. Which is the other?

A. Regina

4. Q. He was born Luciani Albino in 1912. He was the Patriarch of Venice from 1969 to 1978 and the Cardinal of Venice from 1973 to 1978. 34 days after he was no longer the Cardinal of Venice, he died, but during those 34 days, he held another position in the Catholic Church. By what name is he better known?

A. Pope John Paul I

5. Q. He was the President of South Africa's Liberal Party during the 1950's and 1960's, but he is better known as the author of such books as Too Late the Phalarope and Cry, The Beloved Country. Who is he?

A. Alan Paton [pron. pay-tun]

6. Q. This ancient empire became powerful under Cyrus the Great, and it reached its zenith in 525 BC when it extended from the Indus River to the Nile River. Alexander the Great conquered it in 330 BC, as did the Seleucids in 302 BC. For 10 points, what was it?

A. Persia

7. Q. The English general who ordered the charge of the light brigade was the seventh earl of a certain Welsh county, but he is more famous today for a piece of clothing named after him. It is a sweater with long sleeves and no collar that buttons down the front. What is this sweater called?

A. Cardigan

88. Q. To its east is the Mona Passage, and on its west, the Windward Passage. What is this large Caribbean island, home to two nations?

A. Hispañola

99. Q. A good College Bowl player knowes the Mayaguez as an American freighter that was captured by the Cambodians and rescued by force, but for 10 points, can you tell me on which island the city of Mayaguez is located?

A. Puerto Rico

107. Q. The islands around the Carribean Sea are the Greater and Lesser Antilles, the latter further subdivided into the Leeward and Windward Islands, but for 10 points, can you spell Carribean?

A. CARRIBEAN

111. Q. The second was ^(Ximenez) Ximenez, from 1507 to 1517, and the first was ^(Torquemada) Torquemada. For 10 points, what was their title as the head of the Spanish Inquisition?

A. Grand Inquisitor or Inquisitor General

121. Q. Sinclair Lewis wrote the book in 1927, and Burt Lancaster won an Oscar for his performance as the title character in 1960. What book is this?

A. Elmer Gantry

131. Q. He was born in 1940 as Edson Arantes Do Nascimento in Brazil. In 1958, 1962, and 1970, he led Brazil's soccer team to World Cup Championships, and he eventually played for the New York Cosmos. For 10 points, who is this world-famous athlete?

A. Pelé

141. Q. He started as a drummer with the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, and he holds a degree in philosophy from UCLA. Name this comedian whose films include The Jerk, Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid, Pennies from Heaven, and All of Me.

A. Steve Martin

151. Q. The father won the Nobel Prize in Physics for measuring the charge-to-mass ratio of the electron. The son won the same award for demonstrating diffraction of electrons from crystals. In other words, the father showed electrons to be particles, while the son showed them to be waves. Give the name of this pair of physicists.

A. J. J. and P. G. Thomson

16. Q. This British philosopher had himself preserved in a jar at the University of London after his death in 1833, and even now he is sometimes taken out and seated at a table during dinner. He is more famous, however, for his theories of jurisprudence and of punishment, which influenced John Stuart Mill and the Fabians. He and James Mill are considered the founders of Utilitarianism. Name the author of An Introduction to the Principles of Morals and Legislation.

A. Jeremy Bentham

17. Q. The product of crossing a lion and a tiger is a liger. What do we call the product of crossing a cat and a rabbit?

A. Cabbit

18. Q. She once said, "I've only slept with the men I've been married to." It is perhaps for this reason that she has been divorced so many times. Name this actress, who is famous for her roles in International Velvet and Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?

A. Elizabeth Taylor

19. Q. A dark sticky substance applied to women's eyes is mascara. However, for 10 points, name either of the Mascarene Islands.

A. Mauritius and Reunion

20. Q. "Deutschland, Deutschland Über Alles" was the national anthem of Nazi Germany, but who sings "California Über Alles?"

A. The Dead Kennedys

21. Q. He is the only United States President to have been censured by Congress. Who was this former President, who served as Governor of Virginia under the Confederacy?

A. John Tyler

22. Q. Even though Antarctica has surrounded the South Pole for millions of years, it did not freeze over until it broke away from South America, allowing frigid currents to encircle the continent. What is the name of the strait whose opening froze Antarctica?

A. Drake Passage

23. Q. This principle of jurisprudence was first established in 1610 by Sir Edward Coke in the Dr. Bonham's case, in which he declared that the common law could supersede Acts of Parliament. This principle was written into the law of the land by Chief Justice Marshall in Marbury v. Madison. Name it.

A. Judicial review

24. Q. He was born in 428 or 427 BC, the son of Ariston and Perictione. He died in 348 or 347 BC, and at the age of 60, he was asked to intervene in the politics of Syracuse, because he was the respected founder of the Academy in Athens. For 10 points, who was this famous Greek philosopher?

A. Plato

25. Q. France has many Overseas Departments, but the only one left in North America is a pair of islands off the coast of Newfoundland. For 10 points, what are they called?

A. St. Pierre and Miquelon

(53)