

1. He was born Richard Wayne Penniman in Macon, GA., in 1935. He was one of the pioneers of rock and roll and his music influenced the Beatles. For 10 points, name this still active rocker whose hits include "Tutti Frutti" and "Good Golly Miss Molly."

Ans: Little Richard

2. Christians used to celebrate this holiday on March 25. For Jews it falls sometime in September or early October. For the Chinese it occurs on a day between January 10 and February 19. For 10 points, name this holiday now associated with college football bowl games.

Ans: New Year's Day

3. This Spaniard's life was cut short when he was shot to death by Franco's soldiers at the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War. He is best known for his plays Blood Wedding and The House of Bernarda Alba, but he first gained fame for his poems. For 10 points, name this native of Andalusia.

Ans: Federico Garcia Lorca

4. In fact he was an English merchant and three-time lord mayor of London. In legend he gained his fortune when his cat was sold to the ruler of Morocco. For 10 points, name this Englishman who died in 1423.

Ans: Richard (Dick) Whittington

5. For 10 points, give the two-word expression that is defined as "the number of applications of a given stress to which a sample of metal can be subjected before failing."

Ans: fatigue life

6. Most people know that a century is a hundred years and a millenium is a thousand years, but what word designates a period of 10,000 years?

Ans: myriad

7. For 10 points, name the author of Weaveworld and The Great and Secret Show who has also been involved in such films as Hellraiser and Nightbreed.

Ans: Clive Barker

8. For 10 points, if two legs of a right triangle have lengths 5 and 12, what is the cosine of the angle opposite the side length 5.

Ans: 12/13

9. The equivalent of Illinois Avenue in the British version of Monopoly, this square in London shares its name with a famous naval battle in 1805 in which the fleet of Horatio Nelson beat the Spanish and French fleets. For 10 points, name it.

Ans: Trafalgar Square

10. The name of this state originated with a fake Indian name that means "gem of the mountains." Now this "gem state" is best known for its potatoes.

Ans: Idaho

11. Working in almost every genre of films, this director made several notable films such as Scarface, Bringing Up Baby, To Have and Have Not, Gentlemen Prefer Blondes, and Red River. For 10 points, name him.

Ans: Howard Hawks

12. An American painter of the 20th century, he is remembered for his realistic scenes of modern urban life. He often painted buildings such as movie theaters, offices, and his most famous work, Nighthawks, centers around a diner. For ten points, name this artist.

Ans: Edward Hopper

13. This album stayed on the pop charts longer than any other at 570 weeks. For ten points, name this Pink Floyd album.

Ans: Dark Side of the Moon

14. Red Harvest, The Dain Curse, and The Glass Key are lesser known thrillers by what author of The Thin Man and The Maltese Falcon?

Ans: Dashiell Hammett

15. These men were convicted of robbery and murder for a payroll holdup in South Braintree, Massachusetts. Both men were Italian immigrants, radicals, and draft dodgers. For ten points, name these two men who were executed in 1927, but vindicated by Gov. Dukakis in 1977.

Ans: Sacco and Vanzetti

16. Clyde Lovellette, B.H. Born, Wilt Chamberlain, Danny Manning, and Kevin Pritchford for ten points have all played for what school's basketball teams?

Ans: University of Kansas

17. This cult 60s show starred Patrick McGoohan as Number Six and took place in a town known only as The Village. For 10 points, name it.

Ans: The Prisoner

18. This man © an ecclesiastic, writer, soldier, spy, and diplomat © worked at the end of his life as a librarian. However, he is remembered today for his love conquests and their description in his autobiography entitled Story of My Life. For ten points, name this 18th century lover

Ans: Giovanni Casanova

19. This 53-year old film director, writer, and producer born in Detroit, MI, is known for such films as The Conversation, Apocalypse Now, Dracula, and The Godfather Parts 1, 2, and 3. For 10 points, name him.

Ans: Francis Ford Coppola

20. The product of Babylonian and Assyrian society, Gilgamesh is an epic detailing the trials of Gilgamesh in his attempts to locate and bring back to life a dead friend. For ten points, name this friend for whom Gilgamesh risks life and limb.

Ans: Enkidu