

1. He ended his playing days in 1973 with the New York Mets, but his greatest years were with the New York and San Francisco Giants. He holds third place on the all-time home run list. For ten points, name this National League slugger.

WILLIE MAYS

2. In forty-nine states, the legislature is bicameral just like the federal legislature. But for a quick 10 points, what state has a unicameral legislature which allows for greater efficiency but fewer checks on lawmaking power?

NEBRASKA

3. This city was the capital of the Philippines from 1948 to 1976, when it was replaced by Manila, to which it is adjacent. For 10 points, give the two-word name for the second largest Philippine city.

QUEZON CITY

4. His moralistic plays sought to teach improvement through exaggerating the foibles of his characters. For 10 points, name this contemporary of Shakespeare who wrote Volpone and Bartholomea Fair.

BEN JOHNSON

5. Name the Frenchman who is recognized as the father of the Modern Olympics.

BARON PIERRE de COUBERTIN

6. This Pennsylvania native was one of the chief architects of the legislation creating the Central Intelligence Agency and served as its director from 1966 to 1973. From '73 to '77 he was ambassador to Iran. For 10 points, name this man who was later charged with failing to testify truthfully to a Senate committee about CIA operations in Chile.

RICHARD HELMS

7. Name the Allied leader known as "the Tiger" who opposed Woodrow Wilson at the signing of the Treaty of Versailles believing it did not adequately protect France.

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU

8. In 1924, Samuel Barber won this award for his opera, Vanessa, and 5 years later won it again for his Piano Concerto No. 1. What is the Prize?

PULITZER PRIZE IN MUSIC

9. Formerly the Netherlands East Indies, this nation began its war for independence in 1945, as its freedom was proclaimed by Sukarno and Hatta, a pair of nationalist leaders. After overcoming British, Indian, and Dutch intervention, independence was won December 27, 1949, and the capital was established at Djakarta.

INDONESIA

10. I have $23.00 and a recipe that calls for 2 pounds of lamb and 1 lb. of beef to serve 5 people. If lamb costs $3 a pound and beef costs $1.50 a pound. For 10 points, how many people can fully be served?

15

11. A 1992 report caused a furor in the scientific community about the nature of matter when a mathematical calculation of the mass of this particle turned up negative. What is the name for these particles emitted from the sun, so tiny that they pass through the earth and come out the other side.

NEUTRINOS

12. This 20th century French artist invented the so-called "ready-made." These included a urinal entitled "Fountain" and a photograph of the Mona Lisa with a moustache and goatee added. For 10 points, who is this painter of "Nude Descending a Staircase, No. 2"?

MARCEL DUCHAMP

13. The scientific value of this seven volume work was denounced as "a pretense, adopted for the purpose of selling a filthy publication." For 10 points, what is the title of this Havelock Ellis work, until 1935 available legally in the US only to doctors?

STUDIES IN THE PSYCHOLOGY OF SEX

14. Founded in 1947 by three directors including Elia Kazan, it became identified with its later director, Lee Strasberg. A training ground for new actors, it is one of the leading centers for the Stanislavsky method of acting. For 10 points, name this dramatic workshop.

ACTORS STUDIO

15. He was the perfect collaborator-patient, intelligent, articulate, enthusiastic, and rich. As the son of a wealthy textile manufacturer, he profited from the capitalistic system he critiqued. For 10 points, name this co-author of The Communist Manifesto.

FRIEDRICH ENGELS

16. When his son was captured during World War II, he rejected German offers of prisoner exchange, thus allowing his son to die in a prison camp. It was this type of personal force and cruelty he demonstrated throughout the war as leader and dictator of the Soviet Union. For 10 points, name him.

JOSEF STALIN

17. When the French silkworm industry faced possible devastation from disease, he discovered and helped eliminate a tiny parasite that attacked silkworms. This was just one of the many practical contributions from this scientist who also helped find cures for rabies and anthrax. For 10 points, name this scientist.

LOUIS PASTEUR

18. "The heart wants what it wants. There's no logic to these things. You meet someone and you fall in love and that's that." So said-for 10 points-what filmmaker in describing his relationship with the adopted daughter of his longtime companion, Mia Farrow, in a Time magazine interview last year?
WOODY ALLEN

19. Manon Rheaume became the first woman to play in a major-league team sport. She did it in a preseason game in the National Hockey League while playing goalie-for 10 points-for what team?

TAMPA BAY LIGHTNING (MUST GIVE FULL NAME)

20. It had an advance ticket sale of $3.4 million and mixed reviews had no effect at the box office. It was directed by Mike Nichols and starred Glenn Close, Gene Hackman, and Richard Dreyfuss. For 10 points, name this recent Broadway play by Chilean writer Ariel Dorfman.

DEATH AND THE MAIDEN