

1. Since 1940, eleven libraries have been established as the official repositories for the documents of each presidential administration. This president's library attracted the most visitors in 1991, more than 300,000, to its Austin, Texas site. For 10 points, name this president.

(Lyndon Baines Johnson)

2. A type of photograph produced on a silver or copper plate is known as the word you will have to spell to answer this question. For 10 points, spell daguerreotype.

(D-A-G-U-E-R-R-E-O-T-Y-P-E)

3. The Hungarian composer Zoltan Kodaly was strongly influenced by which composer who wrote "Golliwog's Cakewalk" and "The Sunken Cathedral"?

(Claude Debussy)

4. The standoff at the Branch Davidians' compound in Waco, Texas has been in the news lately. For 10 points, name the cult leader who has led the standoff from within his compound.

(David Koresh)

5. Whose law of gases states that the total pressure of a mixture of gases is equal to the sum of the partial pressures of the individual gases. He is also credited with formulating the first atomic theory.

(Dalton[Dalton's Law])

6. Alec Guinness and William Holden co-starred in what 1957 Academy Award winning picture that left audiences whistling?

(Bridge Over the River Kwai)

7. He was the commander of German troops during WWI and president of the Weimar Republic from 1925-1934 and he shares his name with an ill-fated airship that exploded at Lakehurst, NJ. For ten points, name him.

(Paul von Hindenburg)

8. His story is told in an epic poem of the 13th century and a Wagner opera of the 19th century. He was the son of Parzifal and rescuer of Elsa. For 10 points, name this knight of the Holy Grail.

(Lohengrin)

9. In 325 AD Constantine called the First Ecumenical Council which was attended by 318 bishops. Name the Bithynian town at which this group met and wrote a creed of their beliefs.

(Nicea)

10. These birds have dumpy bodies, short legs set far back, small wings, and a large, brilliantly colored bill adapted for carrying several fish at once. In spite of their clumsiness on land, they are expert swimmers. What is this migratory bird of the auk family?

(puffin)

11.The Women's liberation movement still has a long way to go to ensure the equality of the sexes. But in which musical, made into a 1950 movie, did the title character proclaim "Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better" to the leading man?

(Annie, Get Your Gun)

12.Which actor has a tattoo on his right wrist proclaiming "Scotland Forever"?

(Sean Connery)

13.The first work of fiction to be blessed by a pope was an 1880 novel, a tale of early Christianity which was one of the best sellers of the 19th century, but is now more widely known in a movie version. For 10 points, name this book by Lew Wallace.

(Ben-Hur)

14.For a quick 10 points, how many feet are in a furlong?
(220 yards or 660 feet)

15.Today this religion has 250,00 believers, most of them Parsis living in India. In the 3rd century, however, it was the state religion of Persia. For 10 points, name this religion founded in the 6th century BC.

(Zoroastrianism)

16."Some men are born mediocre, some men achieve mediocrity, and some men have mediocrity thrust upon them." From what Joseph Heller novel is this taken?

(Catch-22)

17.Flute, Snout, Quince, Snug, Starveling, Hermia, Helena, Demetrius, Titania, Oberon, Hippolyta, Theseus, Bottom, and Puck. What Shakespeare play set in the woods of Athens features all these characters?

(Midsummer Night's Dream)

18.This branch of mathematics concerns itself with such problems as the Klein bottle and Mobius strips. In it, a cup and a doughnut are considered equivalent. Name it.

(Topology)

19.For 10 points, name this city, famous for its Rijksmuseum, where Anne Frank and her family were hidden for almost three years during WWII.

(Amsterdam)

20. Jasper National Park is located in the Canadian province between British Columbia and Saskatchewan. Name this province whose capital is Edmonton.
(Alberta)