

3/5/98

6-19-98

ROUND 10

University of Michigan--Jebediah Springfield

.....

1. This bell used to be rung at Lloyd's of London to announce the loss of a ship or other costly disaster to the underwriters. FTP, name the bell named for the ship which once transported it, a ship which sank while transporting a large bullion cargo in 1799.

A. Lutine Bell

2. While waiting for Jeopardy!™ to come on, you indulged your Vanna White fetish, and sat around and watched the Wheel of Fortune spinning round and round. Being the good physics student that you all are, you realized FTP that the angular momentum of a wheel, spinning clockwise in an x-y plane parallel to the ground, is in what direction?

A. Up (Accept: Positive in the Z-direction OR Away from the ground)

3. A guy designs record covers, but opens a roller disco when inspired by a Greek muse in the form of Olivia Newton John. FTP, name this notoriously bad 1980 movie which featured Gene Kelly on roller skates and took its title from a poem by Coleridge.

A. Xanadu

4. She knows what Q will be, but hasn't gotten around to naming her next work-in-progress: M. FTP, name this mystery author whose works featuring Kinsey Millhone include A is for Ailibi and L is for Lawless.

A. Sue Grafton

6. This place was the site of cultic sacrifices of children of Baal by fire and later considered to be an entrance to the underworld. FTP, name this place whose name in Mark 9:43 is metaphorically used for where the wicked would be tormented after death.

A. Gehenna (guh hen na)

7. This 19th century novel revolved around the lives of two families living in the moors of England. FTP, name this novel which features the Earnshaws and the Lintons and the love story of Catherine and Heathcliff

A. Wuthering Heights

8. Sphenoid, Lacrimal, Vomer, Palatine, and Zygomatic are, of course, all bones. They have one thing in common, as realtors would say: location, location, location. FTP, name the larger structure they comprise, the body part that holds onto our brains while we participate in academic competitions.

A. Skull

9. This man, the most powerful of the West Sussex kings of England, was known both for his military prowess and his love of learning. FTP, name this ruler who pushed for the translation of books from Latin to English during his reign.

A. Alfred the Great

10. People generally consider chromosomes to be made of DNA. However, in eukaryotic cells, parts of the DNA chain are wrapped around five different protein molecules. FTP, what is the overall name given to these proteins, designated H1, H2A, H2B, H3, and H4?

A. histones

11. The leading developer of current sociolinguistic methodology, FTP who researched the dropping of the letter "R" in some New York City dialects by studying the language of workers in several NYC department stores?

A. William Labov

12. This hell raiser is placing his focus on the waged working class, while attacking immigrants and those on welfare. FTP, name this native of Washington D.C. and recent cover boy for Time magazine.

A. Patrick Buchanan

13. This golfer was the first to hit a golf ball off the second level of the Eiffel Tower, not bad considering he is American. FTP, name this golfer, who was the first to earn over $1 million dollars while playing professionally.

A. Arnold Palmer

14. The introduction of printing to England helped lead to the linguistic shift towards modern English in the British Isles. FTP, name man who introduced printing to England.

A. William Caxton

15. The golfer who won the '87 U.S. open, a Desert in Australia, a rule of mathematics, and the Duchess of Windsor's ex-husband all have a name in common. FTP, give the surname, also shared with Bartholomew J., Abraham, and Orenthal James.

A. Simpson

16. This novelist wrote historical novels such as "Cry to Heaven" and "The Feast of All Saints". FTP name this contemporary female novelist better known for more gruesome novels including The Vampire Chronicles.

A. Anne Rice

17. Its pale hero reminds me way too much of Michael Jackson. It recently been under fire, because its director, Victor Silva, was once convicted of molesting a child actor. FTP, name the Disney movie starring Sean Patrick Flannery.

A. Powder

18. Critics argue that this Confederate veteran, a former accountant and local color writer, produced nothing noteworthy after moving to Northampton, Massachusetts in 1885. While touring with Mark Twain, , this author of "A Freedman's Case in Equity" used th exotic Creole patois (pat-wah) and sang to spice up readings of his most famous novel, "The Grandissimes". FTP, name this author.

A. George Washington Cable

19. The largest and most important of its island group, it has its highest point at one of its extinct volcanoes, Suribachiyama. FTP, name this island, also the site of an important WWII battle that was forever recorded by one of the most famous monuments in America.

A. Iwo Jima

20. It was too bad she was already dead, as she probably would have enjoyed winning the Nobel Prize. FTP, it was what woman chemist's crystallographs that helped Watson and Crick discover the structure of DNA. .

A. Rosalind Franklin

21. This poet was born in Georgia in 1894 and was regarded as the leader of the Futurist school. FTP, name this propaganda mouthpiece of the Bolsheviks during the Russian revolution who committed suicide in 1930.

A. Vladimir Mayakovsky

22. Anyone who watches MTV or VH1 lately has seen Mariah Carey's "Fantasy" video. If you are like Brett though, you might have thought that the setting for the video looked familiar. FTP, name the movie, a Tom Hanks hit, that was partially filmed at the same amusement park as Carey's video.

A. "Big"

23. This author was a WWI correspondent and wrote several books of light verse, including "The Animals Noah Forgot". FTP, name the man best known for writing "Waltzing Matilda".

A. Andrew Barton Peterson

24. Its first recorded use in religion was around 500 and it is often a symbol of prayer.

Your room mate may use it secularly, to hide the smell of certain illicit smoking materials. FTP, name this mixture, very popular today, that gives off a fragrant odor when burnt.

A. Incense

25. In Greek mythology, these minor deities were associated with Dionysus, and were usually depicted with goat-like ears, tail, and legs. FTP name these deities, said to be the brothers of the nymphs.

A. Satyr(s)

26. It has been New York, a variety of fashion designers, and, in a bizarre recent ad, Marilyn Monroe. According to its trade-mark bottle, it has been produced at the famous distilleries near Åhus in accordance with more than 400 years of Swedish tradition". FTP, name this yummy expensive vodka popular on college campuses nationwide.

A. Absolut

27. Born in 1809 at Somersby, Lincolnshire, this man published his first poetry in 1830, but it was not very well received. His major poetic achievement was an elegy mourning the death of his friend, Arthur Hallam. FTP, name this man, the author of "In Memoriam", "Maud, a Monodrama", and "Idylls of the King".

A. Alfred "Lord" Tennyson

28. In a private-ownership competitive economy, a Pareto efficient allocation of the economy's scarce resources is created by the free-trading in the economy's markets. FTP, name this important theory of economics, often used to argue against government interference.

A. First Fundamental Theorem of Welfare Economics

29. This town was the scene of a dramatic rescue by Israeli forces of passengers whose plane had been hijacked by a group of Palestinian terrorists. FTP, name this city, formerly the capital of Uganda.

A. Entebbe (en te bay)

6/15/96

ROUND 10

University of Michigan--Jebediah Springfield

30 POINT BONUS

1. 30-20-10 The U.S. Supreme Court case

30- According to the original plan, Albion Tourgee and James Walker were to defend Daniel F. Desdunes; however Desdunes' case never made it to the Supreme Court level, and Tourgee and Walker tried with another defendant.

20- Justice Henry Billings Brown presented the court's opinion in this 7-1 decision against the Tourgee and Walker's client. Their client eventually paid a $25 fine in a Louisiana district court.

10- Justice John Marshall Harlan provided the now-famous dissent, in which he claimed the U.S. Constitution to be "color-blind". Writing this in April of 1896, Harlan was ahead of his time.

A.- Plessy v. Ferguson

20 POINT BONUS

2. This British pair, though they supposedly hated each other, collaborated on fourteen operas from 1871-1896. For five points each, who are these famous musical collaborators.

A.- William Shwenk Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan

For another ten points, name the operetta written by this duo in 1880 that dealt with the love between Mabel and a former indentured servant.

A.- Pirates of Penzance

30 POINT BONUS

3. Many famous names came out of the American Civil War, but not everyone can name the players in each battle of the war. For the given number of points, name both the Union and Confederate generals at each of the battles given.

a) For 5 points each, Antietam

A.- Union- George McClellan

Confederate- Robert E. Lee

b) For 10 points each, The Battle of Brandy Station

A.- Union- Alfred Pleasanton

Confederate- Jeb Stuart

30 POINT BONUS

4. 30-20-10 name the poet.

30) Some of his lesser known works include "Hell's Gate", "New Year's Eve", and the collections: "Last Poems", "More Poems", and "Additional Poems".

20) This poet left the familiar sights of Teme, Clee, and Severn Shore for the streets of London when he was still a young man. The distance from the land he grew up in is a recurring theme in his poetry.

10) He is best known for his piece, "To an Athlete Dying Young"

A.- A.E. Housman

30 POINT BONUS

5. The Smithsonian Museums include The National Postal Museum, The National Portrait Gallery, The National Zoo, and the National Air and Space Museum. The U.S. has five other "National Museums". For five points apiece and a five point bonus for all correct, name these five museums.

A.- National Museum of African Art
National Museum of American Art
National Museum of American History
National Museum of the American Indian
National Museum of Natural History

25 POINT BONUS

6. It's ESPN's "NFL Primetime" bonus time. Chris Berman and his crew have come up with some creative nicknames for the stars of the NFL. For five points each, given the nickname, provide the player it refers to.

a) Bananas

A.- Barry "Bananas" Foster

b) Bad Moon

A.- Andre "Bad Moon" Rison

c) Sam I Am

A.- Sam "I am" Wyche

d) Eat, Drink, and Be

A.- Eddie "Eat, Drink, and Be" Murray

e) I Got You Babe

A.- Steve "I Got You Babe" Bono

30 POINT BONUS

7. Answer these questions about comets, 10 points each.

a) The center of a head of a comet, a small bright area made of ice and frozen gases suspended around particles of heavier substances.

A: Nucleus

b) The gaseous area around the nucleus, made of a nebulous envelope of luminous gases.

A: Coma

c) Twentieth Century Dutch astronomer who claimed that the universe was surrounded by a shell of more than 100 billion comets which circled slowly around the universe at a distance of about 13 billion miles.

A: Jan Hendrik Oort

30 POINT BONUS

8. Landmarks are all over the United States. Given the description of a southern landmark, name it FTP each.

a) This area, about one square mile in size, has been preserved over the years by strict legal ordinances. FTP, name this area bounded by Decatur Street, North Rampart, Esplanade, and the Canal.

A.- French Quarter (accept Vieux Carre or Old Square)

b) This rises 630 feet above the city's riverfront development district and is often thought of as one of the 3 most familiar landmarks in an American city. FTP, name this landmark that commemorates the march westward in American history.

A.- St. Louis Arch (accept: Gateway Arch, or Jefferson National Expansion Memorial)

c) This is where Billy the Kid killed his first man. FTP, name this home of New Mexico Western University.

A.- Silver City

30 POINT BONUS

9. L.M. Montgomery was known for her numerous novels set on Prince Edward Island in Canada, especially those relating to a carrot-topped Anne Shirley. For the given number of points, try to answer the following questions about the "Anne" books.

a) FTP, name the boy who gives Anne the nickname "Carrots" and who eventually marries her.

A.- Gilbert Blythe

b) The CBC film production of Anne of Green Gables starred Megan Follows in the title role. For ten points each, name the two members of the Kids in the Hall who acted in the second part of the series, one as Diana Berry's husband, and the other as a dancing partner of Anne's.

A. Bruce McCullough, and Dave Foley

30 POINT BONUS

10. Name the State 30-20-10.

30) It is the home to many caverns, like Bridal Cave and Stark Caverns, and is also home to the Bagnell Dam.

20) It is also the home to Meramec caverns, which is where Jesse James had his hideout in the 1870's.

10) The Bagnell Dam was finished in 1931 and formed one of the largest man-made lakes in America, the Lake of the Ozarks.

A.- Missouri

25 POINT BONUS

11. Periodic Trends. For each of these characteristics, tell whether the trend goes "Up" or "Down" as you move across the periodic table from left to right for five points each.

a) Effective nuclear charge

A.- Up

b) Electronegativity

A.- Up

c) atomic radius

A.- down

Now name the trends, again for five points each, as you move from top to bottom in a group.

a) Ionization energy

A.- down

b) Electron affinity

A.- Down

30 POINT BONUS

12. It was 42 years ago this year that Sir Edmund Hilary and Tenzing Norgay first climbed to the summit of Mt. Everest. FTP each, answer the following questions about the world's highest mountain.

a) Name the first American to make it to the summit.

A.- Jim Whittaker

b) Name his guide.

A.- Sherpa Nawang Gombu

c) within five years, name the year that Whittaker and Gombu first made it to the top.

A.- 1963

30 POINT BONUS

13. Major League Baseball's Rookie of the Year race has been fueled by different ideas on who should win each league's award. For the given number of points, name the top candidates in each race.

a) This American Leaguer was the league's hottest player throughout July and August and is said to have the most long term potential of any of the candidates. FTP, name this California Angel outfielder.

A.- Garret Anderson

b) FTP, this National Leaguer drew controversy in whether or not he should win the award because he traveled last year with his Atlanta Braves, even though he spent the entire year on the disabled list.

A.- Chipper Jones

c) You have now answered the two runner-ups, now for an easy five points apiece, name the two winners, one a Dodger and the other a Twin.

A.- Hideo Nomo and Marty Cordova

30 POINT BONUS

14. Metallica. That one word epitomizes heavy metal for the 1980's. For ten points apiece, given the description of the current or former member of the band, name him.

a) He was the original lead guitarist, who left the band in the early days to form his own band, Megadeth.

A.- Dave Mustaine

b) He was the bassist who toured and recorded with the band for their first two and a half tours. Tragically he was killed in a bus accident in Europe in September of 1986.

A.- Cliff Burton

c) This was the man who replaced Burton, a Niles, Michigan native who joined the band in 1987 and is often referred to as "Newkid"

A.- Jason Newsted

30 POINT BONUS

15. For five points each, give the letter commonly given for these physical constants:

a) Planck's constant

A.- h

b) Gravitational constant

A.- g

c) Velocity of light

A.- c

d) Rydberg constant

A.- R

e) Gas constant

A.- R

f) Boltzmann constant

A.- k

30 POINT BONUS

16. One of Shakespeare's more famous plays in Othello, the story of the jealous and misled Moor. For five points each, name the following characters.

a) Othello's wife who dies because of his jealousy

A.- Desdemona

b) Othello's right-hand man who ends up betraying him by making him believe that Desdemona is cheating on him.

A.- Iago

c) Now FTP each, name the two locations in which the play takes place.

A.- Venice and Cyprus

30 POINT BONUS

17. This should be a fairly easy bonus, since there are only five possible answers. Given a battle from the Civil War, you give me the year that it was started, FTP each.

a) Murfreesboro

A.- 1862

- b) Five Forks
A.- 1865
- c) Second Battle of Bull Run
A.- 1862

Twenty-five

18. Brett wanted to call a psychic hotline, but he needed to figure out what his sign was. Hopefully, you will know what sign is associated with these days for 5 points each.

- a) Christmas
A.- Capricorn
- b) Memorial Day
A.- Gemini
- c) Fourth of July
A.- Cancer
- d) Valentine's Day
A.- Aquarius
- e) Halloween
A.- Scorpio

Thirty

19. Egyptian mythology trivia time! For ten points apiece, name the God or Goddess by the given description.

- a) He was the God of the underworld, the son of Geb and Nut.
A.- Osiris
- b) She was the Goddess of love and mirth, represented with a cow head.
A.- Hathor (accept: Athor)
- c) When her husband was dismembered, she searched the world for his penis so she could procreate with it.
A.- Isis

Twenty-five

20) Answer these questions about horses for 5 points each.

- a) Caligula's favorite horse who was reportedly named a consul.
A: Incitatus
- b) The thoroughbred and Kentucky Derby Winner who will reportedly be retired after fracturing a bone in his left foreleg late in September.
A: Thunder Gulch
- c) Finally, for 5 points each, name the three horses sung about in the "Fugue for Tinhorns" in the Broadway musical "Guys and Dolls."
A: Valentine, Epitaph, Paul Revere

Thirty

21. 30-20-10 the singer

30) She was born in Nova Scotia in 1968 and studied classical guitar, piano, and voice at an early age.

20) She was discovered at age 17 by Nettwerk records during her very first performance with a new band.

10) Her latest album "Fumbling Towards Ecstasy" has led to a CD-Rom entitled "Freedom Sessions" that has versions of some of her more famous songs.

A.- Sarah McLachlan

thirty

22) Given the agricultural commodity, give the U.S. state that leads its production for the stated number of points.

For 5:

a) Corn, in bushels

A: Iowa

b) Potatoes, in weight

A: Idaho

For 10:

c) Cotton, in bales

A: Texas

d) Wheat, in bushels

A: Kansas

thirty

23) 30-20-10 Name the American author.

30: Born in Colon, Panama, among his teenage jobs in Ohio were newsboy, painter, farmhand and racetrack helper.

20: His first two novels were Windy McPherson's Son (1916) and Marching Men (1917).

10: His most famous work is Winesburg, Ohio, The Triumph of the Egg.

A: Sherwood Anderson

Twenty-five

24) New York City is attached to New Jersey by four bridges or above-ground crossings. First, for 5 points each, name them.

A: George Washington; Bayonne; Goethals Bridges; Outerbridge Crossing.

Three of the four bridges are attached to the same borough of New York City. For another 5 points, which one?

A: Staten Island

thirty

25) During the 11th century, there was an emergence of a literature in the French language that took the form of many epic poems that told of heroic deeds of Charlemagne's army. For 15 points, give the French name for this type of literature.

A.- Chanson de Geste

For 15 more points, give the French name of the masterpiece of this form of literature, telling the story of the death of Charlemagne's nephew.

A.- Chanson de Roland (accept Song of Roland)

20 POINT BONUS

26) In mythology, they were Babylonian lovers. According to legend, they arrived at their trysting place, and upon seeing a lion, she dropped her mantle. When he appeared, he found only the bloodied garment, and thinking she was dead, killed himself. When she returned, she found him dead, and of course, killed herself as well. As a result, the white mulberry tree which stood on the spot, turned forever red. FTP each, name these two mythical lovers.

A: Pyramus and Thisbe