

11/20/97
6/19/96

Round 1

University of Michigan Kent Brockman--TOSS-UPS

1) The hunger strike and the candlelight vigil weren't necessary. Only a telephone poll conducted with a toll-free number, with the results 15,821 in favor against 1,492 opposed, was enough to convince Bayer to add--for 10 points--what long-omitted character from Flintstones vitamins, much to the delight of Barney?

Answer: Betty Rubble

2) It translates into "puma rock" from Quechua (KEH-choo-uh), and at 12,500 feet above sea-level, is the world's highest navigable lake. For 10 points, name this 3,200 foot lake, found on the Altiplano, and also the largest lake in South America.

Answer: Lake Titicaca

3) Discovered by Andres del Rio, it never appears in pure form, and instead occurs in such ores as roscoelite and carnotite. For 10 points, name this chemical element, named for a scandinavian goddess, with atomic number 23, and symbol V.

Answer: Vanadium (prompt on "V" if early)

4) Despite being born in Italy and a citizen of the United States, this painter nonetheless kept a studio in England, where he stayed for more than 30 years. FTP, name this painter of such portraits as Isabella Stewart Gardner, as well as that of Madame Gautreau, better known as Madame X.

Answer: John Singer Sargeant

5) He attended Southwest Missouri State University--the fact that he went to an American college suggesting that he did poorly in his homeland--and took five years to earn a degree in psychology, though--FTP--what 1995 figure is better known for some 30,000 unauthorized trades, leading to a $1.1 billion loss for Daiwa

Answer: Toshihide Iguchi

6) His roommate is Stradlater, his history teacher at the Pencey Prep School for Boys is Mr. Spencer, his sister is Phoebe, and his girlfriend is Sally Hayes. For 10 points, name this fictional character, the protagonist of The Catcher in the Rye.

Answer: Holden Caufield

7) His grandfather Tom was the on the first card when the Boston Garden opened, and he defeated Mike Sam in the second round in October 1995 in the first fight held in Boston's Fleet Center. For 10 points, name this boxer, better known for a 1995 controversial loss in the comeback of Mike

Tyson

15) Olga Ivinskaya, also known as Lara, carried this writer's child, and Olga was sentenced to 5 years in prison as a ploy to force him to surrender his writings critical of the Soviet Union. Olga also served as the literary inspiration—FTP—for what 1958 Nobel winner in literature, and writer of Doctor Zhivago?

Answer: Boris Pasternak

16) This city is home to the cave of Machpela, the legendary burial site of Abraham. King David's first capital was also here, and it remained so for 7 years. FTP, name this Middle East city, occupied by Israel since 1967, notorious as the site of a 1929 massacre as well as a more recent shooting spree by Baruch Goldstein.

Answer: Hebron

17) The Salutatorian of her Southwick High graduating class, she scored a Massachusetts high school career record 2,710 points, the most of any male or female basketball player. FTP, what noted forward continued her winning ways in college by helping win the 1995 NCAA Women's Championship in basketball for Connecticut.

Answer: Rebecca Lobo

18) Begun in 1873, this company is headquartered on the banks of the Lehigh river and has Charles M. Schwab as a former president. FTP, name this steel manufacturer in Pennsylvania, also the name of the birthplace of Jesus Christ.

Answer: Bethlehem Steel

19) Duke, Yale, and Princeton-Law professor Raphael Lemkin lost 49 family members in the Holocaust. Lemkin took a Greek root and a Latin and coined—FTP—what word describing the destruction of a national or ethnic group?

Answer: Genocide

20) Thanks to laser technology, this Owensboro, Kentucky-born actor now has a tattoo which reads "Wino forever," which formerly read "Winona forever"—a reference to the woman to whom he was once engaged: Winona Ryder. FTP, name this star of Ed Wood and Edward Scissorhands.

Answer: Johnny Depp

21) In 1994, the London Daily Telegraph reported that the last of 5 pranksters confessed before dying that what Lachlan Stewart and Tim Dinsdale claimed to have photographed was merely a toy submarine with a makeshift head and neck. For 10 points, name this monster of legend, named for a body of water in Scotland.

Answer: Loch Ness Monster or Nessie

22) The grandson of the famous potter, Wedgwood, he got a letter from Reverend

John Stevens telling him of an offer to supplement his education at Cambridge. For 10 points, name this scientist who took a five-year voyage aboard the HMS Beagle.

Charles Darwin

23) He assisted Sir Flinders Petrie at an excavation at Tell el-Amarna, and he discovered the remains of Thutmose IV and Queen Hatshepsut. For 10 points, name this archaeologist, who, in Luxor, with George Herbert, in 1922, discovered the tomb of King Tutankhamen.

Answer: Howard Carter

24) This Southern Cal grad, at age 23, won Boston's Koussevitzky Prize, and served for four years as the principle guest conductor of the Los Angeles Philharmonic. For 10 points, name this former conductor of the Buffalo Philharmonic, appointed in 1995 to conduct the San Francisco symphony.

Answer: Michael Tilson Thomas

25) Its first female prime minister, Tansu Ciller, resigned in 1995, having been deserted by the True Path party. Also, Ciller may need to form a new government on the orders of President Suleyman Demirel. Such are the events in—for 10 points—what country, whose capital is Ankara?

Answer: Turkey

26) In March 1995, he accepted the David Cohen British literature prize for lifetime achievement, even though his 1995 play Moonlight is his first full play since 1978. For 10 points, name this playwright of No Man's Land, Old Times, The Hot House, and The Birthday Party.

Answer: Harold Pinter

27) On October 17, 1978, President Jimmy Carter signed a bill restoring full citizenship to this man, who served as Mississippi senator from 1845-1851 and again from 1857-1861. For 10 points, name this secretary of war from 1853-1857, who served from 1861 to 1865 as president of the Confederacy.

Answer: Jefferson Davis

28) Schwassman Wachmann, Machholz, Hartley 2, Encke, Schaumasse, and Cronmmelin, are names of—for 10 points—what astronomical entities, whose names also include Tuttle, Kouhoutek, and Halley?

Answer: Comets

29) Nathuran Godse killed him on January 30, 1948, while he carried forth efforts—based on his philosophy of satyagraha—to quell Hindu/Muslim outbreaks of violence. For 10 points, name this exponent of passive resistance, called the father of independent

India.

Answer: Mohandas Gandhi also accept "Mahatma" Gandhi

Round 1

Michigan Kent Brockman--Boni

TWENTY-FIVE POINT BONUS

1) In German it is Eine Nacht auf dem Kahlen Berge, while in French it is Une Nuit sur le mont Chauvre. In English, it can be translated as Night on the Bare Mountain, though it is commonly known as Night on Bald Mountain.

A. For 10 points, name the composer of Night on Bare (or Bald) Mountain.

Answer: Modest Moussorgsky

B. Moussorgsky was one of the collection of composers known as the Mighty Five, or simply The Five. For five points each, name any three of the other four members.

Answer: Cesar Cui, Aleksandr Borodin, Nikolay Rimsky-Korsikov, Mily Balkriev

2) TWENTY POINT BONUS

Everybody loves acid-base indicators. Given a common acid-base indicator, tell what color it is in an acidic solution, for five points each.

a. Phenolphthalein (fee-nol-thay-lean)

ANSWER: colorless or clear

b. Bromothymol Blue

ANSWER: yellow

c. Methyl Yellow

ANSWER: red

d. Alizarin Yellow GC

ANSWER: colorless or clear

TWENTY POINT BONUS

3) Some major professional sports teams will do anything to reverse their losing ways, going so far as to retire a jersey number dedicated to the team's fans.

A. FIP, what Pacific division NBA team has a retired number 6 in devotion to the fans, basketball's so-called "sixth man"?

Answer: Sacramento Kings

B. For 10 more points, what AFC West team has a similar number retired, that of #12 in football?

Answer: Seahawks (Prompt on: Seattle)

TWENTY-FIVE POINT BONUS

4) Imagine a flag before you, comprising three vertical stripes colored--from left to right--blue, yellow, and red. This can be the flag--for 10 points for one, or 25 for both--what two countries, one in Europe, the other in Africa?

Round 1

Michigan Kent Brockman--Boni

TWENTY-FIVE POINT BONUS

1) In German it is Eine Nacht auf dem Kahlen Berge, while in French it is Une Nuit sur le mont Chauvre. In English, it can be translated as Night on the Bare Mountain, though it is commonly known as Night on Bald Mountain.

A. For 10 points, name the composer of Night on Bare (or Bald) Mountain.

Answer: Modest Moussorgsky

B. Moussorgsky was one of the collection of composers known as the Mighty Five, or simply The Five. For five points each, name any three of the other four members.

Answer: Cesar Cui, Aleksandr Borodin, Nikolay Rimsky-Korsikov, Mily Balkriev

2) TWENTY POINT BONUS

Everybody loves acid base indicators. Given a common acid-base indicator, tell what color it is in an acidic solution, for five points each.

a. Phenolphthalein (fee-nol-thay-lean)

ANSWER: colorless or clear

b. Bromothymol Blue

ANSWER: yellow

c. Methyl Yellow

ANSWER: red

d. Alizarin Yellow GG

ANSWER: colorless or clear

TWENTY POINT BONUS

3) Some major professional sports teams will do anything to reverse their losing ways, going so far as to retire a jersey number dedicated to the team's fans.

A. FTP, what Pacific division NBA team has a retired number 6 in devotion to the fans, basketball's so-called "sixth man"?

Answer: Sacramento Kings

B. For 10 more points, what AFC West team has a similar number retired, that of #12 in football?

Answer: Seahawks (Prompt on: Seattle)

TWENTY-FIVE POINT BONUS

4) Imagine a flag before you, comprising three vertical stripes colored--from left to right--blue, yellow, and red. This can be the flag--for 10 points for one, or 25 for both--what two countries, one in Europe, the other in Africa?

Answer: Chad, Romania

TWENTY POINT BONUS

Answer: Chad, Romania

TWENTY POINT BONUS

7) Photographers working for the Associate Press in the 1970's took some dramatic and historic pictures. For 10 points each:

A. Photographer John Filo is best known for a photo of Nick Ut, naked and running away from a burning grove, which was taken in what country?

Answer: Vietnam

B. Kim Phuc shot a famous photo of a screaming Mary Ann Vecchio, taken on what Ohio campus?

Answer: Kent State University

THIRTY POINT BONUS

6) With 26 letters, English is rather on the low end as far as the world's alphabets are concerned. For 15 points each:

A. Name the language with the most letters--74. It is the official language of the Asian country whose prime minister is Norodom Ranariddh.

Answer: Khmer or Cambodian

B. Rotokas is the language with the fewest letters--11. Rotokas is spoken in central Bougainville, and located in which country, whose head of state is Queen Elizabeth II, but whose governor general is Wiwa Korowi?

Answer: Papua New Guinea

TWENTY POINT BONUS

7) Democrat G.V. Sonny Montgomery announced in 1995 that he plans to retire from politics.

A. For 10 points, which state does Montgomery serve?

Answer: Mississippi

B. For 10 more points, Montgomery also served as the head of which committee, the same name as a cabinet position filled by Jesse Brown?

Answer: Veterans Affairs Committee

TWENTY-FIVE POINT BONUS

8) Boris, Sophie, and a pianist named Ryder are all characters in a 1995 book entitled The Unconsoled.

A. For 15 points, name the author.

Answer: Kazuo Ishiguro

B. Ishiguro wrote a 1989 book set in 1956, involving Stevens and Miss Kenton. For 10 points, name this book, made into a 1994 film starring Anthony Hopkins and Emma Thompson?

Answer: The Remains of the Day

TWENTY POINT BONUS

9) He is on trial in 1995 for being a real-life "godfather" to La Cosa Nostra, also known as the Sicilian Mafia. For 20 points, name this Christian Democrat, who was elected seven times as the Prime Minister of Italy.

Answer: Giulio Andreotti

~~30~~ POINT BONUS

10) Identify the pope, 30-20-10

- A. He succeeded Sixtus III, and reigned from 440 to 461 A.D.
- B. Nicknames of his include "high priest," "the greatest bridge builder," and Pontifex Maximus.
- C. As proof of his "lion-like" demeanor, he persuaded Attila not to attack Rome in 452.

Answer: Leo the First or Leo One or Leo the Great

THIRTY POINT BONUS

11) For 10 points each, five if you need the pronunciation, give the English spelling of the capitals of these countries.

~~A.~~ North Korea
pr.: Pee-yong-yang

Answer: P-Y-O-N-G-Y-A-N-G

B. Burkina Faso
pr.: OO-wog-a-doo-goo

Answer: O-U-A-G-A-D-O-U-G-O-U

~~C.~~ Iceland
pr.: Ray-kee-a-vick

Answer: R-E-Y-K-J-A-V-I-K

THIRTY POINT BONUS

~~12)~~ For 10 points each, name these sections of Newsweek magazine:

A. is an essay by a fre-lancer or non-professional writer on the topic of their choice?

Answer: My Turn

B. typically notes the major events of celebrity's lives, and serves as an obituary section?

Answer: Newsmakers

C. Is a one-page guide to the latest developments in computing and the internet

Answer: Cyberscope

THIRTY-POINT BONUS

~~13)~~ Identify this famous Chemist, 30-20-20

a. He helped develop a system of chemical nomenclature and defined an element as a simple, indivisible substance.

b. He held many public offices in his home country. As a result of this he was arrested and guillotined in 1794.

c. This French father of Chemistry gave oxygen its name and experimentally demonstrated the law of conservation of matter by burning substance in air.

ANS: Antoine Laurent Lavoisier (la - vuah - see - ay)

TWENTY POINT BONUS

14) Father Jean Baptiste Lamy was a missionary who worked in the Southwest United States.

A. For 10 points, name the 1927 novel which commemorates Lamy's efforts, which tells the story of Jean Latour and Joseph Vaillant in New Mexico.

Answer: Death Comes for the Archbishop

B. For 10 points more, who wrote Death Comes for the Archbishop?

Answer: Willa Cather

THIRTY POINT BONUS

15) The interior of the earth is by no means uniform. Indeed, the crust and mantle are separated by a certain discontinuity, while the mantle and the core are separated by a second discontinuity. For 15 points each, name these two geological discontinuities.

Answer: Moho or Mohorovic Discontinuity, Gutenberg Discontinuity

TWENTY POINT BONUS

16) Courteney Love never gets the credit sh deserves. Answer the following questions about Love FTPE.

a. Name her first album with her band, Hole

A. Doll Parts

b. Shortly before the birth of her daughter, a magazine published a badly-researched article claiming she used heroin even after learning of her pregnancy. name the magaizine.

A. Vanity Fair

c. Love acted in several B films, and nearly captured the lead in a major motion picture opposite Daniel Day Lewis. Name the film which contains Lewis's "viscious" rendering of the song "My Way"

A. Sid and Nancy

THIRTY POINT BONUS

17) Identify the play from quotes, 30-20-10.

A. "Whose horrid image doth unfix my hair/ And make my seated knock at my ribs?"

B. "I am in blood/ Stepped in so far that, should wade no more/"

C. "When shall we three meet again?/ ...when the hurry-burly's done/ when the battle's lost and won"

Answer: Macbeth

THIRTY POINT BONUS

18) Before the collapse of the Soviet bloc, Poland was bordered by just three countries. After the collapse, it shares borders with 7 countries. For 5 points each, name any 6 of the 7 countries which share a border with Poland as of November 1995.

Answer: Germany, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Ukraine, Belarus, Lithuania, Russia

THIRTY POINT BONUS

19) On March 23, 1989, a press conference was held to announce the discovery of cold fusion.

A. For 10 points, what university held this conference?

Answer: University of Utah

B. For 10 points each, name the scientists who were announced as the discoverers of cold fusion.

Answer: Martin Fleishmann, Stanley Pons

TWENTY POINT BONUS

20) Identify the celebrity authors of these 1995 books for five points each.

A. My point...and I do have one

Answer: Ellen Degneres

B. I'm only one man

Answer: Regis Philbin

C. Couplehood

Answer: Paul Reiser

D. Don't stand too close to a naked man

Answer: Tim Allen

TWENTY FIVE POINT BONUS

21) Some world representatives have gained notoriety in 1995 in helping to quell the strife in the former Yugoslavia.

A. For 10 points, name the U.S. State Department Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs, whose fame has skyrocketed in late 1995 for his work.

Answer: Richard Hollbrooke

B. For 15 points, name the French defense minister who in October 1995 brought in a load of flour, the first aid in five months to get in the former Yugoslavia via airplane.

Answer: Charles Millon

THIRTY POINT BONUS

22) The sequel to J.R.R. Tolkien's The Hobbit comprises three novels.

a. For 5 points each, name these three novels.

Answer: The Fellowship of the Ring, The Two Towers,
The Return of the King

- b. If you ever saw the Japanese cartoon film, the hobbit, you'll remember the spooky guy who provided the voice for Gandolf. FTP, name the actor, better known for directing the film The Dead

Answer: John Houston

TWENTY POINT BONUS

23) In 1971, Richard Nixon appointed two new justices to the Supreme Court to replace Hugo Black and John Harlan. For 10 points each, name:

- A. The justice who was the chair of the Richmond, Virginia, school board from 1952 to 1961, who served as the president of 3 legal organizations in 1960, and who also served on the Supreme court from 1971 to 1987.

Answer: Lewis F. Powell

- B. The Stanford graduate who was promoted by Ronald Reagan in 1986 to Chief Justice.

Answer: William Rehnquist

THIRTY POINT BONUS

24) For 15 points each, name the French scientist:

- A. Served as the director of math at the Berlin Academy of Sciences, and wrote the 1788 classic Mekanique Analytique?

Answer: Joseph LaGrange

- B. Along, with LaGrange, he helped verify the work of Newton in his 5-volume work Mekanique Celeste, as well as his Exposition du Systeme du Monde?

Answer: Joseph LaPlace

THIRTY POINT BONUS

In honor of this being the second to last bonus in this packet, FTPE, identify the cabinet position, given the second person who held the position and the year he was appointed.

- A. Edmund Randolph, 1794

Answer: State Department

- B. Robert C. Wood, 1969

Answer: HUD or Housing and Urban Development

- C. Jeremiah M. Rusk, 1889

Answer: Agriculture Dept.

TWENTY FIVE POINT BONUS

26) Also known as Santiago, this saint was the son of Zebedee and the brother of Saint John. For 25 points, name this Apostle, whose body was miraculously discovered at Galicia, and who is also the patron saint of Spain.

Answer: Saint James the Greater or James the Elder

THIRTY POINT BONUS

27) For 10 points each, name the company whose CEO:

- A. Jack Welch, helped secure RCA and NBC in a 1986 deal.

Answer: GE or General Electric

B. Sumner M. Redstone, helped secure the buyout of Paramount in 1994.

Answer: Viacom

C. Thomas P. Murphy, owned ABC before a 1995 buyout from Disney.

Answer: Capital Cities