

Tossups by Maryland A for 1995 Princeton

1. Mary Tyler Moore dominating Dick Van Dyke, and the casts of Friends and ER with multiple television sets all recently appeared in this magazine. FTP, name this monthly which once featured a naked and pregnant Demi Moore on the cover.

Answer: Vanity Fair

2. He trained at West Point and fought in both the Mexican War and the Civil War, holding the rank of General in the latter. In 1877, he was elected governor of New Jersey. For 10 points, name this man who forced General Lee to retreat at Antietam and who also ran for the presidency against Lincoln in 1864.

Answer: George McClellan

3. ATP, NADPH, CO₂, Ribulose Bisphosphate, Fructose, Glucose, and Sucrose are, for a quick 10 points, part of what cycle?

Answer: Calvin - Benson Cycle

4. The first winner of this race had a name very similar to that of a Haitian president. Some subsequent winners were named after Greco-Roman god, a Shakespearean king, a medieval Persian astronomer, and a town that had a great flood. For 10 points, identify this horse race, with more familiar winners Secretariat, Swale, and Ferdinand.

Answer: The KENTUCKY DERBY

5. This American author worked as a cotton picker and professional football player before writing his first short stories like "Country Full of Swedes." He collaborated with his wife Margaret Bourke-White on You Have Seen Their Faces and Call It Experience. FTP, who is this author, most famous for Tobacco Road and God's Little Acre?

Answer: Erskine Caldwell

6. Marty Cordova defeated Garrett Anderson for the 1995 AL Rookie of the year by six points. The last rookie of the year race that was this close was in 1982, when this National Leaguer defeated Pittsburgh's Johnny Ray by the same margin. For 10 points, who was this long time Los Angeles Dodgers' second baseman?

Answer: Steve SAX

7. He was the first composer of note that we have a surviving photograph, despite dying of tuberculosis in 1849. Nearly all of his works are for piano, which were greatly appreciated by Parisian aristocrats, especially by the writer George Sand, with whom he had an affair. For 10 points, identify this Polish composer of mazurkas, polonaises, and etudes.

Answer: Frederic CHOPIN

8. This practice forced the U.S. army to adopt the .45 as the standard military sidearm- smaller weapons couldn't cope with crazed Filipinos with machetes. For 10 points, what was the name for this suicidal charge of rebels opposed to U.S. rule in the Philippines, now meaning going on any berserk rampage.

Answer: Running AMOK

9. He claims that homosexual men find him irresistible- and that the most common pickup line he hears from them is "You have great thighs." He also claimed that he, and not Bill Clinton, is the perfect choice to link the baby boomers with Generation X, and, as proof, claims "Unlike other Republicans in Congress, I surf." FTP, name this former 1996 presidential candidate, nicknamed "B2-Bob" for his support of the defense industries of his home state of California.

Answer: Bob DORNAN

10. Parrot, waters, shop, ditto, land, mistress, hunter, hot, waiter, dead, red, pot, level, and strong are all words that form new words or phrases when prefixed or suffixed with this word, which has a slang meaning identical to the word it forms when preceded by "acid."

Answer: HEAD

11. This title in the Catholic Church is granted to the parish priests of Rome. Although they assembled twice in Rome in 1978, they tend to be in other cities, such as New York, Chicago, and Baltimore. For 10 points, what name is given to such men, who are responsible for selecting the Bishop of Rome?

Answer: CARDINALS

12. This country's landmarks used to include the "Bois de Pines," a line of trees planted to stop the advancing desert, but they were destroyed during the recent fifteen-year civil war. Syria intervened here in 1976 under an Arab League mandate to enforce a cease-fire; Israel intervened here unilaterally in 1982. For 10 points, identify this country where a suicide bombing killed 241 Marines in 1983.

Answer: LEBANON

Bonuses by Maryland A for 1995 Princeton

1. If you were first to the buzzer on that tossup, you deserve a gold medal. Instead, you get this. Identify the authors of the following "golden" works for 5 points each, with a 10 point bonus for all four.

1. The Golden Bough

Answer: Sir James George Frazer

2. Cup of Gold: A Life of Henry Morgan, Buccaneer, with Occasional References to History

Answer: John Steinbeck

3. The Man With the Golden Arm

Answer: Nelson Algren

4. "The Gold Bug"

Answer: Edgar Allan Poe

2. Identify these "A" terms from biology FTP each.

1. Any chromosome other than a sex chromosome.

Answer: Autosome

2. An extraembryonic membrane that forms a fluid-filled sac containing the embryo in reptiles, birds and mammals.

Answer: Amnion

3. A substance that activates an organism's immune system.

Answer: Antigen

3. Many people know about Michaelangelo and Leonardo da Vinci, but do you know these lesser known artists. For 5 points each with a 5 point bonus for all correct, given a work of art, supply the artist.

1. Nighthawks

Answer: Edward Hopper

2. Discobolus

Answer: Myron

3. The Temptation of St. Anthony

Answer: Hieronymous Bosch

4. Marriage of St. Catherine

Answer: Bartolome Murillo

5. The Swing

Answer: Jean-Honore Fragonard

4. Remember- College Bowl is only a game. So, let's have some game theory! Identify the following games from their game theoretical description for 15 points, or from another clue for five.

1. 15: In this game, the worst option is for both players to defect, the best option is to defect while your opponent cooperates. Mutual cooperation is the second-best option for both players.

5: The classic illustration of this game involves two cars speeding at each other- whichever turns first loses, but if nobody turns, both lose worse than they would have by not turning.

Answer: CHICKEN

2. 15: In this game, defecting while your opponent is cooperating is the best option, cooperating while your opponent defects is the worse. Mutual cooperation is to be preferred to multiple defection.

5: The classic illustration of this game involves two criminals with the option to rat on each other.

Answer: PRISONER'S DILEMMA

5. In a famous speech, President Franklin Roosevelt proposed the Four Freedoms. For 5 points each:

1. In what year did he do so?

Answer: 1941

2. Name the Four Freedoms.

Answer: Freedom of Speech and Expression; of Worship; from Want; from Fear

6. The Republican freshmen in Congress seem to be a pretty volatile lot. Given a Republican first-termer, identify their home state for 5 points each, with a 5 point bonus for all five.

1. Sue Myrick

Answer: NORTH CAROLINA

2. Helen Chenoweth

Answer: IDAHO

3. Steve Largent

Answer: OKLAHOMA

4. J.C. Watts

Answer: OKLAHOMA

5. George Nethercutt

Answer: WASHINGTON

7. Identify the following from Roman mythology for 10 points each.

a. They were the "household gods" in Roman homes.

Answer: LARES

b. They were the deified spirits of honored ancestors.

Answer: MANES

c. This nature goddess was brought to Rome from Asia Minor, not Greece, in response to a prophecy calling for a new deity to stop bad omens. She was personified by a giant black rock.

Answer: CYBELE

17. Now it is time for the usual currency bonus. For 5 points each, given a currency, supply the country.

- | | |
|------------|--------------------|
| 1. Cedi | Answer: Ghana |
| 2. Taka | Answer: Bangladesh |
| 3. Tugrik | Answer: Mongolia |
| 4. Sol | Answer: Peru |
| 5. Markka | Answer: Finland |
| 6. Bolivar | Answer: Venezuela |

18. 30-20-10, name the author from works.

- 30: "The Casuarina Tree" and The Constant Wife
20: Liza of Lambeth and Ashenden: or the British Agent
10: Cakes and Ale and The Razor's Edge
Answer: William Somerset Maugham

19. 30-20-10, identify the year.

- 30: Lord Palmerston and Leopold I King of Belgium, both die. Twain publishes The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County.
20: William Booth founds the Salvation Army. Lewis Carroll publishes Alice in Wonderland.
10: Lee surrenders at Appomattox. John Wilkes Booth shoots Abraham Lincoln.
Answer: 1865

20. Many movies in the past are known by various quotes like "Shit" from Star Trek Generations or "Smokin'!" in The Mask. For 15 points each, given a quote, name the movie.

1. "Let's put the woman and children to bed and go looking for fucking dinner."
Answer: The Program
2. "I'm here to chew bubblegum and kick ass and I'm fresh out of of bubblegum."
Answer: They Lived

21. 1995 saw a few off-year elections. For 10 points each, given a city, name the winner of its mayoral race.

- | | |
|-----------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Indianapolis | Answer: Steven GOLDSMITH |
| 2. Philadelphia | Answer: Ed RENDELL |
| 3. Cleveland | Answer: Michael WHITE |

22. Supply the name of the composers of these works off the CD "Heavy Classix" for 5 points each.

- | | |
|---|---------------------------|
| a. "Espana" | Answer: Emmanuel CHABRIER |
| b. "Sabre Dance" from Gayane | Answer: Aram KHACHATURIAN |
| c. "Polovtsian Dance" from Prince Igor | Answer: Alexander BORODIN |
| d. "Mars, the Bringer of War" from The Planets | Answer: Gustav HOLST |
| e. "Montagues and Capulets" from Romeo and Juliet | Answer: Sergei PROKOFIEV |

23. Identify these Dickens works from characters on a 10-5 basis

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------|
| 1. 10: Uncle Pumblechook and Bentley Drummle | |
| 5: Abel Magwitch and Philip Pirrip | Answer: David Copperfield |
| 2. 10: Mr. Tulkinghorn and Ada Clare | |
| 5: John Jarndyce and Esther Hawdon | Answer: Bleak House |
| 3. 10: Sarah Brass and Kit Nubbles | |
| 5: Daniel Quilp and Nell Trent | Answer: The Old Curiosity Shop |

24. Two are Frenchmen, one is a Belgian, and the other is a Spaniard. For 5 points each:

1. Name the four men who have won the Tour de France at least five times.
Answers: Bernard HINAULT, Jacques ANQUETIL, Eddy MERCKX, Miguel INDURAIN
2. Name both the only American to win the Tour de France and the number of times he won.
Answers: Greg LEMOND; THREE

25. Pencil and paper ready. If a heterozygous tall, homozygous red flower is crossed with a heterozygous tall, homozygous white flower, what would the offspring be like, if tallness is dominant to shortness and red is incompletely dominant to white. For 5 points each what percent of the offspring is:

- | | |
|-----------------|-------------|
| 1. tall, red | Answer: 0% |
| 2. tall, white | Answer: 0% |
| 3. tall, pink | Answer: 75% |
| 4. short, red | Answer: 0% |
| 5. short, white | Answer: 0% |
| 6. short, pink | Answer: 25% |