

1997 Elvis Tournament Northwestern Grimace Bonuses

30 Point Bonus

1. Identify the Dostoyevsky novel for ten points each:

a) This 1864 novel is considered the philosophical testament of existentialism as well as the prologue to Dostoyevsky's great tragic novels. The protagonist is a cynical citizen of St. Petersburg alienated from his surroundings and his fellow man. Yet, he represented an intransigent champion of free will.

Notes from the Underground

b) This 1866 work is a gripping metaphysical detective story. It is a novel of redemption through suffering and represents a "testing" of the limits of individual freedom. Raskolnikov's motive for committing murder is the focus of the story.

Crime and Punishment

c) Finally, this 1871-72 work reflects Dostoyevsky's negative reaction to the political changes that had occurred in Russia between the 1840's and 1860's, more specifically to the radicalism that had supplanted the liberalism of the 1840's.

The Possessed

30 Point Bonus

2. Given the hormone name the gland that secretes it for ten points each:

a) Corticotropin-release factor

Hypothalamus

b) Adrenocorticotrophic hormone

Pituitary Gland

c) Epinephrine and Norepinephrine

Adrenal Glands

30 Point Bonus

3. In 1987, Democrats in the House of Representatives first elected their party whip, which had previously been selected by the Speaker and the Democratic leader. Coincidentally, the shift in power due to Speaker Tip O'Neill's resignation left the whip's post vacant that year.

FTP, who was the outgoing whip, who was promoted to majority leader in 1987?

Tom Foley

Two candidates vied to replace Foley as whip. The winner, a Californian, beat out his colleague from New York City. FTP each, name these two representatives.

ANS: Tony Coelho (co-EL-o) and Charles Rangel

30 point bonus

4. Identify these people and events from the British occupation of Egypt, FTP each:

a) This colonial administrator, who previously served in India, presided over the occupation with absolute authority.

Lord CROMER or Evelyn BARING

b) He was one of the major leaders in the anti-British movement and founded the newspaper al-Liwa in 1900.

Mustafa Kamil

c) Fifty-two residents of this village were convicted in June 1906 of murdering a British officer after protesting British troops shooting the wife of village prayer leader while pigeon shooting.

Dinshaway

30 point bonus

5. Identify these Welfare Economics terms for fifteen points each:

a) A balancing bundle of choices and a system of prices one for each commodity such that the choice of each consumer is preferred or equivalent to all other choices in his consumption set that are of equal or lesser value.

Competitive Equilibrium

b) A balancing bundle of choices such that there exists no state in which one's satisfaction can be raised without lowering someone else's.

Pareto Optimum or Pareto Efficient Point

30 POINT BONUS

6. The Human Body normally has 206 bones, but after the 1996 baseball season, two players have only 205. FTP, name the bone in the hand, whose name means "hooked at the tip," that is so small that if it is broken, doctors simply remove it.

Hamate

FTP each, name the two players, a Seattle Mariner and a Cleveland Indian, who had their hamate bones removed during the 1996 season.

Ken Griffey Jr. and Jim Thome (toe-me)

30 Point Bonus

7. Many mountain ranges are formed by the convergence of two tectonic plates. Given a mountain range, name the two plates that form the range for 5 points a plate.

a) Himalayas

Australian and Eurasian

b) Andes

South American and Nazca

c) Cascades

North American and Juan de Fuca

30 point bonus

8. Identify these 20th century architects from a list of their works, FTP each:

a) Hiroshima Peace Center, Shizoka Press and Broadcasting Center, National Gymnasium for the 1964 Olympics

Kenzo Tange

b) Toronto's Roy Thomson Hall, Alberta's Lethbridge University, buildings at British Columbia's Simon Fraser University

Arthur Charles Erickson

c) New York City's Seagram building, the New York State Theater at Lincoln Center, the Amon Carter Museum of Western Art in Texas

Philip Cortelyou Johnson

30 Point Bonus

9. Identify these Egyptian mythological characters for ten points each:

a) The god of the dead and the underworld, he is the son of Geb and Nut and father of Horus. He is represented mummified in green stone statues.

Osiris

b) This god of darkness murdered his brother Osiris after trying unsuccessfully to seize his throne. Horus then slew him. Name this evil god represented with a pointed muzzle, horns, and a conical crown.

Set

c) Name the supreme god of Egyptian religion during the New Kingdom period. He was represented with a man's body and a falcon's head surmounted by a solar disk. His temple at Karnak is one of the chief architectural monuments of ancient Egypt.

Amon-Re

30 Point Bonus

10. It's time for another Pope bonus. Given a pope, name his successor for 15 points, or for 10 points if further information is needed

a)

15) Victor III

10) He called for the first crusade at the Council of Clermont in 1095.

Urban II

b) 15) Leo XIII

10) This pope, who reigned from 1903-1914, is the last pope to be canonized.

Pius X

20 Point Bonus

11. In 1601, Thomas Morley published a collection of madrigals written by English composers in honor of Queen Elizabeth I. For 20 points, name that collection which contains the madrigals "Hard by a Crystal Fountain" by Thomas Morley and "As Vesta was from Latmos Hill Descending" by Thomas Wheelks.

The Triumphs of Oriana

30 Point Bonus

12.

a) Considering all the current fuss about what to name new elements, it seems a shame that a small mining town has no less than four elements named after it. For 5 points each, identify this 4 similarly named elements, numbered 39, 65, 68, and 70.

Yttrium, Ytterbium, Terbium, and Erbium

b) Now, for 10 points, in what country is the mining town of Ytterby located?

ANS: Sweden

30 Point Bonus

13. President and Chief Justice William Howard Taft is only one of many Supreme Court Justices to also have a prominent political career. FTP each, identify the following justices.

a) This man served two stints on the Supreme Court, having left the first time in order to run for President against Woodrow Wilson in 1916.

CHARLES EVANS HUGHES

b) Before he served on the Court, he was a Senator from South Carolina. After he resigned from the bench, he was President Truman's Secretary of State.

JAMES BYRNES

c) Before being nominated to the Supreme Court by Lincoln, he served as Ohio's governor and senator, and U.S. Secretary of the Treasury.

SALMON P. CHASE

30 Point Bonus

14. For 15 Points Each, identify the following men who have contributed to the field of electrical engineering from a brief description

a) This German Physicist lends his name to a type of crystal defect, a non-ohmic, rectifying contact, and a metal-semiconductor diode.

Walter Schottky

b) This American scientist proposed a ring mechanism for diffusion, but is better known for the type of avalanche breakdown diode that bears his name.

Clarence Zener

30 Point Bonus

15. Name the following universities, FTP given the name of a sports broadcaster who went there, or for five points given an athlete who went there.

a)

10: Bob Costas

5: Jim Brown

Syracuse University

b)

10: Brent Musberger

5: Otto Graham

Northwestern University

c) 10: Peter Gammons

5: James Worthy

University of North Carolina

30 Point Bonus

16. Identify the author based on the works. 30-20-10.

- 30) The Professor of Desire, When She Was Good
- 20) Letting Go, Portnoy's Complaint
- 10) Goodbye Columbus, the Zuckerman tetralogy

Philip Roth

30 Point Bonus

17. Name these figures from the Canaanite story of Creation for fifteen points each:

a) He is the god of the storm, thunder, and lightning. He gets into a fight with the god of the sea whom he defeats with a club. After his victory, he demands recognition and a palace. Eventually, he is killed by Mot and returns to life later.

Baal

b) Now, name the god of the sea who fought and was killed by Baal after appealing to El, the king of the gods to force Baal into a confrontation. His henchmen were Tanin and Lowthan who were also killed by Baal.

Yamm

30 point bonus

18. Name the musician, 30-20-10:

30) He was born on January 20, 1918, in Tampico, Mexico, and by the age of 18, he was the leader of a 15-piece orchestra.

20) He was a wizard of audio engineering and was one of the first musicians to write for stereo sound, utilizing such odd instruments as the Ondioline and Buzzimba along with xylophones and numerous brass instruments in such albums as "Music from a Sparkling Planet" and "Other Worlds, Other Sounds."

10) His songs "Mucha Muchacha" and "Sentimental Journey" have appeared in recent films and on his greatest hits compilation, "Space-Age Bachelor Pad Music," which has marked the 1990s resurgence of 1950s and 1960s lounge music.

Juan Garcia Esquivel

30 Point Bonus

19. The adventures of Athos, Porthos, Aramis, and d'Artagnan continue in the first of two sequels to "The Three Musketeers"

a) For 10 points, name it.

Twenty Years After

b) Now for another 10 points, what is the name of Athos' son?

Raoul (accept: the Vicomte de Bragelonne)

c) Finally, for five points, which cardinal do the "Musketeers" confront in "Twenty Years After"

Mazarin

30 Point Bonus

20. Given the capital of an African nation, name the country that lies due west of the country with the given capital for ten points a piece.

A) Bangui

ANS: Cameroon

B) Gaborone

ANS: Namibia

C) Nairobi

ANS: Uganda

30 Point Bonus

21. Some professional wrestlers claim to be Olympic champions, but in 1996, the major wrestling federations actually brought in Atlanta Olympians to do color commentary as well as wrestle. FTP each, name these Olympians from a brief description.

A) Even before the Olympics, the World Wrestling Federation signed this 400-pound Texas weightlifter to a 10-year wrestling contract. While he finished far from the medal stand, he did defeat Jerry "The King" Lawler at Summerslam a month after the Olympics.

ANS: Mark HENRY

B) This silver medalist in the super heavyweight division of Greco-Roman wrestling was a ubiquitous presence in Atlanta, so it was not a surprise he made a few appearances as a commentator for Ted Turner's World Championship Wrestling.

ANS: Matt GHAFFARI

C) Philadelphia's Extreme Championship Wrestling topped everyone by bringing in an Olympic gold medalist as an announcer. This Pittsburgh native won a gold medal as a heavyweight in freestyle wrestling.

ANS: Kurt ANGLE

20 point bonus

22. So far, the United Nations has not designated 1997 as the year of anything. However, it does continue the long list of U.N. decades. For five points each, tell me what year 1997 is in the following U.N. decades.

A) The Asian and Pacific Decade of Disabled Persons

ANS: 5

B) International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism

ANS: 8

C) United Nations Decade for Human Rights Education

ANS: 3

D) United Nations Decade Against Drug Abuse

ANS: 7

25 Point Bonus

23. In the game of chess, the quickest way to be checkmated is to be caught in the Fool's Mate. This is when black checkmates white on his second move. For 5 points per move and a 5 point bonus for all four, give the four moves of a Fool's Mate game in order

ANS: white: pawn to king bishop 3, black: pawn to king 4, white: pawn to king knight 4, black: queen to rook 5 -mate

30 Point Bonus

24. For fifteen points each, given two cities, name the Interstate which connects them. Or, give the highway for five points given two larger cities.

(15) Columbia, South Carolina and Augusta, Georgia

(5) Atlanta and Dallas

ANS: INTERSTATE 20

(15) Pocatello, Idaho and Provo, Utah

(5) Las Vegas and San Diego

ANS: INTERSTATE _15_

30 Point Bonus

25. Given the characters from Jack Kerouac's On the Road, FTP each identify the real beatniks on whom they were based.

a) Dean Moriarty

ANS: Neal _Cassady_

Old Bull Lee

ANS: WILLIAM _BURROUGHS_

Carlo Marx

ANS: ALLEN _GINSBURG_